

White House Grocery

We are ready to take your order for all good things to eat because we have 'em.

During the Holiday season everybody likes to have things a little better than usual. Let us tell you what we have.

For the cook and the kitchen and the cake to bake our line is complete.

Nice new seeded raisins 12c, also the small seedless Sultans at 10c.

English Currants in pound packages, full weight 12c.

Cluster raisins for the table—very nice at 18c. and 20c.

Good cooking raisin at 10c.

Best of lemon and orange peel, and candied citron.

Mince Meat in packages 10c.

Remember our Spices and Extracts are pure.

Of course our butter is good. Cockerlin's Clover Dale and our Clover Leaf—nothing better to be had, per square 70c. Always fresh, always good.

Eggs are another item that we watch closely in order to give our customers only those that we feel confident are nice and fresh. Present price is 30c and 35c.

In Fish

An occasional mackerel tastes good to some people, especially for breakfast. Have just opened a new barrel of Atlantic Mackerel, this season's catch.

Eastern Codfish middles and also in bricks 8 to 12c.

Smoked salmon 15c; salmon bellies 10c.

Pickled Herring in bulk 15c. per pt.

All kinds of canned fish—Lobsters and Crabs for salads.

We have the finest Eastern Bacon and the best sugar-cured ham of the season.

Deviled Chicken, Turkey and Ham 5c and 10c.

Canned Pigs feet 15c.

Christmas Candies and Nuts.

Lots and lots of 'em.

Good plain mixed candy, per lb. 10c. Boston mixed 12 1/2c. French mixed 15c to 20c.

All our nuts are fresh 1902 crop. Fancy soft-shell walnuts, paper-shell almonds, filberts, pecans, "nigger toes" peanuts, mixed nuts per pound 15c.

Black and white figs 7c and 10c.

Oranges now coming in; better condition, ripier and sweeter. Prices range according to size.

Just arrived more of those nice Jersey Crauberrys. Get them now, they are long keepers.

White House Grocery

Personal

H. C. Perkins returned on Thursday from a business trip to Portland.

Joe McCourt and family, lately of Althouse, are now residents of Grants Pass.

J. L. Myers made a visit to Gold Hill on Thursday.

Mrs. Volney Colvig returned from Portland on Monday.

City Marshall John Lockhardt made a business visit to Yreka last week.

Harry Hoeler of Ashland was in Grants Pass Friday on a business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chapin of Leelanau were visitors to Grants Pass on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. Keykendall, Grand president of the Native Daughters, was in town Tuesday.

E. D. Thompson, the merchant of Wimer, was in town Saturday on a business visit.

Emmett Conger was in Medford recently visiting friends and looking after business affairs.

Miss Lyle Watson of Ashland has been visiting friends in Grants Pass during the past week.

Miss Rachel Rowley came down from Ashland Thursday to visit friends in Grants Pass.

Miss Elsie Green returned on Friday from a visit in Ashland with Miss Louise Whitney.

Walter de Varis, the mining engineer, was in Jacksonville Wednesday, accompanied by his family.

C. M. Cutworth of Astoria spent a few days in Grants Pass last week visiting his cousin, C. B. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rogers celebrated their "tenth" wedding on Thursday, their 10th wedding anniversary.

Scott Griffin, formerly one of our business men, spent a few days in town this week returning on Monday.

Carmel Martin who has lately been teaching school near Waddo, left on Thursday for his home at San Jose, Cal.

W. G. Connell of Pipestone, Minn., occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday and his sermons were received with much appreciation. Rev. Connell will speak next Sunday also, morning and evening.

Chas. M. Morrison returned on Sunday from several days absence on a business visit to Riddle and Canyonville.

Job Whiteside, who is interested in a bond on the Spence Copper mines, arrived on Monday evening from Oakland, to look after his mining interests.

W. B. Stewart, who has been working on the new bridge at Medford, as carpenter, came down to Grants Pass Thursday evening. He expects to proceed further north.

Miss Agnes George, who has been attending the normal in Ashland this winter, passed through Grants Pass Tuesday morning to spend a holiday vacation in Portland and Salem.

Mrs. G. W. Burnett, of Oroville, Calif., and a sister of Mrs. T. W. Johnson, arrived Tuesday. She expects to permanently reside here.—Southern Oregonian.

P. H. Dailley, school superintendent of Jackson county, was in town last week consulting with Supt. Savage in regard to certain bills which are to be considered by the legislature.

Geo. J. Coe, president of the Oregon & California Gold Fields Co., has been in Josephine county during the past week, looking after the company's mining properties of which the Eureka mine is one.

"Mount Hood" photographs, 5 x 7 size, mounted, 25c.—Courier office.

Local Happenings

Dr. Flanagan, Resident Dentist, Go to Canon for Plumbing. Choice pictures at Clemens. Air Guns at Cramer Bros. M. Clemens, Prescription Druggist. Boys Pocket Knives at Cramer Bros. Big assortment of Dolls at Clemens. Judian Photographs at the Courier office. Ribbons and Umbrellas. The Sugar Pine Store.

New York Racket store for Christmas gifts.

Only reliable brands of Photo Goods carried at A. E. Voorhies.

Strobble's shoe repairing always pleased. Take your shoes to him.

The famous line of Gifford views of Northwest scenery at the Courier office.

Santa Claus makes his headquarters this year at Smith's New York Racket store.

Air-tight Heaters at Cramer Bros.

Don't fail to look over the large new line of Staple Shoes at The Sugar Pine Store.

St. Luke's Episcopal church will hold its Christmas tree on Tuesday evening, the 23rd inst.

A fine line of Christmas goods in great variety may be found at the New York Racket store.

A complete line of the celebrated Mitchell Doggies, Hacks and Wagons, Hair-Riddle Hardware Co.

L. A. Strobble has charge of the shoe making and repairing department at the Lucas harness shop. Take your work to him.

There will be a midnight service at St. Luke's Church on Christmas eve, December 24. Special music will be one of the features of the service. The church will be appropriately decorated.

"Uncle Bub" Cook, who has mined on Fours Creek for the past 40 years, has taken advantage of the early run of water and will have more ground moved before Christmas than is usually off by cleaning-up time.—Medford Mail.

Decorated Lamps at Cramer Bros.

Christmas goods in great variety at Smith's New York Racket store.

Curtis & Co., practical watch makers and jewelers. Dealer in watches, clocks, jewelry and Diamond rings. All repairing first class. Odd Fellows' building.

Holiday Chinaware at Cramer Bros.

Christmas presents for every member of the family at Smith's New York Racket store.

Given away free with every purchase of $2 or over—your choice of a tray of sleep worn rings—some of them gold and the rest are gold filled. Worth from $1 to $3 each until all are gone. First come gets best choice at Letcher's jewelry store.

Rogers 1847 Silverware at Cramer Bros.

Gunther's Candles at Clemens.

Steven's Rifles at Cramer Bros.

A splendid line of Royal Charter Oak Ranges at Coron's.

Smith's New York Racket store has exceptional opportunities for selection in Christmas goods.

See J. T. Taylor at Slover's drug store for fruit and shade trees, berry plants and cypress for hedge.

At Clevenger's Photograph Gallery, this day—1902, have received a large assortment of Pyrography woods and more coming. Also outfits for burning.

Any person needing any kind of dental work, may learn something to their advantage by calling at the dental office of Dr. Jennings. He is the most experienced dentist in this part of the state. Work right. Prices right. Painless operations by his own private method a specialty. Office in Opera House block.

Program by High School.

A program will be given by the High school students on Friday. It will include an impromptu, an address by Kirkman Robinson, a debate, two recitations, and several musical numbers; instrumental pieces and vocal solos, duets and quartets.

Salvation Army.

Captain and Mrs. Clark are farewelling from Grants Pass Sunday night, the 21. As they are leaving sooner than expected, a short Christmas program will be given Saturday, December 20, when a few presents will be given to the poor children, after which coffee and cake supper will be served for 10 cents. Proceeds go on our fare. Everybody is kindly invited.

What can we get as Christmas presents for our friends? Solve the problem by a visit to Smith's New York Racket store.

FOR ROSE CATARRH, HAY FEVER AND SNEEZING CATARRH Use S. B. Catarrh Cure with donche in the proportions of one tablespoonful to one pint of warm water and use freely three or four times daily, and take the S. B. Catarrh cure as directed four times daily, which will allay an irritability of the nasal nerves and tissue. For sale by all druggists. Book on Catarrh free. Address Smith Bros., Fresno, Cal.

Suitable Christmas gifts for young or old and for all at Smith's New York Racket store. Don't fail to examine the line of Christmas goods at the New York Racket store before purchasing elsewhere.

A Fine Pair

Of Carvers will make a most suitable Christmas present. We have an elegant line, including some fine genuine stag sets with sterling silver mountings.

Cramer Bros.

ODD FELLOWS BLOCK.

TRIMMED AND WALKING HATS

All going at Half Price.

Only a few left. Some of the few are rare bargains at that price. Also what Xmas Goods I have left go at Half Price, to close out. Come in before you are too late to secure some of these bargains.

Mrs. J. A. Rehkopf
New Idea 10c Paper Patterns.

TRIMMED HATS

Cheaper than ever.

I am determined to close out all my present stock of

Trimmed Hats
Street Hats
Feathers
Ornaments and Trimmings.

If you want a bargain come now.

Miss Ida Weston.
Second millinery store east of Sixth street.

Coming Events

Dec 20—Social by High school girls basket ball team, at Woodman hall.

Dec 25—Christmas Day.

Dec 25—Grand Masquerade ball by Azalea Circle at Opera house.

Co. "H" Attention!

An election is ordered for Tuesday, December 30, at which time a captain will be elected; Col. Moran, Inspector. All members of Co. "H" are hereby notified to be present.

A. E. Voorhies, 1st Lieutenant commanding.

Pickings from Puck

"Pickings from Puck," given at the Opera house Saturday night, was one of the liveliest shows of the season. It was on the order of "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" and the "Irish Pawnbrokers," pure burlesque, with just enough plot to hang a succession of amusing scenes thereon. It was full of laugh from beginning to end.

We are ready for Santa Claus. Give us a call. Cramer Bros.

Advertised Letters.

Following is the list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the Grants Pass post office, December 18, 1902:

Gentlemen—
Joe Willett,
A. B. Lowe,
Chas. S. Rogers,
D. Trail Elden,
E. H. Schmidt,
Ladies—
Mrs. J. D. Williams,
I. Willard.
C. E. Harmon, P. M.

Christmas at the Churches.

Both the M. E. and Presbyterian Sunday schools have adopted a new plan for celebrating Christmas and the members will give, instead of receiving presents. The M. E. Sunday school will give a program on Christmas eve, December 24. The Presbyterian Sunday school will give their Christmas entertainment on Tuesday evening, December 23.

The Baptist Sunday school will have a special exercises this year, but the children will receive presents of candy and nuts.

St. Luke's Episcopal church will have a Christmas tree on Tuesday evening and a midnight service with special music on Christmas eve.

The Salvation Army will give a Christmas program on Saturday evening, December 30, and a few presents will be given to the poorer children.

Piano Recital.

Arthur Frazer gave a piano recital at the opera house on Monday evening. Mr. Frazer's playing was greatly enjoyed by his audience. He is a pianist of high talent and skill and the program was received with appreciation. Mr. Frazer was assisted by Mr. Isham, who sang "Anchored," and received a hearty encore.

The entertainment was given under the auspices of the high school and a neat sum was secured to add to the library fund.

Child delighers in a bundance and variety at Smith's New York Racket store, Santa Claus' headquarters.

All the late novels at Clemens.

For The Holiday Baking

There's no flour on the market that can compare with that milled by A. A. Davis. For your Christmas cakes, bread and pastry it is unexcelled, and always gives the utmost satisfaction. Santa Claus will smile at the feast whose good cheer consists of goodies made up from the Davis' Best flour.

A. A. DAVIS.

Wish You a Merry Christmas

Holiday gifts combining artistic merit and rare utility are Scarce. : : :

THE "STANDARD" GRAND.

Fill the bill. It is a beauty, and makes the chain or lock stitch at the will of the operator. It is one of the best gifts possible to make.

For sale by
Joseph Moss,
the Real Estate Agent.

The Chicago Racket Store

Will Give Away 3 Large Dolls

to the three nearest guesses as to how many shot there is in bottle at our store.

We have the finest assortment of Havaland Crockery in town.

Our stock of Dolls are the largest. Albums of all kinds and sizes. Toys—a large assortment.

Doll Heads—bisque and metal.

Celluloid Goods—cuff boxes, handkerchief cases, toilet sets, photo holders, stationery boxes, and numerous other kinds.

Banks' ranges, guns watches, vases and almost anything you want for Xmas presents.

Silk handkerchiefs, slippers, shoes, etc.

Neck-wear—a large assortment.

We have the finest stock to select from.

Call early before our lines are broken.

We have all of our goods marked way down—quality the best.

For Honest Goods at Bargains, Call at

THE CHICAGO RACKET STORE

MARRIED.

AMANN—MCKAY—In this city, Tuesday, Dec. 16, 1902, by Rev. J. W. McDougall, Eugene Amann and Cora M. McKay.

LEVERICH—CORDER—In this city, Tuesday, Dec. 16, 1902, by Rev. J. W. McDougall, P. Leverich and Laura Corder, both of Josephine county.

LEWIS—BARRETT—In Winema, on Dec. 14, 1902, at the home of the bride, Alton H. Lewis and Grace Barrett, both of Josephine county. Dr. Robert Leslie of Grants Pass, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are high in the esteem of all their acquaintances and have many friends to wish them happiness in life.