Probably the frontier life of President Roosevelt has been of great value in the education which has prepared him for service as the president of a great people. A frontier life brushes away the cobwebs of sham and simulation in a man's mind and makes him a real man with an understanding of men who are real and not pretended.

The Boers continue their operation in South Africa with a pertinacity rarely equalied in history. They seem to have left the Transvaal largely to the British and are giving their military attention to Cape Colony. A band of invaders recently penetrated Cape Colony to the sea and secured a large amount of supplies. Portions of Cape Colony are said to be in almost open revolt. The death of the famous Boer general, DeWet, is reported, but the report is discredited.

On Sunday night, the Chicago post office was robbed of stamps to the amount of nearly $75,000. The burglars are thought to have spent many days preparing for the robbery. They crawled 300 feet under the building and bored a hole 18 inches equare through the steel bottom of the vault. They carried off their booty in a wagon and thus far there is no clue to their identity. It is the largest stamp robbery in the

The case of Miss Stone, kidnapped by brigands in Turkey, is commanding the attention of the world. The two governments of Turkey and Bulgaria have spent in military operations an amount probably equal to the ranson demanded by the brigands but their eff orts have been thus far of no avail. The influence of the Russian government over these weaker nations has been enlisted in her behalf. The officials at Washington still believe that her life will be saved, though nothing has been heard of her for
