

An End to All Things

WHEN they parted he had fallen at her feet and kissed the hem of her dress. How ridiculous a demonstration it appeared to him today, and yet he dreaded to meet her again. She had treated him atrociously, he had considered at the time. Eng- lished, she had amused herself with him, and then given him his conge- dation as a married woman and he had seen a boy.

She had never been more bewitch- ing or loquacious in their courtship than she was during that evening. Far more plainly than the man him- self she realized that she had a rival— though it might be only a memory— and she put forth all her forces to annihilate her. Beautiful, beautiful! Jack would never have been captured by a woman who was not just look- ing, and a woman of the world who Jack hated schoolgirl. "Everthe- less," mused Mrs. Maxwell, consid- ering her reflection complacently in one of the mirrors of the gaming room, "I think I ought to be capable of holding my own against the lady, I really do!"

The Oldest and Best.

S. S. S. is a combination of roots and herbs of great curative powers, and when taken into the circulation search out and remove all causes of poison from the blood, without the least shock or harm to the system. On the contrary, the general health begins to improve from the first dose, for S. S. S. is not only a blood purifier, but an excellent tonic, and strengthens and builds up the constitution while purging the blood of impuri- ties. S. S. S. cures all diseases of a blood-poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is a reliable cure and the only safe and effective remedy for Eczema, Contagious Eczema, etc.

A portrait of Walter G. Gresham is to be displayed with honor in the galleries of the emperor of Japan. This tribute is in recognition of Mr. Gresham's services in carrying through successfully the treaty between Japan and this country during the second term of President Cleveland.

Dr. John Charles Kyle, bishop of Liverpool, who died recently, was twice elected preacher at Oxford and once at Cambridge. His father was a banker, and the late bishop for a short time took a part in the business. Then financial difficulties came in his way, and, leaving commerce, he exchanged his business career for that of a clergyman.

Baron Hayashi, the new Japanese minister to the court of St. James, is regarded as one of the ablest among Japanese junior statesmen. The early part of his official career was passed in the department of public works, but he was subsequently transferred to the foreign office, where he rose to the rank of vice minister, holding that post throughout the war with China and receiving a patent of nobility for distinguished services.

There's Health in Strong nerves. They are the fountain from which flows all the energy, all the strength and all the vital powers of the body. Strong nerves overcome the weak- nesses and disorders of the system and give to the step a springiness, to the eye a brightness and to the mind a clearness that they can get from no other source. If you are tired and nervous, irritable, restless, run-down and sleepless, build up your worn-out nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. "My wife was down with nervous pro- stration and general debility for years, and nothing we could do for her seemed to do her any good. When we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine we dropped all other treat- ment and began giving her that medicine, and the results were apparent from the first month she had regained her old-time health and energy, and they returned to stay." C. W. OLMSTEAD, Kickapoo, Okla.

Dr. Miles' Nervine. It is a brain-food and nerve-restorer without an equal; and it nourishes, fortifies and refreshes both body and mind, as nothing else can. Now is the time to begin. Sold by all druggists on a guarantee. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart
