The ladies of the D. of H. treated the A. O. U. W. to a surprise party on Monday evening in the lodge rooms, overpowering the sentiment and entering in force. The consternation of the order was allayed at sight of the refreshments the ladies had provided and the presentation of an entertaining program further soothed the disturbed equanimity of the members. A delightful evening was the result.

Pleasant Social Party.
A very enjoyable social party was given on Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Van Dyke, in honor of Mr. Condon Bean, who had been spending the week in Grants Pass the guest of E. S. Van Dyke. The occasion was one of more than ordinary pleasure to those attending and the social and musical entertainment was of a character to promote the most perfect enjoyment of the evening by all. The first entertaining number was a unique prize contest for the ladies, in which Miss Maggie Meade was victorious and secured the trophy.
A very enjoyable musical program was given. Piano solos were rendered by Misses Laura Parker and Ethel Palmer and a piano duet by Misses Vida Moore and Ida Williams. Misses Edna Parker and Maggie Meade and Mr. Bert Barnes favored the company with vocal solos. Refreshments of delightful quality were served and added further to the evening's pleasure. "The Girl I Left Behind Me," was presented in Ashland by Company B. of that city on Saturday evening will be given here by the same company on next Saturday evening, April 13. It is a military drama of more than ordinary merit, the scene being the Blackfoot country in Montana. Of the rendition of the play as given in Ashland, the Tidings says: "The play given by the thespians of Co. B. at the opera house, Saturday night, scored a big hit. Of the different dramas presented in Ashland by amateur talent, it is safe to say, that in the happy selection of characters, and the smoothness and effectiveness of presentation, none has been superior to that given on the above mentioned night. Those who were looking for erudition and rawness were happily disappointed, and the performance was equal to many given by professional actors. The prompter, who so unpleasantly chills the enthusiasm of many amateur entertainments, was conspicuous by his absence. The staging and costuming of the play were on a scale hitherto unsurpassed by local plays and players and there was nothing lacking to make the affair an unqualified success."

The 1901 Vedette sold for $25 by Cramer Bros. is a fine wheel.

Medford citizens have made complaint to the effect that boys of the town have a well-organized scheme for robbing chicken yards. City Hall Case
Benjamin Mensch has filed a claim against the city of Grants Pass for $470 and interest. It is for a warrant which was assigned to him but which was afterward delivered to the assignor. At that time Mr. Mensch had an action pending against the contractors for a larger amount and attempted to attach a larger sum. The attachment was dissolved and to the surprise of Mr. Mensch the warrant that had been assigned to him was also paid to others. This he did not learn until after the trial of the action in the fall of 1895. At that time Mr. Mensch contemplated suing the city for the amount but members of the common council suggested that the matter be submitted to a vote of the city and if carried the whole amount due about $1100 would be paid. This was done and by a large majority the voters decided in favor of payment but the city still refused to pay. The claim has been under consideration by the council for some time, the purpose being to determine the legal standing of the claim under the statutes of limitations. Mr. Mensch's attorneys are confident the claim is not barred because he did not or could not learn of the delivery of the warrant until October 1896 and the submission of matter to a vote prevented the running of the statute until after the time of voting. It is proposed to press the claim in the courts if not paid and it certainly has strong moral grounds as well as legal ones. Other claims have been paid that perhaps have had less foundation.
