But you will soon see what we are going to do with them. These little BARGAIN BECKONERS will soon be let loose and will be like the "Dogs of War" on our store as they are "Out for Business" and will pack our store with Christmas Buyers. We are going to make this the greatest Christmas Sale ever held in this city and want every resident to profit by the same.

Sale Commences Saturday, Dec. 6, 1902

CLOAK SALE.

We have turned the Dogs of War loose in our Cloak Department. The population was too thick there for comfort and we have found that there is nothing like the free use of the Kash Converter's Knife to reduce the population in any department. The edict has, therefore, gone forth to Cut the Price of Every Garment in our Cloak Department Twenty Per Cent.

CUT—20 PER CENT—CUT

This means a severe loss to our profit and loss account, but our Cloak Department must be cleared before stock taking. And profit or no profit the stock must move.
