All sorts of attractions and amusements will be arranged and the evident intention of the boys is to bring about a celebration that will eclipse all its predecessors in grandeur.

The "Dutchess"

There's a county way down in the old Empire State. Where the valleys are rich and the streamlets are great; Where the swift wheels of industry ceaselessly roll, And their rhythmic hum is the joy of the soul.

'Tis the county of Dutchess—as all men should know, Where the classic old Hudson's blue waves ever flow; Where the famed Dutchess trousers, well known to the trade As the best, and the strongest and cheapest, are made.

The county and trousers both, wear the same name—Some ladies in Europe are wearing the same—(The title, I mean, not the garments of course) Although the dear creatures might do a deal worse.

Our motto is this: "From the sheep to the man." We've adopted a novel and excellent plan: In each town and city the whole country o'er, We have one special agent, and not any more.

But this is the point we wish you to see: These goods with each pair a complete guarantee: If a button comes off during two months of wear, We will pay you ten cents—don't you think that is fair?

And more: If you find that the trousers should rip, At the seams of the waistband, the seat, or the hip We will pay you a dollar, or hereby agree To give you a new pair of trousers, scot-free.

Death of Thomas Rowley.

Thomas Rowley, for the past 19 years a respected resident of Grants Pass, fell dead on Monday evening near his home in this city. He had been apparently in the best of health, had gone about his work as usual during the day and attended to his usual chores in the evening, and was so engaged when death came upon him. Mr. Rowley, who was in his 72nd year, was very strong and active for one of his years and was a great worker. Until lately he lived on a small farm two miles north of this city, but had lately been living in town. He was a man who enjoyed the most thorough respect, almost without exception, of those who knew him. He leaves a wife and has five children living: Marlon and John Rowley of Illinois; Almon Rowley of this city; Mrs. Charlotte Mose of Omaha, Neb.; and Mrs. J. W. Baker of this city. The funeral services were held on Wednesday and the remains were interred in the Granite Hill cemetery.
