Personal

Lincoln Savage attended the teachers' association at Eugene last week.
Geo. W. and W. J. Wimer, of Walds, are visiting Grants Pass this week.
Herman Laethye and J. A. Stalker, well known miners of Althouse, are in town this week.
Mrs. Fred Drake and daughter Mildred of Ashland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hough.
Mrs. J. K. Pigney went to Danemuir Cal. Tuesday and will probably be absent several weeks.

Rev. Robert McLean returned to Portland on Monday after a brief visit with friends in Grants Pass.
Jack Mullen, one of the well known barbers, has returned from Ashland and is now working for Abe Mock.
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook returned to Jacksonville Wednesday, after a few days visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Howland.
Carmel Martin, our gilt-edged baseball pitcher, arrived here Tuesday evening to assist the Alerts during the season.

Misses Hattie and Emma Telford returned on Monday evening from Portland where they spent several weeks visiting with friends.
J. A. Conner, who operates a hydraulic mine on Red Dog, visited Grants Pass Tuesday. He is now located at Selma for the summer.
Lou Axtell returned on Tuesday from Portland, where he has been working; the strike having put a stop to work for the present.

Daniel Brants of Springfield, S. D. arrived in Grants Pass Sunday. Mr. Brants is a cousin of Cramer Bros. and is recently from Holland.
Miss Mabel Smith returned Friday morning from Eugene where she has been attending the state university.

A. H. Long and wife of Gobleville, Mich., spent Sunday in this city the guests of Rev. J. W. McDougall. Mr. and Mrs. Long are making a tour of the west.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Jones of San Luis Obispo, Cal., are in Grants Pass having been called here on receipt of the news of the fatal accident to Mrs. Jones' father, J. C. Harmon.

M. C. Ament has purchased the Conklin residence property on Eighth street and moved in this week. A. U. Bannard, the former occupant, has removed to the Jackson residence on Seventh street.
Arthur Frier returned on Sunday evening from a tour to Portland and the Sound country. He visited Seattle, Everett and other cities of the Sound, but failed to find a better country than Southern Oregon.

John Thornton arrived here Sunday evening to visit for a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thornton. He is a railroad engineer and has been running between Reno and Wadsworth, Nev., for several years past.
Miss P. Saarlos of Holland arrived on Monday to visit her friend M. Braat. She has been traveling in the U. S. since last year and has just completed the Yellowstone Park and Alaska tours. She will remain here a month.

BORN.
NEELEY—At Merlin, June 26, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. James Neeley, a daughter.
MARRIED.
INGRAM—DURHAM—At Irvington, Calif., Monday, June 30, 1902, Prof. Ingram of Oakland, Cal., and Miss Mary Durham, of Ashland.

Miss Durham has been the teacher of instrumental music at the Ashland Normal during the past year and has many friends in this place.
ROBBINS—CUMMONS—In Ashland, June 21, 1902, Clyde Robbins and Mrs. Anna Cummons of Grants Pass. They will make their residence in Ashland.

McKINNEY—DUDLEY—In Jacksonville, June 24, 1902, Edwin McKinney and Ellen Dudley, by Judge H. K. Hanna.
CALLAN—HELM—In Jacksonville, June 24, 1902, E. J. Callan and Miss Lucie Helm, both of the Ashland Normal faculty, by Rev. S. H. Jones.

GILLETTE—COLVIG—At Portland, Sunday evening, June 22, George V. Gillette, the well-known trainman of Ashland, and Miss Dora Colvig, of Grants Pass, daughter of Volney Colvig of Josephine county. The wedding was a pretty, home affair and occurred at the home of the bride's brother, Harry Colvig, at Portland, Rev. Dr. Talbot of the Taylor street M. E. church, of that city, officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends were present. The bride was charmingly dressed in tan colored gown and pink. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The parlors of the Colvig home were prettily decorated for the occasion with marguerites and ferns. After the ceremony a wedding lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillette will make their future home at Gold Hill. Mr. Gillette has the superintendency of the loading of the trains at the Gold Hill gravel pit, and his duties will keep him there some time yet. The bride is a well-known Grants Pass young lady, having taught in the Grants Pass public schools for some time past. The newly-married couple have many friends in this city who wish them bon voyage on the matrimonial sea.

DIED.
McNAMARA—At Crescent City, Calif., Wednesday, June 25, 1902, Thos. F. McNamara, aged 42 years. Deceased was a native of Crescent City and one of the best known residents of Del Norte county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jewell entertained a number of friends at dinner at their home Saturday evening to visit with Rev. Robt. McLean and also to help Mr. and Mrs. Jewell celebrate their 5th wedding anniversary.

Anti-Rusting Tinware at Cramer Bros.
G. S. Bristow and five others of the Bristow family have located 120 acres of placer ground in Jackson county on Brush creek near Steamboat. This section of the country has not received much attention from the placer miners, but those gentlemen have found ground which prospects from 50 to 75 cents per cubic yard, and they have abundant water with only a three quarter mile ditch and about 300 feet of pipe.

E. E. Redfield, now of Glendale, was in town Monday on a business visit. He is engaged in the railroad wood business in the vicinity of Glendale and has been operating his sawing machine lately with good success until a tree fell on it and broke it. This sawing machine is a very ingenious invention of Mr. Redfield's own. The saw works by compressed air and is attached to a long hose, so that it may be operated over a considerable area of ground without moving the engine.

Scott Griffin, proprietor of the New Meat Market on Front Street, associated with John Barrow, an expert meat cutter, and J. L. Eastman, a first class sausage maker, is now in position to furnish all mining camps, saw mills, hotels, railroad men, and in fact, everybody in Josephine County, with the best of beef, mutton, pork, poultry, lard, and bacon at the lowest possible prices. Scott Griffin has the only exclusive hay, feed and seed store in Grants Pass, on Sixth street. Scott Griffin pays cash for hogs, cattle, hay and grain. Credit extended to regular pay day on good reference.

MINERS TO ORGANIZE.
In view of the apparent danger of a great deal of valuable mineral land being taken by timber locators, the miners are preparing to form an organization for the protection of their interests and a mass meeting of all citizens interested in the matter has been called to meet at the Court house on Monday evening, July 7. The matter is one of importance and vital interest to all in this portion of the state.

SEIGE OF PEKING.
A fairly good audience was present at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening to hear Dr. Eliza Leonard's lecture on the siege of Peking. Dr. Leonard is one of those who were shut up in Peking during the siege and speaks from personal experience. She is a very interesting and excellent speaker and detailed the events of the siege in a very graphic manner, holding the undivided interest of her audience throughout her lecture.

HONEST VALUES

One Hundred Cents Worth of Merchandise for 100 cents

Never since we have been in business in this city have we done so large a volume of business as this season. Merit wins—No fake sales—but the highest standard in values for the lowest price.

You will need a new outfit for the 4th of July

You want the correct thing—we have the largest assortment to be found in Southern Oregon.

The New Military Coat

seems to be a favorite and is indeed a very dressy garment. We are showing them in all the new colorings—The color apparently the favorite is the New Bottle Green.

Pantourist Hats

For a stylish shape in hats the Pantourist hold its own and sell more readily than other shapes.

Walk-Over Shoes

The Walk-Over leads 'em all. Tending toward straight lasts and lighter soles and small dressy tip—no tans—they are a dead one. More patent leather and Enamels sold this season than ever before.

Shirts

Golf! Golf! Apparently every one wants a golf shirt and no wonder—they are the embodiment of comfort for a hot summer day
COLLARS—The folded collar leads NECKWEAR—Tans and greens lead—the narrow four-in-hand—also the reversible in same—small pinch knot.

Needless to say fancy half hose are the proper thing.

Yours truly

P. H. Harth & Son.
