There is a movement on foot by the business men of Grants Pass to build a good wagon road from Grants Pass down Rogue river to Galtice creek a good road to that prosperous mining camp would be of incalculable benefit to the business men of Grants Pass. Galtice creek is destined in the near future to be one among the very best mining camps in Josephine county. We hear of constant and satisfactory discoveries of quartz edges to say nothing of the hundreds of acres of paying placer. By all means let this enterprise be pushed to completion. The miners down there will bind themselves to do their share, surely our county court will not, we feel confident, withhold a liberal appropriation for this enterprise. There is little if any doubt about our business men doing their share towards its completion. Let the good work go on with a vim and we will show the whole country that Grants Pass has come to stay.

In our advertising columns will be found an announcement of Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls' forthcoming book, entitled "America's War for Humanity." Canvassing agents will find in it a book of remarkable interest, and certainly of extraordinary salability. The history of the war is told in picture and story, and in a way that always characterizes the brilliant pen of Senator Ingalls. In narrating the incidents of this war, he finds grand scope for his superb descriptive and analytical powers. The theme is worthy of the author and the author is worthy of the theme. It is published by N. D. Thompson Publishing Co., of St. Louis, Mo. It will be a monumental work that will not only be everywhere read, but it will be a monument to his genius that will outlive in history his brilliant senatorial career. The subscription book trade and the canvassing agent are fortunate in the fact that an author of such rare ability has been enlisted in its interest.
