

Coffee Talk

We've talked so much about our celebrated Chase & Sanborn's Coffee, at 40c, that some people think it is the only kind we have. Our "Special Mixed" is genuine Coffee and a good blend, at 20c per pound. It isn't worth while using burnt peas when coffee can be had at that price. Then we have

Mocha and Java 30c
Climax 25c
Broken Java 10c

We call your special attention to our Seed Potatoes. They are extra good and are what we call them: Early Rose, Early King, Early Jersey Blush, which are very prolific, and Early Burpers. Some fine Seed Corn, which is taking well.

Salmon Beilies $ 8 1/2
Mackerel, very fine, per keg 2 00
Codfish 8 1/2

Swiss Cheese, which is the genuine imported article, and not made in this country.

Towle's log Cabin Maple Syrup, delicious—just the thing for hot cakes these cold mornings. In pint, quart, 1/2 gallon and 1 gallon cans.

Prize Baking Powder, with granite ware and fine dishes as premiums. Every can draws some valuable and useful article, many of the pieces being worth the price of the Baking Powder alone.

In Terra Cotta ware we are showing many pretty flower pots and flower baskets, and also some jardinières.

Men are judged by what they do. So is Hood's Sarsaparilla, and its great cures have given it a good name everywhere. It is the One True Blood Purifier and Great Nerve Tonic.

H. B. Miller informs us that work on his mountain road into the Swede Basin is progressing nicely. About four miles of the road are already completed and the thirty men now at work will soon finish the remainder. There are a great many miners over in that section who will make use of this road and it would not be a bad idea for the county to have some interest therein and also to aid in extending it a little further.
