

Let us take your order, we'll fill it correctly at prices that are right.

We have everything that's good to eat, including the celebrated

ST. CHARLES CREAM

Eggs 30c Creamery Butter 70c

White House Grocery,

Opposite the P. O. H. C. Bobzien, Propr.

Rogers 1847

SILVERWARE.

If you intend giving any Christmas Presents why not make them in Silverware. Such presents are always the most acceptable. We have just opened our new stock and have a fine assortment with prices to suit all Pocket-books. Don't fail to call before you finally decide.

Cramer Bros.

ODD FELLOWS BLOCK.

CARVING SETS.

HOLIDAY CHINAWARE.

A Good Fisherman

will need good tackle. Our stock of Flies, Spoons, Lures, Reels and Rods is complete and we sell the best that can be procured. Fishermen using our tackle are sure to get good reports from the other end of the line.

Hair-Riddle Hardware Co.

AT JEWELL'S OLD STAND.

The LATEST IN MILLINERY

All the new styles in Ready-to-Wear and Trimmed Hats that will please in Style and Price.

Do not miss seeing them. Finer line than ever before in Children's Hats and Tams.

A Full line of the new ideal patterns, too; when sent by mail 1c

Mrs. J. A. Rehkopf

New Idea 10c Paper Patterns.

PATTERN HATS and Colored Trimmed Hats

GO AT

20 per cent Discount until closed out.

Great Bargains in other Millinery Goods.

Miss Ida Weston.

Courier and Oregonian $2 a year

Personal

J. E. Verdin went to Ashland Monday.
Chas. L. Wimer of Waldo was in town last week.
Miss Madge Marshall spent Sunday visiting in Gold Hill.
Miss May Sutton spent Thanksgiving at her home in Ashland.
R. Virtue of Leland was in Grants Pass last week on a business visit.
H. L. Whited of Ashland made a brief visit in Grant Pass last week.
A. Arnette of Smith river, Cal., is visiting for a few weeks in Grants Pass.
Rev. Geo. D. Doyle, now of Roseburg, came up to Grants Pass Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bolter visited with relatives in Jacksonville last week.
Miss Mabel Palethorpe of Ashland visited in Grants Pass on Thanksgiving day.
C. B. Watson of Ashland was in Grants Pass several days last week on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crow returned on Friday evening from a visit to Portland.
E. A. Carter of Ashland was in Grants Pass Friday evening on a business visit.
Hon. H. E. Ankney of Jacksonville has returned from a trip to the Willamette valley.
Rev. M. D. Wilson of Talent has accepted the Free Methodist pastorate for Grants Pass.
Miss Nora Sydow went to Central Point Thursday to spend Thanksgiving day at home.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barnes returned on Sunday evening from a few days visit in Ashland.
Ex-Commissioner Jacob Hanseth, of Selma, was in town Wednesday last on a business visit.
Ray Stevens and R. N. Bishop were visitors to Grants Pass last week from the Greenback mine.
Miss Love, of Junction City, is spending a few weeks in Grants Pass, visiting with friends.
M. D. Hodson spent a day or two in Grants Pass last week. He has lately returned from Arizona.
C. J. Allen of Portland, is now at Galice looking after copper properties in which he is interested.
S. E. Danney of Ashland spent Thanksgiving here with his son, E. A. Danney, S. P. fireman.
Jack Seelling, one of the well known miners of the Galice district, visited Grants Pass on Saturday.
Mrs. A. K. Rose, now of Ashland, came down Friday evening to visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Taylor.
Mr. Beck, formerly of the Hill & Beck mines, now the "Granite Hill," has arrived in Seattle from Nome.
Dr. and Mrs. Moore and Miss Vida spent Thanksgiving in Ashland, the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Cameron.
Miss Lou McPherson of Medford returned Wednesday after a visit in Grants Pass with Miss Myrtle Utley.
E. E. Danbar has received the appointment of postmaster at Wolf Creek, vice J. T. Tuffs, resigned.
Frank L. Demaree returned to Grants Pass Saturday evening after an absence of over a year in California.
Mrs. Arthur Miller and Mrs. F. R. Dickey arrived here Friday evening from Ashland to visit with Mrs. Franzen.
Newton Gilkey, of Montezuma, Wash., is visiting for a few weeks in Grants Pass with his brother, H. L. Gilkey.
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Haysink have returned from Gold Hill, where Mr. Haysink has been in the employ of Dr. Braden.
Mrs. Moon and son, Louie, returned on Thursday evening from a visit to Idaho. They have been absent about a month.
C. S. Froeland, chief engineer in the survey for the Oregon & Pacific railway, returned to San Francisco Friday evening.
C. P. Sharman of Tacoma, visited here on Thursday and Friday with his brother, W. P. Sharman, while on his way to California.
Rev. M. C. Manson, Sunday school missionary, arrived in town Wednesday after a visit to the southern portion of the county.
E. C. W. Klefer was thrown from a boggy and seriously hurt Tuesday of last week while on his way from Medford to Jacksonville.
Mrs. M. C. Ament and little son returned last week from a visit of several months in Chicago. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Carvill.
Miss Mabel Winter of Portland is visiting in Grants Pass at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clarke and expects to remain several weeks in our city.
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans of Stockholm, Neb., arrived here on Thursday to visit for a time with relatives in southern Oregon. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Helms.
Prof. J. P. McConnell, principal of the Merlin school, visited Grants Pass Friday. His school recently gave an entertainment to raise funds to purchase an organ for the school. The affair was very successful and the instrument has been installed.
Hon. H. B. Miller was rejoined here Wednesday by Mrs. Miller and daughter, Miss Winifred, and left for San Francisco to embark on the transport Sheridan for the Orient. They will touch, en route, at Hoggins, Guam and Manila, finally disembarking at Port Arthur, whence they will proceed to the consulate of Nis Chwang.
Baths.
I have just completed my new barber shop and bath house; have added another fine 6 1/2-foot porcelain tub. Rooms are heated throughout with steam pipes, and I feel sure my patrons will be well pleased with the new place. Myers' barber shop.

Coming Events.

Dec. 3—"Sweet Sixteen" social at Presbyterian church parlors.
Dec. 6—"Irish Pawnbrokers" at Opera house.
Dec. 11—"Alabama Warblers" at Opera house.
Dec. 13—Local teachers' institute at Kerby.
Dec. 15—Arthur Frazier, pianist, at Opera house under auspices of high school.

Advertised Letters.

Following is the list of letters remaining uncollected for in the Grants Pass postoffice, Saturday, Nov. 29, 1902:
Ladies—
Mrs. Louis Hamburger.
Gentlemen—
Jas Caselohr.
Johanne Fiester.
C. E. Harmon, P. M.

Shoulder Dislocated.

Lon Genuer was the victim of an accident on Monday while handling ice at the W. L. & P. Co's ice house. In pulling on a cake of ice, the tongs slipped and Lon fell in such a manner as to dislocate his shoulder. The injured member is improving as rapidly as could be reasonably expected.

Thanksgiving Ball.

The principal entertaining event of Thanksgiving day in this city was the Foresters' grand annual ball, given at the Opera house on Thanksgiving evening. The ball was adorned with bunting and evergreens and presented quite a festive appearance. The attendance was very good and the dance was a pleasant one. The music was furnished by an excellent orchestra, under the leadership of Signor D. Bofa of Medford.

Betsy Popompkus Acquitted.

Betsy Popompkus, an Indian woman, recently on trial in Klamath county for the murder of her mother, known as Dr. Hannah, has been acquitted.

Gillett-Pollock.

In the presence of about 40 friends and relatives, a most beautiful wedding ceremony was solemnized in the parlor of the bride's mother, Thursday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock, the contracting parties being George Gillett and Etta Pollock, both of Winona. Rev. R. L. Johnston, of Grants Pass officiated. The room was tastefully decorated, and at the appointed hour the young couple entered, the bride leaning upon the arm of the groom. They took their position in the northeast corner of the room, and then followed a most impressive ceremony.
Immediately following the ceremony, a beautiful supper was partaken of.
Mr. and Mrs. Gillett were the recipients of many useful and valuable gifts. Both parties have a host of friends throughout the country who wish them all the happiness and prosperity that life can contain.

Hayes-Green.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized on Monday of the present week when Miss Alice Green was united in matrimony to David O. Hayes. The ceremony was performed by County Judge J. O. Booth.
The wedding was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Penn, of this city. The event was a quiet one, only a few relatives and immediate friends being present. After the ceremony had been performed in an impressive manner by Judge Booth and congratulations tendered, a delicious dinner was served and heartily enjoyed by those in attendance.
The bride is a most estimable young lady of Merlin, while Mr. Hayes is one of the best known young men of Josephine county. Both of them have numerous friends who wish them a happy, smooth and prosperous voyage on the matrimonial sea and all the brightness which life's pathway can afford.

MARRIED.

HAYES-GREEN—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Penn in this city, on Monday, Dec. 1, 1902, David O. Hayes and Miss Alice E. Green, Judge J. O. Booth officiating.
CLEMENT-HULBERT—In this city, Nov. 19, 1902, by Rev. J. W. McDougall, Geo. Clement and Miss Betsy Hulbert, both well known young people of Grants Pass.
ANDERSON-COLEMAN—At Eugene, Nov. 28, 1902, G. N. Anderson, of Ashland, and Miss Emma Coleman of Phoenix, by Rev. Mac H. Wallace.
ENGLISH-CARLTON—In Grants Pass, Ore., on Nov. 25, 1902, at the Layton Hotel, Christopher C. English and Laura Carlton, Dr. Robert Lewis of the Baptist church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. English will reside here in the future.
GILLETT-POLLOCK—At the residence of the bride's mother, near Winona, Oregon, Thursday, Nov. 27, 1902, by Rev. R. L. Johnston, G. F. Gillett and Miss Etta Pollock.
Mr. Gillett was a former resident of Winona, but for the past few years has made his home in Klamath county where he has been engaged in the livestock business. The bride is one of Josephine county's best known young ladies, and has a host of friends who wish her unalloyed bliss on her matrimonial voyage. The happy couple will go to eastern Oregon in the spring, to make that their future home.

BORN.

HAMMERICK—At Central Point, Nov. 21, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hammerick, a son.
MICKELSON—In Ashland, Nov. 29, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. August Mickelson, a daughter.

DIED.

BIEDE—In Ashland, Nov. 25, 1902, C. A. O. Biede, aged 49 years.
EDWARDS—At Medford, Nov. 31, 1902, W. M. Edwards, aged 68 years.
MESSINGER—At Williamson, Ore., Wednesday, Nov. 26, 1902, C. Messenger, aged 66 years.
Mr. Messenger had been in poor health for some time and an attack of pleurisy was the immediate cause of his death. He leaves a wife and family.

Local Happenings

Dr. Flanagan, Resident Dentist.
Go to Coran for Plumbing.
M. Clemens, Prescription Druggist.
Strinsky steel ware at Cramer Bros.
See Voorbies about Kodaks and Supplies.
Rubbers and Umbrellas. The Sugar Pine Store.
Garland Stoves and Ranges at Cramer Bros.
The steam feather renovator is coming to Grants Pass.
Air-tight stoves, just the size for bed rooms at Cramer Bros.
Fountain Pens—Waterman's Ideal $2.50 to $6.00 at Cramer Bros.
Get a booklet of beautiful scenery of Southern Oregon from Cleveenger.
Presents for old and young and to suit all pocket books at Cramer Bros.
Monterey cypress, shade and fruit trees, berry plants etc. at Riverside Nursery.
With every Pyrography outfit sold, Mrs. Cleveenger gives free instructions how to use.
Don't fail to look over the large new line of Staple Shoes at The Sugar Pine Store.
A complete line of the celebrated Mitchell Boggles, Hacks and Wagons, Hair-Riddle Hardware Co.
W. K. Price, the well known farmer and stockman of Tofo, was in Grants Pass last week receiving medical assistance on account of a badly swollen jaw.
Curtis & Co., practical watch makers and jewelers. Dealer in watches, clocks, jewelry and Diamond rings. All repairing first class. Odd Fellow's building.
"Rudolph and Adolph," advertised to appear here on December 10, have cancelled their engagement for this place on account of being delayed on their tour by defective railroad connections.
J. G. Coyan, organizer for the Woodmen of the World for the Southern Oregon district has been in Grants Pass during the week on official business. The local lodge is making a substantial increase through his efforts.
H. C. Holzien, one of the leading grocers of Grants Pass has adopted the cash basis, beginning on December 1. He claims ability to give his patrons a better service, and better goods at lower prices under this system than under the old.
Given away free with every purchase of $2 or over—your choice of a tray of shop worn rings—some of them gold and the rest are gold filled. Worth from $1 to $5 each until all are gone. First come gets best choice at Lecher's jewelry store.
Dr. Jennings does not do cheap, shoddy dental work, but is now doing first class work at greatly reduced prices. His new system of crown and bridge work at only about one half of the old price. Ask for anything in the dental line, and he will give you as fine work as can be had in San Francisco. Painless operations a specialty. Office in Opera house block.

Bargain Counter in Holiday China at Cramer Bros.
A splendid line of Royal Charter Oak Ranges at Coran's.
Rogers 1847 shell satin knives and forks at Cramer Bros.
Big new line of Well Wearer Shoes for ladies, men and children. The Sugar Pine Store.
See J. T. Taylor at Slover's drug store for fruit and shade trees, berry plants and cypress for hedges.
Many growers think that all kind of trees do better if transplanted in the fall. Trees for sale by J. T. Taylor, Riverside Nursery.
At Cleveenger's Photograph Gallery, this day, Dec. 1, 1902, have received a large assortment of Pyrography woods and more coming. Also outfits for burning.
Chowfa Maha Vajiravudh, crown prince of Siam, passed through Grants Pass Friday evening, with his retinue, on a special train. He is returning to his native land after a visit to America.
We are in receipt of a very pleasant letter from Rev. Howard A. Wood, formerly pastor of the M. E. church here. Mr. and Mrs. Wood have now been in Denver four years, at one church Mr. Wood says, "Our lives have been pleasant and happy and our health good." Continual success has followed their efforts in the Denver pastorate.
Rev. Edward M. Sharpe of Portland occupied the pulpit of Bethany Presbyterian church last Sunday at both morning and evening services. Mr. Sharpe pleased his congregation greatly by his sermons which were full of good solid matter, the interest of which was increased by a very pleasant delivery. He will remain over next Sunday in Grants Pass and will again occupy the pulpit at both services on that day.
J. W. Swank was in town on Monday from "Starvout," a tributary of Cow Creek. Mr. Swank is engaged in mining in that district, pursuing both quartz and placer operations, though his work in the line of quartz has been as yet limited to prospecting operations merely. He has a placer mine of excellence, situated partly in Douglas and partly in Jackson county and very near where Josephine corners with Jackson, Douglas lying north of both. The mine is a producer of coarse gold, in gratifying quantity. Mr. Swank had one piece of exceptional beauty, of a value of nearly $200.

Artisans Elect Officers.

Grants Pass assembly No. 49, United Artisans, held their regular semi-annual election on Tuesday evening, December 2. The following officers were elected:
M. A. C. Kenneth Root; Supt., Mrs. E. A. Griffith; Insp. Mrs. S. A. Frederick; Sec., Fred Munch; Treas., Edna Parker; St. Con., J. B. Padlock; M. C., M. W. Mowers; Jr. Con., Mrs. Belle Mitchell.
Carving sets, a fine Christmas present at Cramer Bros.

...High Art Clothing...

Smartest Suit in town is the Hopkins Sack Suit. Military Style with narrow collar and blunt end front. The sleeves end with turnover cuffs. Trousers are rather wide and made peg-top way.
Among the materials is the new Red and Black Coronation Check. High Art Make and certain to wear well. A special insurance policy made out in your name guarantees the garment's wear.

These gloves have these points of excellence:
Best material, perfect fit, long wear, patented construction, thorough reinforcement, no burning, pinching, callousing seams in grip; continued flexibility in spite of wind, wet and weather; highly-paid union workmanship.
No other gloves can offer this strong combination of real merits.

FOR SALE BY Harth & Son
high grade clothing and furnishings for GENTLEMEN AND BOYS.
Sixth and H Streets, Grants Pass, Oregon.

C. E. Social.

The Presbyterian C. E. society held a business and social meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Jean Longenecker, with quite a numerous attendance of the members and friends of the society. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner with games and other social amusements. The social committee had prepared some unique and very interesting features of entertainment. Among them, one which caused considerable amusement was a guessing contest in which participants drew a picture to illustrate some familiar nursery rhyme. Some of these efforts were quite artistic, while others were quite startling in appearance.

Thanksgiving Services.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Newman M. E. church on Thursday forenoon. The address was given by Rev. R. L. Johnston of the Christian church, the other pastors assisting. Special Thanksgiving services were held at St. Luke's Episcopal church, with special music and address by Rev. Daughters.

WILL THEY EVER FIND IT OUT

That the Medford flour is again the best flour on the market?

"Sweet Sixteen" Social.

A "sweet Sixteen" social will be given at the parlors of Bethany Presbyterian church on Friday evening of this week. Some new and especially interesting features of entertainment have been provided and a most enjoyable occasion is assumed. One feature of the program will be 16 16-year-old girls in costumes of the nations. Home made candy and books suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale. The admission will be 16 cents, and with each paid admission, a handsome souvenir will be given.

High School Entertainment.

The high school has secured Arthur Frazier the famous pianist, to give a recital on Monday, Dec. 15th for the benefit of the library fund. Mr. Frazier has pleased Grants Pass audiences before, and a musical treat is promised all who listen. Two vocal numbers will be given by local talent during the evening.

The Earth Trembled.

A slight earth tremor was felt on Monday night by a number of people in this city. It occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock, a. m. It is thought the jar was caused by our city election.

KESSLER'S Chicago Racket Store

We have received an immense lot of Holiday Goods of all kinds and feel confident that at the Chicago Racket Store you will be able to find everything needful for Christmas gifts. The prices are so low that the goods will not last long. Come while the assortment is at its best.

Toys Toys of all Kinds Toys

We have in stock hundreds of Dolls of all sizes—an assortment the like of which has never before been seen in Southern Oregon. Take a look at them.

KESSLER'S Chicago Racket Store