The graduating exercises of the Junior Endeavor society was held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening of this week. Every part of the program was good and well rendered. Miss Coe deserves credit for her faithful work with the Junior Christian Endeavor society.
The railroad company is pushing the work rapidly on the burned out trestle, and it is expected that it will be ready for passing trains about July 3rd. The public will be exceedingly anxious until the work is complete, as it is very inconvenient, not so much for the traveling public as for those having freight on the way. The railroad company is just to more inconvenience than any one else, however.

Miss Adelia Harth visited in Gold Hill last week.
A. Avery of Merlin was seen on our streets one day last week.
T. P. Cramer is spending a day or two down on Galice creek on business.
Frank Swan, of Brockway, Douglas county, was in town last Saturday.
Miss Oyth Croton returned from Corvallis last Friday where she has been attending school.
W. T. Reames of the firm of Reames Bros. of Gold Hill, was in the Pass Tuesday night of this week on business.
Mrs. H. C. Telford and family left last Friday for Yreka, Cal., to join her husband who has been there for some time.
Edward Palmer, who has been attending school at Corvallis the past year, returned to his home in this city last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fletcher of Eastern Washington, are visiting the family of J. W. Coffman this week. They will go further the South in a few days.
Wm. Kerr of Kerby made this office a pleasant call the latter part of last week, and left the necessary funds to take the COURIER to him for a year. Call again.
Mrs. J. C. Jones, formerly of Grants Pass, was a passenger on the southbound Tuesday morning on her way home to Yreka, Cal., from a visit to her relatives in Kansas.
Judge Abe Axtell and Hon. Nick Thosent went down to Leland Monday night to view the Wolf creek bridge on the Mt. Renben road. They returned Tuesday morning.
The many friends of Mr. N. P. Dodge will be delighted to hear that the gentleman is now able to drive occasionally. He is improving as rapidly as could be expected.
Geo. Bolt came up from Glendale last Sunday morning and went over to the Applegate to visit his father who has been sick for some time and at present is no better.
Eddie Palmer, step-son of Robert Chesbro, arrived from Corvallis last week. Eddie has been attending the Agricultural college for the past year and he expects to complete the course next year.
A. E. Voorhies and wife returned from Portland Tuesday. They report having had a good time but are glad to get home. The weather, they say is much pleasanter in Grants Pass than in Portland.
E. B. Brown went to Ashland last Monday in the interest of the Fourth of July celebration at this place. Mr. Brown reports that a goodly number of Ashland citizens are coming to the Pass that day.
Miss Mary Griffith returned from Quincy, Or., last Tuesday morning to spend the summer vacation. Miss Griffith has been principal of the Quincy school for the past school year, where she met with good success.
Rev. G. W. Black, wife and two little girls, came in from Eastern Oregon last Saturday. They expect to visit relatives and friends for about one month before returning. Mr. Black will preach in the Baptist church in this city next Sunday morning. We acknowledge a pleasant call.
Misses Abbie Sittes, Oyth Croton and Odessa Freed returned last Saturday from Corvallis, where they have been attending the Agricultural college for the past year. Miss Sittes left for her home on Williams creek with her father the same day.
