Z. A. Davis and Chris Marx of Eugene have been visiting Grants Pass this week.

E. W. Kuykendall, now of Wolf Creek, was in town Friday on a business visit.
Miss Stella Axtell returned on Monday from Portland where she has been attending school.

John George, W. D. and Ben George and J. O. Turner were visitors to Grants Pass from Kerby this week.

Stewart Blackburn, a former Grants Pass boy, has gone to Peru with a party of mining men on a gold hunting expedition.

Mrs. A. E. Voorhies and little Earle went to Colesburg Tuesday to visit for a week with Mr. and Mrs. Telford and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Binns returned by train to Medford Tuesday after a visit with relatives and friends in Grants Pass.

A. Marsh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Caldwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Dix arrived here last week from Butte, Nebraska, and will probably locate permanently.

M. Luckett, of Chicago, arrived here Saturday to visit with his aunt, Mrs. Wiedman. He expects to assist J. L. Myers in the front street barber shop.

H. C. Kinney left Monday for an absence of several days in northern California on business connected with the S. P. D. and L. Co's new lumber plant.

Mrs. U. A. Pardon stopped here Tuesday morning to visit with relatives and friends. She is on her way to Oakland, Cal., where Mr. Pardon is now located.

Miss Maggie Tack returned last week to Grants Pass, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Marshall also of that place, who has been spending the winter visiting at Gold Hill.

Miss Bertha Barrie returned last Wednesday night after several weeks in Portland. Miss Gertrude Marshall, who has been attending school there during the winter, accompanied her to Grants Pass during the summer.

J. W. Frater and Roy Bartlett have dissolved partnership in their front street confectionery store and billiard hall, and the business will be continued under the firm name of Bartlett & Co. Waldo Greene is the new assistant.

Miss Ida Weston has recently returned from Portland with a complete and carefully selected stock of millinery goods for the spring trade, including a full and complete line of street hats. She will be assisted in her millinery business by Miss Bertha Barrie.

Palmtree

Madame Lydian the world's greatest scientific palmist can be consulted daily during the remainder of this week. This accomplished lady has devoted her entire life to the study of Palmistry and stands today at the head of her profession. She has studied under the oldest and best palmist of the world. She has been a student of Professors Cheiro and Stowe. Her best recommendations are the people who have called to consult her, all of whom are well pleased and are now sending their friends to consult her. She tells you just what you wish to know. She gives advice on business, law suits, speculations, health, divorce, marriage, love and all family affairs—never fails to please; no matter what your trouble is she will help you. Satisfaction guaranteed. Next to Mrs. W. J. Rogers on E street next to Hotel Josephine. Hours 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Throwing Rice

The custom of throwing rice at a departing bride, originated in China where it was first used to thwart the evil designs of the great Golden Phoenix who might destroy the bride. Rice was thrown at the door of the sedan chair in which she was to be carried, so that she could pass unharmed while the "spirit bird" was eating the grains.

Kathryn Wayne Dramatic Co. Grants Pass is to be visited for one week beginning Monday, March 17th, by the Kathryn Wayne company under the direction of the well known theatrical managers, Platt & Thomson.

Miss Kathryn Wayne, the leading lady, needs no introduction to the theatre going public as her success in her profession is well known on this coast. Miss Wayne is a California girl born and bred, but received her theatrical education in New York. She has been playing leading parts in numerous popular plays and there is no doubt but that the success of the company is assured by her presence. Miss Wayne is supported by a first class company, her leading man being Russell Reed, a clever actor, formerly with John Drew, while the heavy parts are portrayed by Robert Lawrence, late of Ralph Cummings Co. and it is safe to say that the rest of the people in the cast are not lacking in anything to make up a first class company. They are at present playing in Colusa, and the Daily Herald of that place has this to say about them: "The Kathryn Wayne company opened their week's engagement Monday night in 'Won Back' a bright melodrama with an excellent plot. Kathryn Wayne in the leading part was especially strong and won the admiration of the audience. She is finely endowed as to face and figure to which is added a high order of intelligence in the reading of her lines. Russell Reed, as her husband, the engraver, George Francis, as 'Aunt Martha,' and Bather Dukey, as 'Joanna Lightfoot' gave an excellent rendering of their parts. Although the villain or bad man of the play is usually billed Robert Lawrence was applauded time and time again for his clever work. Sidney Platt took the part of 'Jim' and played the 'fancy man' to perfection." The company opens in Grants Pass on Monday in 'Won Back,' Tuesday, 'The Black Flag,' Wednesday, 'All a Mistake,' Thursday, 'Esmeralda,' Friday, 'Peck's Bad Boy,' and Saturday night, 'The Green Eyed Monster.' 'Peck's Bad Boy' will also be played at the Saturday matinee.

Ashland's Wind Storm

Ashland experienced a fearful wind storm Wednesday afternoon, but the consequent damage was very light. The new residence of Ed Williams in Iowa town was blown from its foundation, with no material injury to the building, although Mrs. Williams was slightly injured. The roof was blown from G. W. Crowson's woodhouse, A. Hildreth's house had a narrow call, and the roof was blown from the shed in the rear of Hotel Oregon. An old house on the hill above town, formerly occupied by L. R. Ulen, but vacant for many months past, was torn into kindling wood. A. F. Hunt's barn was moved about on its foundation, and the grand stand and fence at the athletic grounds have disappeared. Four large locust trees growing in the rear of James Thornton's residence were toppled over, and out buildings all over town were put wrong side up. A few awnings in the business portion of the city also suffered.—Town Talk.

The Cantata

On account of the engagement of Nevada at Ashland on April 8, the choral union have changed the date for the "Haymakers" until April 15th and 16th. The chorus is working energetically with two rehearsals a week. The role of the "Dairy maid" has been assigned to Miss Maggie Meade. The other soloists are Misses Carrie White and Bertha Barrie and Messrs. Cramer, Isham, Cramer and Voorhies.

Kathryn Wayne is entitled to much praise. She is the best actress that has appeared here this winter and there have been quite a number of good ones.—Pat alumna (Calif.) Argus.

Call for Democratic County Convention

A county nominating Convention of the Democratic party of Josephine county, Oregon, is hereby called to meet in Grants Pass, on Thursday, April 3rd, 1902, for the purpose of electing six delegates to the State convention to be held at Portland on April 10th, 1902, and six delegates to the Congressional convention of the 1st District to be held at Portland on the same day, and also to nominate candidates for the various county offices, viz: Member of the Legislative Assembly; County Judge, County Commissioner, Sheriff, County Clerk, County Treasurer, Assessor, Supt. of Schools and Coroner.

The several precincts will be entitled to one delegate at large, and one for each 20 votes cast for Thos. G. Greene, for Supreme Judge, at the last State election, being as follows:

North Grants Pass	5
South Grants Pass	5
West Grants Pass	5
Altouse	2
Galice	2
Kerby	4
Leland	4
Lucky Queen	1
Merlin	4
Murphy	4
State Creek	4
Waldo	4
Williams	3
Wolf Creek	2
Belma	2

It is recommended that the Primaries meet in the various precincts on March 22nd, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., and the various Primary Conventions will nominate Candidates for the various precinct Officers and road districts.

By order of the County Committee, made at Grants Pass, March 8, 1902.
W. F. Hoxs, Chairman,
T. Y. DEAN, Secretary.

MARRIED.

HOPFIELD—MYERS—At the bride's home at Grants Pass, on March 8, 1902, Miss Eva Myers to Mr. J. W. Hopfield.
The wedding ceremony was performed by Judge Axtell, at high noon, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. After the knot was tied, all enjoyed an elaborate dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cornell, Mrs. Louisa Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hannum, Mr. W. D. Shaw and Miss Marie Smith. At 2 p. m. the bride and groom started for Grants Pass, in company with the visiting relatives and friends, where they took the train for McMinville, Ore., where they intend making their future home. The bride is well known in this community and is highly respected by all. The bride-groom, during his presence has made many friends, and all join in wishing both a long and happy life.

CHAUSSE—DAME—In this city, Monday evening, March 10, 1902, Jesse R. Chausse, formerly of Grants Pass, and Miss Lulu O. Dame, of Ashland, were united in matrimony.

Mr. and Mrs. Chausse left on Tuesday morning for Ashland, where they will make their home. Mr. Chausse is now an S. P. brakeman, running between Ashland and Danamair.

BOOTH—BOOTH—In this city, Tuesday evening, March 11, 1902, John M. Booth and Miss Alice Booth.
Mr. Booth is the son of Hon. J. O. Booth and has for several years past been employed in the office of the S. P. D. & L. Co. as assistant book keeper. The bride is the daughter of the late Rev. Chas. Booth and both are among the very well known young people of this city.

DIED.

DORWIN—In Ashland, Thursday, Mar. 6, 1901, Geo. W. Dorwin, aged 70 years.
Mr. Dorwin was well known in Grants Pass, having formerly operated the Jewett mine near town. For the past two years he has held the position of assayer at the Ashland mine. The remains were brought here on Thursday evening and the funeral was held on Friday under the auspices of the Masons, of which order Mr. Dorwin had long been a member. He was a man who was held in high esteem by his acquaintances. He was born in Vermont and came to the Pacific coast in 1850 and for fifty years has followed mining and assaying in California, Oregon and Nevada. He helped coin the first authorized money made in San Francisco. During the period between 1860 and 1870 he lived in Nevada, having been led there by the Comstock excitement. He returned to California and a number of years ago came to Oregon. He was twice married, his second wife dying at Grants Pass two years ago. He has two sons and two daughters by his first marriage living, but residing in widely separated sections of the United States.

Platt & Thompson present Kathryn Wayne, supported by a company of fourteen people, at the opera house for one week, commencing Monday, March 17th.

A dangerous counterfeit is in circulation in the Willamette Valley. It is a spurious five dollar gold piece, and is a perfectly made coin. The body of it is nickel, gold plated, and with the exception of its light weight, it is so perfect as to deceive experts when new. It bears the date 1896, and has the milling of the genuine coin. Business men would do well to keep their eyes open for this coin.

The Beaumont, Texas, oil boom seems to have quieted down a little. Oil from some of the wells is reported as selling as low as seven cents a barrel. Oil gushers having a capacity of 50,000 to 70,000 barrels a day have recently sold as low as $8.00. Lack of transportation facilities and refineries are two of the causes leading to the low prices. From the California oil fields come more favorable reports. There has been an increased demand and a better price for fuel oil from that section.

Dime Social

A very enjoyable dime social was held on Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church. A very pleasant program of entertainment was rendered. Miss Essie Hartman recited and there was a trio by Misses Ethel Hendee, Lillian Rourke and Gussie Parker. Refreshments of coffee, cakes and doughnuts were served at the conclusion of the program.

New Medford Paper.

The Southern Oregonian is the title of a new paper soon to be published in Medford. The editor and manager is Sidney D. Charles. The paper is to be issued semi-weekly, and will be delivered in Medford by carriers. This is a feature that has never been attempted in this section before.

The Southern Oregonian is purely a business venture, and will be strictly independent in politics. The first number will be issued within two weeks.

Mr. Charles, the editor, has had wide newspaper experience in the Northwest. He was connected with the Evening Telegram for a number of years, and later was engaged in newspaper work in Baker City.

Rummage Sale

The ladies of the W. R. C. will hold their Rummage sale March 27, 28 and 29 in the Josephine Sample rooms on 6th street, next door to the candy kitchen. We have many new goods already donated and expect to get many more. We will have most anything you can call for and they will all be of some value to some one at very low prices. Rummage sales are especially a benefit to those of limited means, and they can get many useful articles very cheaply which otherwise they would have to do without. The country people can bring potatoes, apples, eggs and other produce, and get a fair price for them in exchange for something useful or needful. Most of our goods will be new and all will be nice and clean.

Might Be Bennett.

A stranger apparently about 40 years of age, with that famous "droop" in his right eye, wearing a light gray overcoat, derby hat and carrying an umbrella mailed a letter at the depot just before the arrival of the noon train, Saturday. An embryo Sherlock Holmes, who witnessed the proceeding, immediately spotted the man as Hawkins, alias Bennett, the mysterious and elusive assassin of pretty Nora Fuller at San Francisco a month ago. The appearance fitted the description which had been scattered broadcast over the country. It was also known that Seymour, chief detective of the San Francisco police force, had passed through Ashland a few nights previously on his way north in search of the much wanted man. Everything considered it was not improbable that Bennett might be in Ashland. The mysterious man did not leave on the train, and dropped out of sight as suddenly and unceremoniously as he had appeared.—Tidings.

Fell From a Trestle.

A man was killed at Leland early Thursday morning and the body was brought to Grants Pass on the same day. He was riding on the brake beams and it is supposed that he attempted to get out from under the train while the engine was taking water, the car he was on standing over the trestle, and in so doing fell from the trestle and was killed. He was 35 or 40 years of age. No papers or other means of identification were found. He was buried in the county cemetery.

Has Two Wives.

Thos. F. Simpson, a book keeper, the husband of her who was formerly Miss Kate De Peatt of Ashland, is in jail in San Francisco, charged with embezzlement and since his arrest it has appeared that he has two wives, Kate De Peatt being the second. They are said to go together daily to the jail to visit Simpson and are on friendly terms. Mrs. Simpson, nee De Peatt, explains that as long as they are satisfied it is no one else's business. Simpson and Mrs. Simpson the first are both well advanced in age.

Jeweler with a Gun.

H. B. Meyers, a jeweler of Medford, became hilarious in Helm's saloon in this city last Wednesday afternoon and began shooting at random with a revolver. Several shots were fired before he was suppressed by the police. He plead guilty in the city court and paid fines to the amount of $20.50.

The Menelye Quartette.

The Menelye quartette of Chicago gave two very enjoyable entertainments at the opera house on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week. Their voices are full of melody and the music was lively and of the ringing sort. There were no solos and no attempt at the more artificial styles of vocalism. W. Eugene Knox showed himself a master of the art of impersonation. He was the life of the entertainments and prevented a monotony which otherwise must have prevailed.

St. Patrick's Dance.

On account of a previous contract by which the opera house had been engaged for the week of the 17th by the Katherine Wayne Dramatic Co., the St. Patrick's hall postponed their grand St. Patrick's ball until Thursday, March 27th. It is the intention to make this the best dance of the season and "The six" assure a good time to all who attend.

Senator Killed Panther.

Senator R. A. Booth, who has been spending a few days in this vicinity duck shooting with his brother and friends, tells of killing a huge panther one night last week while out hunting on the Beknap settlement, near Monroe, in Benton County, says the Rossburg Plaindealer. The animal was treed by the dogs when the valiant Senator approached, a la Roosevelt, and fired three charges of buckshot into its head. The animal was a very large specimen, measuring over seven feet eight inches in length.

Lost River Snickers.

Klamath county is famous for snickers. It has other marvels also, as the following story from the Klamath Falls Express witnesses:
During the spawning season the suckers crowd Lost river at the gap so thickly that people use them for a bridge in preference to the one built by the county because they say it is solid. The people of the county throw them into wagons with pickforks without lessening the supply as those further down the stream crowd into the vacant places. Nearly any day this time of the year, a stream of double bed wagons can be seen coming from "the fishery" loaded to the top with suckers. The only accident in years that has occurred there was when one of the citizens tried to drive across on the suckers in a strong wind storm, when the fish were blown apart and in the rebound caught the horses and threw them with such force that they became entangled and upset the wagon. The fortunate presence of an Indian woman on the bank reduced a probable fatality to a mere accident.

To one who has seen a silky rake driven in and out of the stream and dumped each time on either bank till two windrows of suckers a half mile long was the result, it is not necessary to bring corroborative evidence, but the tenderfoot is very wary, and we do not expect the full credence to which we are entitled.
