Rev. Robert McLean went to Medford Wednesday morning.

G. S. Schmittlein of Woodville, was in this city Tuesday doing business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Harth went to Woodville last Monday returning the same day.

W. H. Brunk, ex-postmaster of Ashland is in town today (Wednesday) on business.

James W. Abbott returned last Tuesday from Portland where he has been for several days on business.

Thomas H. P. Taylor of Woodville was on our streets last Saturday.

Paul Bristow returned the first of the week from Eugene where he has been the past three weeks or more.

H. C. Perkins, the surveyor, went to Wolf Creek last Monday evening, to be gone some days on business.

James McClurg of Denver, Colo., arrived the first of the week and in company with F. V. Metts went out into the Rev. district.

Rev. E. A. Holdridge passed south to Ashland one day last week where he is now holding a series of revival meetings which are being well attended.

Dr. J. W. Olders, a prominent dentist of Medford, came down last Monday evening, and the next morning went out to Kerby to remain for a few days to do some work along his line.

H. L. Martin and J. H. West of Lane county, this state, arrived in this city last Monday morning and will perhaps remain during the winter months, and if they like, perhaps longer.

Sam Prentiss left Tuesday morning for San Francisco where he goes for an extended visit, having been constantly at work with Mr. Jewell for a number of years and feeling the need of a rest.

Arthur Conklin of the Mining Journal, was gone to Portland to look after a printing outfit he bought there some time ago, or rather for which he traded. Mr. Conklin will probably bring the plant to Grants Pass to combine with the Mining Journal plant.

Miss Fannie Wertz arrived from Portland Tuesday morning for a visit with parents and friends in this city. Miss Fannie has been in Portland for the past two years where she has a good position as stenographer with the Chamber of Commerce. She will remain until after the holidays.

M. W. Wheeler and family will probably leave the last of this week for Sumpter, Baker county, Ore., where they will reside. Mr. Wheeler will go into business with a friend up there. We regret their departure from among us but since they will go, we can but wish them the best of success in their new home.

B. O. McCulloch and H. C. Perkins are down on Wolf creek making a preliminary survey of the great ditch for the Victor Mining company. This ditch, it is reported, will be at least 50 miles long, and a big sum of money it will take to put it through, but this company has the wherewithal to prosecute any enterprise it may undertake.

George K. Rogers, chief organizer for the Woodmen of the World, is expected Thursday night to give the boys of the order a lecture. The gentleman's field of labor is California but he is going to take a tour of Oregon for the good of the cause. He will be present next Friday when several new members will be initiated and all the boys are requested to be present.

Judge H. L. Benson was a passenger on Monday's north-bound, going to Salem for a few days. He will return soon, stopping off in this city for a few days with old friends. The Judge informs us that his little boy, Harrie, was just convalescing from an attack of typhoid fever, having been confined to his bed for one month already.

P. H. Harth went down to Douglas county last Friday night to Bowtell's Springs for the benefit of his health. The past two months he has suffered a good deal with rheumatism, and getting no better he concluded to try these springs in hopes of obtaining relief. We are pleased to state that he reports some improvement.

S. W. Upton and Fred Mensch have leased the upper part of the Harmon & Green place on Galice creek, and will begin work at once. These boys have a splendid water privilege and good equipments and these combined with their acuties for rustling ought to bring them good returns provided, there is anything in the ground to get out. Success to you boys.

George Robinson will start in a few days for his old home near Manchester, England, where he intends to spend the remainder of his days. Mr. Robinson has been in this country a long time and we hardly believe that he will be satisfied to go back to England to live out the remainder of the days allotted to him and it would not surprise us if he is seen again on the streets of Grants Pass at some future day.

Our Prize Offers.

This week we make some liberal offers in the way of prizes that ought to attract the attention of those who want to make a little effort. These offers are genuine and so are the prizes, and new is the opportunity for those living out in the country, especially, to capture some of them. It is not a chance effort but a sure thing, that if work is put into it, it will repay the laborer. Read the ad on first page for full particulars.

A Unanimous Call.

The Third Presbyterian church of Portland has extended a unanimous call to Rev. Robert McLean of this city, to become their pastor. Mr. McLean will announce his decision next Sabbath. The sermon will be his eleventh anniversary at Grants Pass and the public generally are invited to be present.

No Guess Work.

If you desire a tooth extracted also lately without pain and no guess work about it, or if you desire fine gold fillings or any other kind of fillings inserted in your teeth without excruciating torture, call on Dr. Jennings, the expert dentist office in the opera house block, Grants Pass, Ore.

Dr. C. S. Evans, a well known and noted oculician of San Francisco, will arrive before Jan. 1 and will expect to locate in Grants Pass. His family has preceded him several months as he is on a professional visit to Humboldt Co. Cal. Dr. Evans comes highly recommended by the press and by people who have been benefited by him and want others to be likewise.

The play, The South Before the War, which took place at the opera house Friday night, by Martell's colored troop, was well attended and highly appreciated. The Negro of a long time ago presented himself in all his fullness, the characteristics so peculiar to the darkey were vividly portrayed in most of the acts. They did well.

"We Won the Prize"

The Butterick Publishing Company of New York sent us a check for $15.00

Stating that we had won the Third Prize for securing subscriptions to The Delineator. This in competition with some of the largest houses in the United States.

This Speaks Well for Southern Oregon.

And shows that the people of Southern Oregon keep well posted on prevailing styles and fully appreciate the grand work being done by

in their efforts to simplify and reduce the cost of Home Dressmaking and Decorating. We have, therefore, decided to make the following proposition to the people of Southern Oregon:

Any person or persons purchasing Merchandise to the amount of $15.00 during the month of December, 1898, and presenting tickets to that amount at our office on or before, Dec. 24, 1898,

We will present Free of Charge
One Year's Subscription to the Delineator.

We would like to place the Delineator in every home in Southern Oregon and are ready to do so on the above easy terms. REMEMBER—this offer will be withdrawn January 1, 1899.
