

Clondyke

Attracts attention, and so do the pictures now exhibited in our window. They are Glass Mounted Reproductions of Famous Paintings and Art Photographs, all the colors of the original being faithfully reproduced, and in such a manner as not to fade. They are adornments for any home and are absolutely

Free of Charge

Nothing so striking and attractive has ever before been offered the public as these superb pictures. As an advertisement for our business, we will for a short time make arrangements with our

Cash Customers

Whereby they can each secure one or more of these beautiful pictures free of charge.

Goods and Prices are Guaranteed.

B. & M. Grocery.

Camping

IS THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

We can furnish you what you need to make camp work easy, such as DUTCH OVENS, CAMP STOVES, TINWARE, Camp Kettles, Fishing Tackle, Etc.

DON'T FORGET A HAMMOCK.

Of which we have a good stock

Cramer Bros.

NEXT TO POST OFFICE.

BICYCLES REPAIRED.

BICYCLES TO RENT.

OREGON STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

MONMOUTH, OREGON.

A TRAINING SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS.

Regular Normal course of three years. Senior years wholly professional. Training department of 9 grades with 200 children. Instruction and training in gymnastics (swedish system) and vocal music for public schools. The Normal diploma is recognized by law as a STATE LIFE CERTIFICATE to teach.

Slight expense. Tuition, Books, Board and Lodging approximately $130.00 per year. Students board themselves $10 per year. Academic grades accepted from High Schools. Catalogues cheerfully sent on application. Address: P. L. CAMPBELL, President, or W. A. WASS, Sec. Faculty.

CLOSING OUT SALE

Owing to my health I am compelled to quit the Merchandise Business, and will close out my entire stock REGARDLESS OF COST, in the next two weeks. Come early and secure BARGAINS.

THE RACKET STORE.

GEO. P. FURMAN, Propr.

Selling Out at Cost. Why?

Because, by mutual consent the partnership business of Dean Bros. will be discontinued. It becomes necessary to sell a large part of the stock immediately. We will sell AT COST (freight excepted) until this advertisement ceases.

Red Star Store.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 5, 1897.

THE WEEK'S JOTTINGS.

Shoes repaired at Hackett's. C. St. Louis mounts gold nuggets. Oranges and lemons at Bartlett's. Get your ice cream at Redfield's. B. & M. handle Snowy Butte flour. If you owe Howard you must pay up. Fresh vegetables every day at Bartlett's. Leave your order for fruit and berries at Mash & Pike. If you want fresh fruit for canning save your order at Bartlett's. New supply of wall paper at the Grants Pass Furniture & Casket Company. Mrs. Anderson's dwelling near the Baptist church is nearing completion. The doctors jokingly say that it is distressingly healthy in town these days. Farmers on Applegate are reneering well pleased because of their fair crops. Go to the Novelty Candy Store for a nice dish of ice cream. Conklin building Front and Fifth.

The Opera House meat market is headquarters for the kind of meat you want to get—the best. Two good milk cows for sale cheap. Call on or address W. A. Matchett, 4 1/2 miles east of Grants Pass. Have your dealer keep Snowy Butte. Williams Bros. will soon have agent Purdon's neat residence ready for occupancy. The Grants Pass Furniture and Casket Co. has a full supply of carpets and matting. Come and see them. Nat Fries and Stewart Blackburn are keeping the city well supplied with water, the former at night and the latter by day. See those sponge stuffed sweat pads at Hackett's. They absorb the sweat and keep the horses shoulders dry and cool. The water company have increased the water supply and customers can now use water for two hours each day, and in a short time there will be plenty.

R. O. McCrosky is contemplating the construction of a nice two story dwelling. The Williams brothers are figuring on his plans but no contract is let as yet. Taylor & Weidman, the contractors, and builders, have the contract for putting up the Reikopi brick on sixth street. Burning, fishing and diseases instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burnings, hemorrhoids, itching, etc.—W. F. Kremer. There will be a meeting at the Presbyterian church Friday eve at 8 o'clock P. M. to hear the report of the delegates from the C. E. convention, at San Francisco.

The report comes to us that Bert Davis' barn and other out buildings, near Merlin, were burned a few days ago. The reporter informs us that had it not been for a young lady who lives neighborly, the house would have burned also. Forest fires were the cause. Mining Items. Jewell & Dodge have taken in about $3000 in gold dust since our last issue. Mr. Bennett of the Bennett and Alfred mine walked into town from his mine last week. Taylor & Crow of Galice creek opened up a fresh body of ore last week in their mine, which shows up well. Chaney and Henly made a cleanup in their mine on Pleasant creek, last week, taking out between two and three thousand dollars.

J. H. King and C. A. Macomber of the Oregon Bonanza mine are now in old Mexico looking up some very favorable prospects in that country. The Cortez miners may hear from Mr. King later. Mr. C. E. Tebbe, manager for the Gold Basin Mining Company has severed his connection with this company and went Monday to San Francisco where he will remain but a short time, after which he intends going to Clondyke. The Mining Company has ceased operations for the present.

Willie Johnson and Loren Adams, two nice boys of this community, started for Clondyke yesterday night. These boys are not afraid to work as anything they can find to do and we are satisfied that they will succeed where many others will fail. The boys may go as far as Juneau this fall. The Cocaine force wish them much success. Mr. Bennett, of the Bennett and Alfred mine on Rogue river brought to this office a few pieces of quartz from his mine this week. We are not an expert in the examination of ore, but looking at it through the eyes of others, we pronounced a good. Mr. Bennett informs us that they have about 25 tons on the dump now, and the prospects for better ore continue the deeper they go. Calvert and Stevens on Pleasant creek are making preparations for a more extensive run in their mine this coming winter. These gentlemen are enlarging their ditches, building two new reservoirs, putting in an 11 inch pipe and a No. 2 pump. Mr. Stevens informs us that it will keep them moving at a lively rate to get all done they want to do before the winter rains set in. They have a good power of mining property and are not about to spend more money on it.

Willie Johnson and Loren Adams, two nice boys of this community, started for Clondyke yesterday night. These boys are not afraid to work as anything they can find to do and we are satisfied that they will succeed where many others will fail. The boys may go as far as Juneau this fall. The Cocaine force wish them much success. Mr. Bennett, of the Bennett and Alfred mine on Rogue river brought to this office a few pieces of quartz from his mine this week. We are not an expert in the examination of ore, but looking at it through the eyes of others, we pronounced a good. Mr. Bennett informs us that they have about 25 tons on the dump now, and the prospects for better ore continue the deeper they go. Calvert and Stevens on Pleasant creek are making preparations for a more extensive run in their mine this coming winter. These gentlemen are enlarging their ditches, building two new reservoirs, putting in an 11 inch pipe and a No. 2 pump. Mr. Stevens informs us that it will keep them moving at a lively rate to get all done they want to do before the winter rains set in. They have a good power of mining property and are not about to spend more money on it.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

Will Jackson resident dentist.

Mash & Pike for Snowy Butte flour. Snowy Butte again leads the market. Clemens, Druggist, opp. Opera House. W. H. Flanagan, physician surgeon and dentist. See our special prices on clothing.—Harth and Son.

Wall paper 10 cents double roll at the G. P. F. & C. Co. Howard means it when he says—"Come and settle up." We are sorry to learn that the Grants Pass band has disbanded. 12 boxes parlor matches for 10 cents or 20 boxes for 25. Mash & Pike. Sweetland & Plummer always have a good supply of choice cuts of meat. Monday was rather a quiet day in town because of the rush on Saturday. The A. J. Anderson Fruit Company will ship a car load of prunes this week. The best place in town to get your shoes repaired is at Hackett's harness and shoe shop. The school board in Portland cut teachers' and janitors' wages amounting to about $12000 for next year. The merchant who tells you he has something else as good as Hoe Cake soap is a good man—to keep away from. Yellow washing powder will make your clothes the same color. Avoid this by using Soap Foam. It's pure white. Theodore Mott went to Medford yesterday to be examined by Drs. Geary & Pickel for an increase in his pension. Tell the conductor to put you off at the Red Star where goods are going at cost. The news is spreading like wildfire. Quite a number of people from the country came into town Saturday to do some trading and also to attend the circus. Don't be misled into buying soap that contains marble dust, talc and other worthless fillings. Buy Hoe Cake and save the wrappers. The News, Bertie McLean's paper came out last week double its former size. Bertie is a rustler and his paper is an excellent one. The Times says that Dr. A. C. Caldwell, the dentist, will go east from San Francisco in the interest of a new dental invention and will be on the road several months. Last Thursday Wm. Crow brought in to town Mr. Frank Duff, an old miner of Galice creek. It seems that Duff has been sick for some time and was wandering around in the woods in a deranged condition of mind when Mr. Crow found him and took care of him. Mr. C. St. Louis visited his family down the river Sunday, returning Monday. Mr. St. Louis has a farm just across the river from Henry Booth's place on Rogue river and from it he brought to town a stalk of corn which measured 12 feet in length and still not grown. Who says that corn will not grow on good land in this country? The many friends of R. K. Montgomery of Woodburn, Or., formerly night operator at this place, will be pleased to learn that this gentleman will be stationed at Ashland as assistant agent, after the 15th of this month. E. L. May of Ashland will be transferred to this city as night operator and R. D. Nevelle will go to Woodburn from here to act as assistant agent at that place. This change will be very satisfactory to Mrs. Montgomery who longs to get back to Southern Oregon.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

PERSONAL.

Judge H. L. Benson went to Roseburg Saturday evening. Miss Essie Hartman is the smiling clerk in the Red Star this week. J. M. Johns of Kerby was in town on business the fore part of the week. Tom Galvin went to Jacksonville Sunday, we presume to see his best girl. Mr. C. Lovelace of Williams creek was in the city Monday on business. Little Lee Taylor, son of W. B. Taylor, is visiting his brother on Wolf Creek. Victor Peterson and lady went to Colting for a few days after their wedding. William Cheshire and family are living on Mr. H. C. Kfaney's farm north of town. Johnny Galvin went to California Sunday morning where he will attend school. Mrs. Howard Hill, sister of J. E. Peterson, went to Portland this week to visit relatives. Miss Anna Wade has finished her school near Leland and is now at home with her parents. Harold Martin went to Corvallis Monday night to join his mother who now resides at that place. Miss Mary Griffith will teach the fall term of school in the Woodville district, Jackson County. Miss Carrie Farr went down to Gravel Pit Sunday night where she opened up school Monday morning. Bob Eberle and family went to Savage Rapids on Rogue river yesterday to have a few days of quiet rest. Miss Rose Wilson went from Leland to Rock Point one day last week to spend a few hours with her mother. Mr. Gard and daughter were visiting relatives on Williams creek last week. They went to Portland Monday. Miss L. M. Davis, her mother and brother, have gone to Merlin to spend the remainder of the summer on their ranch. Dr. M. A. DaShields, who has been spending several days with his brother-in-law Prof. Thompson, went north Sunday night. Mrs. Watts and her daughter Miss Lucia Watts of Farmington, Ill., are visiting the family of Aleck Watts on Williams creek. Mrs. Dr. Parsons and son Fred went to their home in Ashland last week after a few days visit with the family of Mr. George Calhoun. Charley Decker and family of Waldo came to town Saturday to enjoy the circus. They spent a few days in Ashland the first part of the week. Messrs. Henry Booth and John Kelly are now permanently located at Cottage Grove where they are attending to their extensive lumber interests. F. H. Mason, of the firm of Holly, Mason, Marks Company, Spokane, Washington, is in the county investigating the mining interests of the county with the view of investing, if he can find some thing suitable. Mrs. C. B. Traux of Cambridge, Mass. is paying her son H. L. Traux of this city an extended visit. She may remain in the Pass through the winter season. Rev. C. M. Carpenter of Cambridge, Mass., brother-in-law of H. L. Traux of this city, and an old time friend of the families of Messrs. Kinney and Dodge left Sunday night for his home in the East. Miss Lou Wade who has been attending the Indiana state normal school for the past year will complete the course in that institution this summer. Miss Wade will return to her home in this city about the first of September. Mr. Geo. Calhoun of the firm of Calhoun Bros. started for Pelican Bay and the Klamath country Wednesday morning. Mrs. Calhoun went as far as Ashland where she will remain until Mr. C. has satisfied himself with breathing the mountain air and returns. Miss Vida Moore returned from Portland Tuesday where she has been visiting relations for the past month. Miss Kittle Moore, daughter of Judge Moore of Salem and little Clifford Moore, son of Dr. Moore of Portland came home with Vida to have a vacation and a visit. Mr. Frank Smith, formerly of the Gaquet stage, came from Grants Pass where he is now located, with a load of peaches this week. Mr. George Bolt of the same place and in the same business also called on friends in Crescent City this week.—Crescent City News. E. E. Dunbar returned home last week from Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he had been visiting his wife who is at that place for her health. Mr. Dunbar says that his wife has improved much in health since going to that place. Mrs. Dunbar's many friends in the city will be pleased to hear the good news. Mrs. C. I. Lee and two daughters, Misses Lottie and Emma of Kansas City, Kansas, have been visiting the family of R. L. Cue the past week. Mrs. Lee is Mr. Cue's sister. The ladies enjoyed themselves very much during their stay here and they were loath to leave, but ties and would-be ties are stronger than those of brother and sister, and uncle and niece, and so the party bid their relatives a loving farewell Wednesday night and took their departure for home.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington, Tuesday, July 27th, they lost the trail about 10 o'clock P. M., and while they were trying to find their way to camp, it seems that Prof. Edgar McClure who held the chair of chemistry in the Oregon State University lost his footing and fell 300 feet, killing him instantly. Next morning a search party found his body and it was taken to Seattle and shipped to Eugene, his home, for burial. This is very sad indeed for his family but sad also for the people of Oregon to know that the University has lost its most highly respected professor. Prof. McClure attended strictly to his own business and he had more friends among the students than any other member of the faculty.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sabbath, but the pastor, H. A. Wood, will fill the M. E. pulpit both morning and evening, as will the pastor, N. F. Jenkins taking his outing. Announcement. We are pleased to announce to the people that from July 1, 1897, the subscription price of the CORTEX will be $1.25 per year. This step has been taken that the paper may be placed within reach of every home in the county. The cleanest and best paper in Southern Oregon for only one dollar and twenty-five cents per year. You can't do without it if you want the news. Now is the time to subscribe. Those having paid in advance for the CORTEX since July 1, '97, will be credited the extra amount on their subscription. Prof. Edgar McClure Killed. While a party of Mazamas were descending Mt. Rainier, Washington,