J. W. Howard has been in from Kerby this week.

L. L. Jewell visited Ashland Friday on a business trip.

Frank Stewart was in town Tuesday from the Grange.

R. K. Montgomery has resumed charge of the S. P. office at Glendale.

Dan Green returned to Galice Thursday after a brief visit to Grants Pass.

Mrs. R. K. Montgomery spent Saturday here from Glendale, returning in the evening.

Rev. Father G. Doyle returned last week from a vacation and hunting trip in the Sierras.

W. M. Colvig of Jacksonville and A. N. Soliss of Medford were here last week on court business.

J. W. Pernell has been appointed postmaster at Applegate, Jackson county, in place of O. E. Rose.

Miss Jane E. Johnson of Hawaii is spending the week here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Coe.

Wm. Bailey of Davidson and J. McFadden of Applegate were visitors to Grants Pass on Tuesday.

A. F. Hunt of Ashland was in town last week to receive a lot of cattle purchased from G. C. Guley.

W. N. Amabury of Seattle has been looking over some of our mining properties during the past week.

Mrs. Geo. B. Riddle and children went to Riddle Thursday and will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

E. D. Weston, the photographer, has returned from California and intends to make his residence here this winter.

Miss Alice Booth left last week for Seattle where she will remain for some time with her sister who resides there.

Homer Davenport, the famous cartoonist, was a passenger on Friday night's train, enroute to San Francisco.

Judge Street recently of Utah, with his nephew and two sons, returned on Monday from a two weeks outing at Crescent City.

Miss Ella Harris, of Canyonville, visited a few days in Grants Pass last week and left on Thursday for Igerna, Cal.

W. H. Hampton, operator of the Columbia mine at Placer, was a visitor to Grants Pass on Monday.

Oscar Schrogan arrived here this week from Dillee and has assumed charge of the engine at the S. P. D. & L. factory.

Mrs. J. D. Hays, of Portland, and Mrs. May Treglow, of Iowa, arrived on Friday to visit for a time with relatives and friends here.

T. B. Mosde was down from Foots creek last week visiting relatives and friends here. He is interested in one of the rich placers of that district.

M. C. Munson, the Sunday school missionary, was in town Thursday evening, returning to Roseburg from a visit to the southern portion of this county.

Max Payne of Chicago, who has been visiting here for several weeks with his aunt, Mrs. E. C. Newell, started Monday evening on his return home to Chicago.

Ed Benton, who has been in charge of the confectionery department at the Grants Pass billiard hall, left on Saturday evening for Portland to remain. Mr. Benton is an artist in the line of confectionery.

W. E. Blackmer of Sumpter, who has been looking over the southern Oregon mineral field, was in town Monday and went to Jacksonville Monday night. He is favorably impressed with southern Oregon as a mineral district.

W. J. Smith was in town this week from Soldier creek. He is the owner of a quartz property on that stream near the famous Eureka mine. The ore carries rich in good values and a high per cent of copper, and the property bids fair to become one of importance.

A. B. Cornell and C. P. Moore left on Monday morning for a trip to California introducing in that state Boyd's patent shaft harness buckles, for which they have the Pacific coast agency. They will establish local agencies in the various towns of the state. The article which they handle is one which will be given extensive use wherever horses are driven.

Fritz Eisman has returned from Ashland where he has been in the employ of the Ashland Meat Co. and will assist J. H. Ahlf in his pork packing establishment. Louis Werth, who was employed for a number of years by the Ashland Meat Co. will work with Mr. Eisman and these gentlemen will look after the butchering while Mr. Ahlf will attend to the packing business. They expect to begin butchering in about a week.

Tom Harvey returned Sunday night from a visit of several weeks at Brownville and other Willamette valley points and will remain here during the winter. The same quality of pleasant fall weather experienced by us has also been enjoyed by the Webfoot district and the season has been exceptionally favorable for the farmers, the early rains having been sufficient to start the plows.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chapin of Leland spent Saturday in Grants Pass. Mr. Chapin is the owner of a fine fruit ranch near Leland which he has by industry reclaimed from the forest. He had with him samples of pines, grown and dried by him, which are hard to surpass either in appearance or flavor. He has a prune orchard of very respectable extent and the crop this year was exceedingly good. He also makes a specialty of berries and small fruits.

C. F. Shepherd of Ashland, the piano dealer, spent several days in Grants Pass last week in the interests of his piano business. Mr. Shepherd's piano house has a well established reputation for merit and reliability and he conducts his business on lines which attract the continued patronage of the people of southern Oregon. His business in this line is large and is constantly increasing. He handles the best makes and accords the fairest of treatment to his patrons. Among the instruments handled by him are the Kimball, of Chicago, the Chickering, of Boston, and the Weber, of New York, the aristocracy of pianos. He also has a very complete line of organs.

Halloween Dance.

On Thursday of this week, a Halloween dance will be given at the opera house by Azalea Circle, W. of W. Special and attractive features are provided for the event, among them being the "Pumpkin Head Drill," a novelty. The best of music will be furnished by the popular club orchestra of six pieces and a season of pleasure is assured.

Dr. Marshall Coming.

Rev. Thos. Marshall, D. D., field secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church, New York, is making a tour of the coast and will speak at the Presbyterian church in this city on Sunday, Nov. 10. It is not clear that we are privileged to hear a speaker of Dr. Marshall's eminence, and the opportunity should be appreciated.

Home Kitchen.

Mrs. L. A. Strobel will open her "Home Kitchen" in the Holman building on Sixth street early next week. The best of board will be furnished at 25 cents a meal. Lodging is also provided in new, neatly finished rooms.

If you want something good in enameled ware try a piece of Stransky ware sold by Cramer Bros.

Bicycles on Sidewalks.

So many complaints of fast riding on the sidewalks have been made that the city council is considering the question of prohibiting the practice entirely, and Mr. Jennings at the last meeting of the council moved that an ordinance to that effect be drawn by the city attorney. The ordinance (No. 116) approved July 1, 1907 and now in force provides, (Sec. 1) that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to ride a bicycle upon any sidewalks within the city limits at a rate of speed that does in any manner jeopardize, endanger or interfere with pedestrians to the use of such sidewalk at all times.

(Sec. 2) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to ride a bicycle in any manner over or upon the following side walks, to-wit: on Sixth street, between "D" and "J" streets, and on the south side of "G" street from Gilbert creek to Seventh street; and on "H" street from Sixth street to Fifth street, and the north side of "E" street from Sixth street to Fifth street.

Sec. 3. provides a fine of $1 to $25 for violations of the ordinance.

Big Timber Sale.

Samuel Coulter, of Portland, has sold to C. S. and R. S. Moore, of Klamath County, a tract of timber in the Klamath region, containing 10,503 acres. The price paid for the big tract was $12,500. The land was purchased at a receiver's sale, and the price paid was but little more than one-half the original cost of the great timber tract, when it was first taken from the public domain. The tract embraces an area of virgin timber that will produce many fortunes in the process of the transformation of the immense fire and pine into lumber.

Parents' Day.

Last Thursday was "Parents' day" at the schools and a number of parents and others took occasion to visit the schools on that day. One day in each month is set apart as "Parents' day."

On that day the parents or other visitors are expected to make themselves at home in the school and observe its workings. The regular routine work is pursued by teachers and pupils. All who visited the schools last Thursday were impressed with the excellent quality of work which is being done.

Notes From Placer.

Everything is lovely except the weather which is wet.

C. W. Thompson has five teams hauling freight from Leland; he is trying to get ahead of the rainy weather, but alas, the rain came to soon.

Harry M. Gray's cabin burned down last week. Harry was at the store when the fire was discovered by Mr. Heaton, who gave the alarm and did all he could to extinguish the flames, but all was useless. Nothing was saved.

There was a farewell party given by the bachelors last Friday evening in honor of Mr. Fred Virtue, who left for Leland Sunday. The evening was very pleasantly spent with singing and cards. At a late hour the friends realizing that Messrs. Heaton and Virtue were quite fatigued took the honors of host and hostess, took their departure, all expressing themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening.

A very pleasant social dance was given on Saturday evening at the hall, with music by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Demaree.

A troupe of several colored men and a white boy gave an entertainment here last week.

The Maccabees are making preparations for a grand mask ball to be given here on Thanksgiving evening. The best of music will be furnished and a joyous evening assured.

The earliest woman to adventure on a trip to the Klondike about was Miss Emma L. Kelly. She gives her adventure with spirit and vividness in the November Lippincott Magazine. This is a record that will be historic.

It is not often that a magazine has a contributor one hundred and one years old. In the Outlook for November 2, the story of the Battle of Lake Champlain is told by an eye witness, Mr. Benjamin Phelps, who reached the age of one hundred and one years last March.

The largest fire Albany has experienced for years occurred last Wednesday afternoon when one of the buildings of Veal's large chair factory burned to the ground. The lower part of the burned building contained the office, the packing and shipping-room and the storage-room. The upper part was used as a varnishing-room, and was connected with the factory building by an elevated roadway.

The poems of November Lippincott's Magazine seem to have been chosen with uncommon care for poetic character. Florence Earle Coates contributes a lyric, called "Autumn," that is worthy of preservation. Walter Ives gives "with Rossett's 'House of Life'; Geraldine Meyrick, "The Unsuccessful"; Douglas Malloch, "Returning"; Ida Whipple Benham, "Only the Heart has wings"; Clinton Scollard, "An Idle Day"; and Robert Loveman and Rubie Carpenter, brief verses.

R. D. Hume, the Curry County canner, expects to build a large number of cottages this winter at Wedderburn, also a large greenhouse for fish nets. The salmon run has been very good so far and some heavy hauls have been made. Mr. Hume has sent the steamer Del Norte to Coquille for lumber for his prospective improvements, and as soon as the season for fishing is over, building will begin. A large acreage of pines will be put in next season, and the packing industry will be carried on on a larger scale than ever.

During the past two years the Southern Pacific Co. has put 4000 new freight cars on its system and yet the car famine is almost as bad as ever. It has over 19,000 freight cars in the service on the lines west of El Paso and 900 passenger cars, besides those of the Pullman system and 1182 cars of miscellaneous type, making a grand total of over 21,000 cars. At the present time there are in the service of the lines west of El Paso 773 locomotives, operating on 5524 miles of track, and these will soon be augmented by the 105 new engines that are building at the Baldwin Locomotive Works, in Philadelphia, which will be added at the rate of 6 each week.

Money by Mail.

Miss Edna Dungan of Gold Hill is receiving considerable notoriety at present on account of a novel method of raising money. She has been indicted for fraudulent use of the United States mails and is now out on bail, fixed at $500.

According to the reports, her scheme was to advertise for a husband and when correspondence had proceeded far enough request the advance of a sum of money for the purpose of paying her fare to meet the lover she had captured by mail. Miss Dungan had correspondents at Nampa, Idaho; Aberdeen, Wash.; Buffalo, Wyo.; Colfax, Wash.; Vashon, Wash.; Fresno, Cal.; Jonah, Tex.; Oakland, Cal.; Burns, Or.; Carey, Idaho and New Whatcom, Wash.

The accused is 38 years of age and is of good family. She has been receiving so many money orders that the postmaster at Gold Hill proceeded to make inquiries. A man at Nampa, Idaho, had become suspicious when she wrote him for money, and asked the Gold Hill postmaster who she was. This led to her arrest. Her bail has been fixed at $500 and the case will be tried in Portland as soon as the machinery of the Federal Government has been prepared for it. When arrested, Miss Dungan burst into tears, but would make no statement to the arresting officer.

Mighty in the Fray:

Martin Heston is waxing famous as a football player. A report concerning him says:

"Martin Heston, a young man of Grants Pass who is attending the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, is winning a great name as a football player in the Michigan college, occupying the position of half-back on the University team. From the first Heston has shown great ability on the gridiron. A recent issue of the Detroit Free Press contained his picture and a sketch of his prowess as an athlete. Coach Yost, of the University team, in speaking of Heston's work said: 'He is a regular whirlwind. He just eats things up!'"

October Raspberries.

A branch of luscious, ripe, red raspberries was sent to our office last week by Mrs. Fenn. The berries were grown on the Lewis Hayes farm on Applegate. The climatic conditions which allow berries to blossom, grow and ripen so late in the fall are those which make southern Oregon one of the most pleasant places in the world in which to live.

Coal at "The Meadows."

Reed & Fletcher, who are developing cinnabar claims in the Meadows district, while sinking at a depth of 112 feet, cut through a coal seam 12 inches in thickness early last week. Samples have been shown which are apparently of good commercial quality, though only primitive tests have been applied. This find, when considered in connection with similar previous discoveries in this district, seems to indicate the presence in that locality of coal in commercial quantities. The seam lies below and behind a deposit of potter's clay which has been traced for a long distance, and it is believed that it can be uncovered in a number of places with comparatively little work. The discovery backs up the statement that the prospectors put in the field in that district by the Oregon & California Railroad have found sufficient indications of coal to warrant the installing of a diamond drill plant for the purpose of prospecting the ground at depth.

Efficacy of Spraying.

E. L. Smith, of Hood River, gives some convincing testimony in favor of the policy of spraying. He gathered 520 boxes of apples in his lower orchard of 4 1/2 year old trees—trees that had been set three years, says the Hood River Glacier. In the 120 boxes he found less than one boxful of wormy apples. Beyond the ravine from this orchard a neighbor picked 100 boxes from trees of the same age. The neighbor did not spray his trees, and about two thirds of his apples are wormy. Mr. Smith sprayed his orchard six times in the season.

Medford Apples.

J. A. Whitman will ship eighty carloads of fruit this season. Aside from the fruits from his own orchards he has purchased other crops in the valley and in every instance where picking has been in progress much more fruit has been gathered than was expected.

The crop of apples in the Otwell Bros. orchard this season will reach forty carloads. As the prevailing price is from $1 to $1.25 per box and 600 boxes comprise a carload, it does not require much of a mathematician to figure out that there'll be close onto $30,000 due the boys when the final reckoning is made.—Mail.
