

MINERS IN THE KLONDIKE

Are suffering for want of food, for want of shelter, for the necessities of life. Reports say hundreds will die from starvation and exposure. What a contrast to the Miners of Southern Oregon!

There are good mines here as well as in the Klondike, and none of the hardships. Everything is plentiful, and every thing is cheap. We quote a few prices:

Bacon, good and fresh, reduced from 12 1/2 to 11c per lb.; Lard 5lb pail 50c; 10 lb pail 90c; Dried prunes, 5c per lb.

Flour - - -

All the best grades, $23.00 per 1000, $1.20 per sack; second grade 50c per sack; Mill feed $1.00 per hundred; 95c by the 500 or over.

Apple butter, 10lb pail, 80c.
Olives in bulk 10c per pint.
Dill pickles, 10c per quart.
We have just received a lot of fine choice cranberries 12 1/2c per qt.
