John A. Walters was arrested for assault and battery yesterday on a warrant issued from Justice Holman's court. He made no plea, but asked the court for a reasonable length of time in which to secure counsel as he would have to get an attorney from elsewhere. The court granted the request and the case was postponed until Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m. Mr Walters had pleaded guilty to a similar charge last Monday morning, immediately after the assault was committed, before Police Judge Tom Smith, and was fined $10.

High School Outing.

Last Saturday morning about 40 pupils of the eighth grade and high school accompanied by their teachers, Prof. Cameron and Miss Goodin, went to Savage Rapids on Rogue river for a day's outing and recreation. Our reporter informed us that the memorable features of the day were the pleasant drive to the rapids, the exciting games played, the excellent camp dinner and the beautiful moonlight drive home. Teachers and pupils who are confined to hard school room work all the week can well afford to have a little recreation like this on Saturday, and especially when the Prof. and wife go along to chaperone them and bring them all back rejoicing over what a good time they had.

Obituary.

Austin Bourough, who departed this life September 29, 1897, was born in Iowa, Keokuk county, and in company with his parents crossed the plains in '63 with an ox team. On this trip a brother 15 years old was killed by the Cheyenne Indians. Mr. Borough had since that time resided in Oregon.

He had been an invalid for nearly two years and for more than two months had been confined to his bed, suffering greatly most of the time, but bearing his suffering with exemplary Christian fortitude, and a grace and strength not of this world. Patience was exemplified during his illness; no one heard him murmer or complain, but he waited patiently for release, and welcomed it when it came. His true virtuous character left its impress upon all with whom he came in contact, for virtue is that perfect good which is the completion of a happy life, and as he possessed both patience and virtue, he possessed the two worthiest qualities of man.

A few moments before his death he listened to the reading of many comforting words of scripture, the last being the 23rd Psalm. He requested that all his neices and nephews be brought to his bedside, and with a few kind words he bade them a sad farewell, beseeching them to meet him in heaven. He leaves behind a devoted mother, one brother, two sisters, other relatives and many true friends, whose grief is tempered by the knowledge that his sufferings are ended. In leaving this earth he leaves behind him that which is rather to be chosen than great riches—a good name. "The richest treasure mortal times afford is spotless reputation. A FRIEND

Grants Pass, Oct. 13, 1897.

Dwelling Burned.

Mr. E. Erickson, living two and a half or three miles above Wilderville, lost his home last Saturday morning about 2 o'clock, and most of his household goods by fire. When the family went to bed nothing was wrong so far as they knew, but when they awoke the woodshed was on fire and too far gone to save the home. From the best indications it would appear that the home was set on fire. We did not learn whether there was any insurance on the house or the furniture.

FRUIT JARS.

We have advertised them before, but the chances are we want to do so again 'Cause why? Not many left, and it's getting late—the jar season will soon be over. We have only about three gross now, and are going to sell them to somebody—that means the right price. Come and see.

5 5 5 10

You Say This Addition

is incorrect. So it is; but when we explain that it refers to the price of our Toilet Soaps, which we are now selling at 5c a cake or three cakes for 10c, you will see that we are following the straight path of truth. This soap is strictly first-class, nicely perfumed, and 3 cakes in a box.

OUR COFFEE

Trade is on the increase all the time, but we want more of it. We are like some others—never satisfied. All who have used that whole roast we are selling at 15c a pound or 7 pounds for $1 00 say it's all right, and the cheapest coffee they ever bought. We have higher priced coffees for higher priced people—20c, 25c, 30c and 35c a pound. They are all full values, and the best to be had anywhere for the same money. The 35c kind is our noted blend of Mocha and Java, that always used to sell at 40c a pound. If you prefer Green Coffee, we have one kind for 15c a pound, another for 16⅔c, another 20c (5⅔ pounds for $1 00), and a No. 1 Java 3¾ pounds for $1.00.

Something About Butter

Do you want really good Butter—better butter than the ordinary butter you get at the ordinary store? We have it. We believe our Butter is superior to any other butter sold in Grants Pass. Try it and we will have your butter trade. 25c a pound, full weight.
