Women and Jewels.
Jewels, candy, flowers, men—That is the order of a woman's preferences.
Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even the greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them.
If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds, and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boeckler's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr.
G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Dr.
Kremer's.

Christmas in Kerby.
KERBY, Ore., Dec. 15, 1901.
You will doubtless like to know what the celebration of this beautiful section has been doing during the holidays.
From the correspondent of the Observer you will read of our Christmas doings; in fact, the large crowds seen on our streets on that occasion reminded you of old timers of the early days when gold mining was in its infancy. Good humor and good fellowship prevailed; the spirit of the season seemed to float around like fleecy clouds which floated across the bright blue sky above. The ladies of the surrounding country were here in full force and with their smiles and pretty costumes assisted to brighten and vary the scene and cheer the hearts of these old miners from the hills and canyons, for many of them may not live to see the same sights again on this side of the dark river.

The Burr Bit.
The agent for the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals in New York, recently captured a dozen pair of burr bits from the mouths of horses owned by fashionable people. In the circumstances, it seems as if the horse show might well be supplemented by some other exhibition calculated to educate the public in the matter of treating horses decently. Perhaps it would be interesting to exhibit some of the owners of these horses with the burr bits in their mouths, being driven about by people who understand the business of using the diabolical instruments.
The burr in question is a circular leather pad, with the inside covered with little stiff bristles, nails or screws.
This thing is put on the bit so that the spikes touch the horse's cheek, and the slightest pressure on the rein or movement of the head causes the burr to rub the skin, and the horse starts and prances with pain and irritation.
This is supposed to give a mettlesome and stylish appearance to the turnout.
Undoubtedly, there is a resemblance between the natural friskiness of a spirited horse and the nervous jumps of one tortured by contrivances of this kind, but it does not take a very keen observer to see the difference. It seems almost too much to believe that civilized human beings can deliberately torment a sensitive and helpless animal in this fashion, but the burr bit is proof that they do. Something ought to be done to these people. A fine is a mere bagatelle to them and imprisonment is not quite painful enough for the punishment they deserve. What really ought to be done is probably impossible. They ought to be harnessed to wagons and made to draw loads, with burr bits in their mouths, check reins on their heads and the lash on their backs.

Enjoyable Winter Trip.
A winter trip to Southern California and Arizona via the famous Shasta Route is one never to be forgotten. Renewed acquaintance with this section will add sources of enjoyment under its sunny skies, in the variety of interesting and added industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless regions of mountain, shore, valley and plain.
Two trains leave Portland daily morning and evening for California.
These trains are equipped with the most improved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, and the low rates place the trip in reach of all.

Newman M. E. Church.
Quarterly meeting services at the Newman M. E. church next Sunday and Monday as follows: Lovefeast, Sunday 6:30 p. m.; preaching at 7:30 followed by the communion of the Lord's supper. 1st quarterly conference, Monday 7:30 p. m. Rev. D. T. Summerfield, presiding elder, will conduct the above services. Sunday morning services as usual. All will be made welcome.
The question of selecting the place for the next session of the Oregon annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was referred to a commission consisting of the presiding elders and pastors of the 1st church of Portland, Salem, Eugene and Grants Pass, eight in all. The M. E. church of this place gave a cordial invitation to said commission for the conference to meet here. Five of the commission have been heard from. We expect to have a favorable reply from the other three. However a majority have cast their votes for Grants Pass which insures the meeting of the conference with us next fall.

Pastor.

At Bed Time
Take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. It is made from herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's Medicine. All druggists sell it at 25c and 50c. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. If you cannot get it, send for a free sample. Address,

FOUND AT LAST.
Subtreasury Officials Jubilant Over Cancellation of Last Certificate Under Law of 1873.

The subtreasury officials at New York are jubilant over the cancellation of the last certificate of deposit issued under the act of June 8, 1873. This piece of legislation, which was repealed by the act of March 14 last, regulating the currency, permitted the issuance of certificates on the deposit by banks of currency with the treasury, and $75,000,000 worth was issued.
For several months diligent search has been made for the last outstanding certificate, which was for $10,000.
Every bank and trust company making clearings directly or indirectly through the clearing house has received a circular from Assistant Treasurer C. N.
Jordan asking for the return and cancellation of this certificate if its location was known. Officers of the Bank of America, a stone's throw from the subtreasury, reported the certificate.
It had been issued originally to the National City bank and transferred by indorsement to the Bank of America.

IS POISON TO THE CHILD.
Dr. Felix Adler Declares Against Luxuries of Life and Delicacies of Fare in the Modern Home.

In a recent address before the woman's conference of the Society of Ethical Culture, at New York city, Dr. Felix Adler said:
"What looms up as one of the most conspicuous importances in the average home are the luxuries of life and the delicacies of fare. Luxury in the home is poison to the child in that home. Mothers who have young children, and mothers should have young children the greater part of their lives, should not spend all their time gormandizing and gorging and going to matinees. They should be taught that education is one of the greatest of the grand things of life."
Dr. Adler suggested as a remedy for gloomy schoolhouses, smaller buildings, sun rooms, clubrooms and conservatories.

MUST WEAR BRAID IN PUBLIC.
New Order Will Require British Army Officers to Appear in Uniform.

Society parade grounds in London will be much brightened soon by reason of the forthcoming army order of an officer shall dress in uniform instead of mufti in public. The order comes into force April 2. It ordains that all army officers shall wear their uniforms in public and in theaters and places of entertainment as well. This applies to all household regiments, foot guards and cavalry.
