George A. Guild is doing some rustling for the postmaster of Grants Pass. Senator C. E. Harmon and N. P. Dodge are the other applicants. Postmaster Horn's time will soon expire and this accounts for the rustling just at this time.

Mr. Guild is coming in rather late in the race but in view of the fact that he is a personal friend of Congressman Tongue he may yet knock the persimmon. It is a difficult matter to tell who has the inside track when the running is done on a political track.

Personal

T. J. Mackin of Leland, spent Monday in this city.

G. W. Ingalls was down from Ashland last Monday on business.

"We Won the Prize"

The Butterick Publishing Company of New York sent us a check for $15.00

Stating that we had won the Third Prize for securing subscriptions to The Delineator. This in competition with some of the largest houses in the United States.

This Speaks Well for Southern Oregon.

And shows that the people of Southern Oregon keep well posted on prevailing styles and fully appreciate the grand work being done by

The Butterick Publishing Company

in their efforts to simplify and reduce the cost of Home Dressmaking and Decorating. We have, therefore, decided to make the following proposition to the people of Southern Oregon:

Any person or persons purchasing Merchandise to the amount of $15.00 during the month of December, 1898, and presenting tickets to that amount at our office on or before, Dec. 24, 1898,

We will present Free of Charge One Year's Subscription to the Delineator.

We would like to place the Delineator in every home in Southern Oregon and are ready to do so on the above easy terms. REMEMBER--this offer will be withdrawn January 1, 1899.
