Mormonism. A large crowd gathered at the Newman M. E. church Monday evening to hear Mrs. McIntosh deliver a lecture on the subject, "Mormonism Exposed". Mrs. McIntosh spent two years in Utah and is familiar with Mormonism and their system. She is one of those who went to Washington from Utah in President Arthur's administration to secure the enactment of the Edmunds law against polygamy.

The Mormon elders who were in the city were prompt in attendance and occupied front seats. Previous to the lecture Rev. Jenkins made a few remarks, saying, among other things that if he were to go to a Mohammedan country to introduce the Christian religion, he would not quote exclusively from the Koran in pursuit of that purpose; referring to the practice of the Mormons in quoting from the Bible instead of the book of Mormon.

Mrs. McIntosh spoke for over an hour and a half in a very fluent manner. She recited a number of instances of Mormon oppression. The Mormon religion, Mrs. McIntosh is convinced, is a scheme of Satan, deliberately planned by him and she asserts a revelation to that effect.
