New Locomotive Headlights.

A new locomotive headlight has recently been invented and has been given an experimental test on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. It throws a vertical shaft of light hundreds of feet high and can be seen for a long distance. It is believed the invention will go far to solve the railway collision problem. The apparatus consists of a powerful electric arc headlight, a dynamo and steam motor, all of which occupy the space on the locomotive usually devoted to the headlight. The dynamo, which generates the current for this searchlight, occupies a space of less than 15 inches wide directly behind the headlight, and is operated by a motor driven by steam impact on a turbine wheel. The current is 6000-candle power, which can be reduced to any degree of brilliancy at the will of the engineer.

The box was packed by Miss Delah Williams, September 10, 1901. Will the person purchasing this box please write me, stating price paid for the box and condition of the apples, and where purchased?" The original letter was returned to Miss Williams, and she received it on the 5th of this month, stating that the apples were purchased in Dawson City, January 17, 1902; condition first class and cost $8. The writer also inclosed a dollar bill to the young lady.—Oregonian.

The transfers in the overland conductors' runs, occasioned by the change in trainmasters at Dunsmuir, are as follows: Lee Hendricks will run between Portland and Roseburg in place of Conductor Geo. Peebler; the latter will displace Conductor Ed Tynan on Nos. 11 and 12, between Roseburg and Ashland, while Mr. Tynan will take the runs on Nos. 15 and 16 between Ashland and Dunsmuir, vacated by Trainmaster Engwicht.—Tidings.

The most severe storm of the winter has prevailed during the past two weeks, during which time it rained almost continually for some six or eight days. The streams were swollen to overflowing their banks and travel was consequently stopped. A slide on the road between this place and Gasquet, together with other obstructions, caused the mail to be delayed for a few days, and up to the present time the service is not regular. —Crescent City News.

Too Much Stock.

Many citizens are complaining that stock are allowed to run at large in the city. Those who intend setting shade trees or beautifying their premises are especially anxious in this matter. There is no encouragement to make beautifying improvements as long as cows are allowed to run loose, and there is a disposition to request of the council a rigid enforcement of the ordinance which covers this ground.

Attempted Burglary.

Monday evening an attempt was made to burglarize the grocery of J. M. Chiles, on Front street. The robber whittled out part of a panel of the door so that he could insert his hand and slip the bolt. As Jim Chiles was returning home between nine and ten o'clock, passing by the store, he heard some one inside and, looking closely, made out the figure of a man. Jim rapped on the window and ordered him to come out. Just then R. B. Baber and a young man named Henry, called "Slim," came along and all three stood close to the door as the burglar approached. The fellow opened the door suddenly, thrusting a pistol into their faces and ordered them to throw up their hands. Jim, instead of obeying, turned and ran up the street shouting for the police. George Hall and Tom Patty, hearing the shouts, ran up in time to get a good view of the burglar's retreating figure. Chiles secured a gun at the "Oregon" and hurried back in pursuit of the burglar but was unable to overhaul him.

This might have been the end of the matter had not "Slim" undertaken a little detective work on his own account. Several hours afterwards he located the burglar in a hobo camp near the water tank. "Slim" took a quart of whiskey and called on the hobos, simulating fellowship and plying them with liquor until he was certain he had the right party. He then called up Jim Chiles, and the whole hobo outfit, four of them, were gathered in. They were lodged in the city jail and on Tuesday forenoon were removed to the county jail, reviling the officers the whole distance. Two of them were cripples and all were desperately tough. The preliminary trial was held on Tuesday afternoon by Justice Holman, and one of the hobos, a mulatto giving his name as Richard Jackson, was identified as the burglar and was held to await the circuit court. The others were released.

Siuslaw's Hard Luck.

A private letter from a resident of Florence, dated Feb. 5th, gives the following vivid description of the situation on the Siuslaw: "There is all kinds of hard luck with the schooners here now, one lying wrecked in the mouth of the river, another on the ways, five barbound for almost two months with no chance to get out as there is only eight feet of water on the bar at extreme high tide, and five more outside, amongst them the Wing and Wing with all the provisions for the stores here and Acme, not a sack of flour to be had on the river for love or money, and the town quarantined. How's that for the Siuslaw?—Coast Mail.
