LELAND SIFTINGS.

The masquerade at Placer was a grand success. A big time, a big crowd, everybody enjoyed themselves.

Since the late rains the telegraph poles seem to be higher. Can it be they have taken root and are growing?

We have no sickness to report, everybody is well and happy. Plenty to eat, plenty to do, with a clear conscience, we are a happy people.

Portland gives an account of the flour and other produce that is being shipped from that port but don't say anything about Leland. We think Mr. Scott is a little selfish regarding Portland.

The Oregonian speaks of a rich strike in Douglas county on Grave creek. That is a little mixed; it should have said in Josephine county. We believe in giving credit where credit belongs.

We are having cool, cloudy weather, with a little rain, just enough to keep the grass growing. Farmers are busy; miners are busy. We hear heavy blasts in the mines where the miners are cutting down bed rock and blasting heavy banks so the water can carry off the debris.

Mr. Ball, our worthy marshal, attended the dance. As the old adage says, "when the cat is away, the mice will play," so down on Maiden's Lane some young fellows had a little bout. As it always happens, one came out second best. We would advise our marshal to deputize a man to see in his place the next time he goes away.

We have some mines here that have 120 feet of bank, so in order to uncover much bedrock there is a large amount of ground to wash away. It requires a great deal of water. We have no new strikes to chronicle since our last writing. All of the quartz mines are pushed to their full extent, unlike it was a few years ago—work a ledge awhile, then rest awhile.

We understand the Gold Bug has shut down on account of shortage of wood. The wood cutters are on a strike. Very heavy machinery is being hauled to the Greenback mine. Big teams and wagons are brought from Grants Pass to haul the mill from Leland to the mine. It looks queer to send to the Pass for big teams, but sometimes big pieces make nearly a tonload and our teams are not qualified to handle such heavy freight.

WILDFIRE ITEMS

Lewis Smith is quite sick with a cold. We have been having a few days of pleasant weather.

Go to J. C. E. McCann's for dry goods and groceries.

Miss Mary Rausche is visiting friends near Wilderville.

Miss Della McCann is employed as help at the Wilderville hotel.

Rev. Rogers will preach every other Sunday at Wilderville for the coming year.

J. T. Robinson informs us that he has the only goose cooked in this part of southern Oregon, on his ranch three miles west of Wilderville.

Claud, Kirk, Addie and Chloé Robinson spent Thanksgiving at home.

The Thanksgiving party at J. C. McCann's was enjoyed by all who were there.

Joe Pecking, Jr. made a business trip to Medford to get seed wheat for fall sowing.

Mr. J. Verdin is having a new fireplace built in his house. Mr. E. Erickson is doing the work.

Alice Lovelace had quite a time with a bad cold but is better now and little Mildred is quite sick with a cold.

There has been some talk of a Christmas tree at Wilderville and a good program will be the order of the evening, Christmas eve.

Everybody seems to be having colds this fall. Zanni.

MODOCOS RETURN.

Chas. S. Hood and Rev. Samuel Clinton, Modoc Indians, arrived here recently from Indian Territory on a mission in the interest of their tribe. They were youthful members of the band of 165 Modocs who were removed by the government from this county to Indian Territory at the close of the Modoc war in 1872. They report that there are only 65 members of the tribe left. Messrs Hood and Clinton are well educated and make a very good appearance.—Klamath Republican.

FATE OF DICK ADAMS.

The following dispatch of Nov. 20, from Spokane tells of the fate of "Dick" Adams, well known in southern Oregon. He was formerly a resident of Walden and at one time drove stage on the Grants Pass-Crockett City line.

Richard K. Adams, long noted in the Coast & Alton for his daring and bravery, was caught in the machinery of Barker Hill and Sullivan Mill at Walden, Idaho, tonight and crushed to death. Just how he became entangled in the machinery is unexplained, as he was working alone at the time. His body was frightfully mangled.

He was better known as "Dick" Adams. He has been an occasional passenger officer in this section. He was a dead shot with both rifle and revolver, and has added three nickels on his revolver handle in the last two years. About 15 months ago he was acting as deputy marshal at Gen. John Kennedy and William Kilgus both noted bad men, laid for him in a dance hall. As Adams came through an archway from the saloon one of the men was raising his rifle to fire. Before he could aim, Adams shot him dead through the head. The other desperado raised his revolver, but fell dead at the second shot from Adams' gun.

A few months later Adams was shot at from ambush on a dark night. He fired two shots in the direction of the bush and the next morning the body of a man was found pierced with a revolver bullet.

FIVE GOOD REASONS.

That the Rio Grande Route is the most regular one between the Pacific Coast and the East, is evidenced by the fact that the greater percentage of transcontinental travelers use it.

First, its scenic attractions in view from trains are unequalled in the world.

Second, the daily personally conducted tourist car excursions being especially adapted for ladies traveling alone or with children, affords a comfortable mode of travel at rates within reach of all.

Third, it is the only route between the East and West passing directly through Salt Lake City or modern Zion.

Fourth, choice of two distinct routes through the heart of the Rocky mountains.

Fifth, three fast through trains daily between Ogden and Denver equipped with every modern convenience.

There are many other reasons why this route is the most comfortable and enjoyable in the whole country. You can learn a great deal on the subject of through travel, and receive some very beautiful and interesting booklets by calling on or writing to the undersigned, W. C. McBRIDE, Gen'l Agent of M. J. ROCHE, Traveling Agent, 121 Third Street, Portland, Oregon.

THE SAN FRANCISCO CALL'S BEAUTIFUL ART SUPPLEMENT.

Beginning with the issue of December 7, 1902, The San Francisco Call will issue, free to all its subscribers, a series of beautiful art supplements, known as the celebrated Banghart "Cartoons in Pastel Colors." The first supplement ("Dorothy"), on December 7, must be seen to be appreciated, as it is impossible to describe the brilliancy of its art objects.

On the following Sunday, in addition to the art supplement, "When Cupid Holds the Reins," The Call will present its readers with the first chapter of that intensely interesting story, "The Gospel of Judas Iscariot," complete in two numbers, and to be followed by a number of the best novels of the day and a series of short stories by well known and popular writers, puzzles, etc., etc., etc. Now is the time to subscribe for San Francisco's leading paper. All dealers and postmasters will accept subscriptions.

ONE WOMAN AMONG THE THOUSANDS.

We received a letter from Waycross, Georgia, a few days ago, from a lady who has lived there for years. She writes us that she had been troubled with female complaint for a long time, until she was reduced almost to a shadow. It effected her mind, she could not remember anything, would get so confused and so nervous and irritable she could hardly sleep. She described her case as one similar to thousands of other women, and then ended the letter by saying she gained 15 lbs. last month, and never felt better in her life, having no trace of her former troubles, slept well and ate her meals with a relish. This lady commenced the use of Dr. Cassin's Blood and Nerve Tonic just six weeks before she wrote the letter from which we copy the above. This tonic is in tablet form and should be taken right after meals. It turns the food you eat into strong rich blood, making solid flesh and feeding the nerves, curing disease by making healthy flesh. Pale, weak thin people should use this tonic. For sale by W. F. Krenner.
