A Miner's Will.

Edward L. Scheffiein, the miner who founded the town of Tombstone, Ariz., and died last month near Canyonville, made provision in his will for his last resting place as follows:

"It is my wish, if convenient, to be buried in the garb of a prospector, my old pick and canteen with me on top of the granite hills about three miles westerly from the city of Tombstone, Ariz; that a monument such as prospectors build when locating a mining claim be built over my grave, and no other monument or slab erected. And that none of my friends wear crape. Under no circumstances do I want to be buried in any cemetery or graveyard."

The will was filed at Oakland Cal for probate. All of his estate, valued at $75,000, is given to his widow and brother.

Dr Will Jackson, of Grant's Pass, was in Medford a couple of days this week upon professional business. The doctor is owner of a bowling alley in Grant's Pass and is figuring right now on putting in a similar business in Medford this fall—in fact a contract for the erection of a building for his use is reported to have already been let.

Some for ten, some for twenty and some for thirty years have suffered from piles and then have been quickly and permanently cured by using De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and all forms of skin diseases. W. F. Kremer.

Mr. Bryan's Movements.

In a letter to J. W. Howard of this city Mr. Bryan says he will speak at Ashland before the Chatauqua society on July 10, and before the same society in Oregon City on the 14th. He will try to greet as many of the people of Grant's Pass as possible while the train tarries here going north on the 11th. His appointment for Salt Lake City is for the 14th. He will probably come to Oregon again in the Fall and Grant's Pass will then be likely to have the honor of extending him its hospitality.

Not only piles of the very worst kind can be cured by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, but eczema, scalds, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers and all other skin troubles can be instantly relieved by the same remedy. W. F. Kremer.

A Successful Year.

The State Normal School at Monmouth has just closed a very successful year, with an unusually large enrollment of its professional classes. The school offers a strong academic and professional course of three years, designed throughout to train for teaching in the public schools.

The catalogue of the school shows that fully ninety per cent of its graduates are, at present, engaged in teaching, which argues well for the work of the Normal.

Don't thin your blood with sassafras or poison it with blue-mass; but aid Nature by using De Witt's Little Early Risers the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and stomach and liver troubles. They are purely vegetable. W. F. Kremer.

The Condemned Men.

Carpenters will prepare the gallows next week for the execution of Meleon, who is to be hanged on July 2. The condemned man has nothing to say to reporters and has evidently made up his mind to die without confessing anything. As he has a wife and two children he probably thinks it would be better for them to let his memory keep all the advantage of whatever doubt there may be as to his commission of the awful deed. Fiester still has hope of a new trial and whatever benefits may result therefrom.

If it required an annual outlay of $100 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by all druggists.

OVER THE STATE.

A new court house is to be built in Eugene.

John Stewart shipped 1380 head of cattle from Eugene to Montana.

There were 127 boys in the reform school when the new superintendent E. M. Croisan took charge.

A train of 31 cars of cattle passed through The Dalles en route from the Willamette valley to Idaho.

The people of Pilot Rock have offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the persons that burglarized John Sylvester's store.

J. C. Lonogan has returned to The Dalles from a cattle-buying trip in Crook county. He bought 400 head down there and will ship them to Montana.

Charles K. Spaulding who has a force of 35 men making a log drive down the Santiam, expects to arrive at Newberg with 4,500,000 feet of logs, about July 1.

Wool is coming into the warehouses in The Dalles at the rate of about 250,000 pounds a day, and the warehouses are rapidly being filled, says the Times Mountaineer.

A carload of paper in which to wrap peaches is expected in Ashland before long. It is estimated that this quantity of paper will be sufficient to wrap peaches for 100,000 boxes.

The Cauthorn warehouse in Corvallis was burned down Wednesday morning early. Sparks from a passing steamboat supposed to be the cause. Loss $8000: insurance $2500.

J. M. Hamilton, whose back was broken while he was attempting to get off a brakebeam in front of the Umatilla house in The Dalles about two weeks ago, died Sunday.

The Dalles Chronicle says that a number of the women berry-pickers in Hood River wear bloomers at their work, and that some have even adopted the manly blue overall.

A large band of sheep was being driven across the railroad track in Arlington last week when a train pulled into the station and frightened them. Several hundred head piled over a bluff, and a number of them were killed.

The Dalles Chronicle says that the Hood River strawberry crop was considerably damaged by the hot weather. The berries were not "cooked" but their ripening was forced so that a large percentage of very small and unsalable berries is the result.

The Junction City Times tells of a case in which a bicyclist struck and knocked down a lady. This, of course was nothing unusual, but the bicyclist, instead of wheeling out of sight, helped his victim up and gave her $5 to repair a badly damaged dress.

A pleasant-faced boy of about 12 was around East Portland last week with wild strawberries for sale. He gathered them near Mount Scott and walked in with them. He sold for 80 cents what had taken him an entire day to gather. In coming in and returning home the little fellow walked nine miles.

Just beyond the east line of the corporate limits of Brownsville is a new building in course of construction, which it is rumored, will be used as a saloon. This has been the principal theme of conversation upon the streets and to say that it is a disappointment to those who cast their ballot against the saloon at the last election, is mildly stating the truth.

Mrs. Green, wife of Captain Harry Green, was sitting under a tree watching a baseball game in Lobster, last Sunday. She had on her lap her 7-months-old baby, when a fly ball came down through the tree and struck the baby square in the face. It was thought the little one would die, but hopes are now entertained that it will recover.

O. C. Beck, a young man of Monmouth, was held up at midnight, in Albany. Two men, one tall, one short, confronted him and told him to throw up his hands, which he did, when he was relieved of $9 15 in cash, a gold ring and a pocket piece, consisting of a dollar dated in 1889, with his father's name on it, presented him that year on his father's 60th birthday. The men "skipped."

Burglars broke in to the store of John Sylvester Pilot Rock Umatilla county, last Saturday night, and stole $215 in cash and checks amounting to $50. The safe was blown open with such a heavy charge of powder that all of the store fixtures were wrecked, and the safe b'own clear across the room, and wrecked. It is thought that two men committed the burglary, and that they are two of a gang that lives within a radius of 15 miles of Pilot Rock.

Gypsies in the Willamette.

The band of gypsies traveling down the Willamette valley has received many notices from the press along the route taken. The Corvallis Times says it is a band numbering 100 or more, traveling in 16 wagons. Men, women and children are all black, half-naked, dirty and all jabber in a foreign language. They are the same gang that has been traveling through the southern part of the state, where the newspapers have been filled with stories of their thefts. At some places they walked into houses and compelled women to give them food, held up children en route to school and robbed them of the contents of their dinner baskets, and committed many other petty depredations. In Corvallis they were met by Chief Wells at Mary's river bridge and ordered to get out of town at once.

Eight wagons and a band of about 35 dirty Mexican greasers camped a mile south of Salem on the Turner road. They were promptly warned by Chief of Police Dilley to keep out of Salem, and Sheriff Wrightman served notice on them to pass on. They obeyed the warning, and were allowed to pass through town, under official surveillance. This evening they crossed the bridge. Across the river they were joined by six more wagons, and another band that had come up on the West Side. There is another detachment in Polk county, making more than 100 in all. They passed on north.

Round House Removal.

A report is current in Roseburg that the Grant's Pass round house is to be moved there. The railroad men here know nothing about it, and it is probably a Douglas county canard. It would not be business policy to move a lot of decaying lumber, though the company may probably increase its round-house capacity at Roseburg. Grant's Pass has no objections to the removal of the buildings, as they are never occupied except by a helper, and their removal would cause our council to open Third, Fourth and Fifth streets across the track, an innovation badly needed by our growing city.

W. B. Johnson, Newark, O., says, "One Minute Cough Cure saved my only child from dying by croup." It has saved thousands of others suffering from croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and other throat and lung troubles. W. F. Kremer.

Property For Sale.

Five acres of fine orchard, six room house, barn and outbuildings, fruit trees now bearing, only ten minutes walk from depot. Price $1200. Apply to
T. S. CONDY.

Croup and whooping cough are childhood's terrors; but like pneumonia bronchitis, and other throat and lung troubles, can be quickly cured by using One Minute Cough Cure. Dr. W. F. Kremer.

Rogue River Mining Items.

Harmon and Green are tapping Galice creek with a 1½ mile ditch. A giant and pipe will be in position this Fall ready for the early rains.

The Harrington boys have been getting out some rich rock from the Exchequer mine on Williams creek. The ore is hauled to the Bailey mill on Missouri Flat for crushing.

A dredging plant is to be put in on the bank of Rogue rive near Mrs. Tyler's place, some 15 miles below Grant's Pass right away. Messrs. Snowgoose and Trefren are the projectors. The machinery will arrive this week from San Francisco.

Supt. King of the Oregon Bonanza, on Williams creek, is putting up a concentrator which will save the sulphurets hereafter. An assay of the tailings showed them to be worth $18 a ton and so the company didn't think they could stand such waste. The mill to which the concentrator will be attached runs the year round by water power. A large amount of such ore is now on the dump awaiting the erection of the appliance for saving the sulphurets which will be shipped to Everett, Wash. for roasting.

There has been considerable talk about the streets for several days of a big strike on Elk creek, near the head of Rogue river in Jackson county. Peter Applegate was up there on a survey last summer and came across a field of "bull quartz" which has been walked over from time out o' mind and he decided to make a mortar test. The result was an amazing string of gold. He and McKenzie and Dahlberg of this city have gotten hold of some claims, but there is land enough for everybody. The rock seems to have been blown out of the bowels of the earth some time before Adam was born and it lays now not in streaks, beds or ledges, but in great mountain slides. If half what we hear be true, the nations will have to get some other basis of currency besides gold, as there is enough on the head of Rogue river to make it as cheap as iron. The scene of these great gold fields is 40 miles east of Gold Hill.

Hugh McKenzie, who came down from the scene Tuesday, says there is a massive ledge of low-grade ore some 3000 feet thick. He doesn't know the length of it. Some 18 claims had been staked off when he left there, but no one was around there and there was little or no excitement about it until he reached the Pass. The affair calls to the mind of a business man of this city, who some 30 years ago was a boy in Jackson county when the Big Yank ledge started a mining fever. The lead was reported a quarter of a mile wide and fifty miles long and every piece of rock rich as any ever found in California. People got up in the night to leave for the Big Yank, but the Big Yank lays on both sides of lower Rogue river to this day, a big ledge of "Bull quartz" with very little trace of gold. No one is working it and anyone who has the grit and capital to sink a tunnel or drive a shaft may do so without molestation.

Breeders of horses will be pleased to notice that the service of Mr. Cass' horses has been reduced to meet the times. Now is a good chance to get a good colt cheap.
