house, and is fitting it up preparatory to putting in a stock of dry goods. The necessary shelving has been secured and the store will probably be opened about the first of next week. The many new enterprises lately inaugurated here bear witness to the excellent reputation of Grants Pass as a business center.

Advices from Dawson and the Yukon Valley report that that section of Alaska has just passed through the coldest weather recorded since the white men inhabited that country. The thermometer at Dawson fell 68 degrees below zero. A message from Forty-Mile the same day said it was 78 degrees below. The coldest record before this was in 1896, when it was not quite 68 near Forty-Mile. The average for the seven days ending January 16 at Dawson was 58 below. All the time a dense fog hung over the entire valley.

..Valentines..

We have both kinds, and our selection will meet both your desires. The dainty affairs with their gold and lace and tender verses will give you a chance to express your sentiments at the most sentimental season of the year. We have a big assortment of these—25 cents and upward.

Then we have some dainty ones, and you undoubtedly know of some people who ought to receive that kind. They are as cheap as they can be—1 cent.

Look for our window display a few days previous to February 14.

Drowned at Kerby.

Sam White, an old and well known resident of Kerby, was drowned in the Illinois river Thursday night. His home was just across the river from Kerby and he was returning from town presumably somewhat under the influence of liquor when the tragedy occurred. He crossed the river in a boat and reached the other side safely, but his tracks indicated that he had wandered about the bank, seemingly bewildered and had finally walked back into the river and was drowned.
