

VILLAGE LIBRARY.

SOME SUGGESTIONS ON HOW TO CONDUCT ONE.

Of great value if the right kind of books are chosen. Considerable by-laws to start a library upon a right basis.

The village library is growing more and more an indispensable adjunct to American village life, writes E. I. Stevenson in the New York Times. It comes into existence and thrives naturally, almost spontaneously, in the large towns or even in the smaller towns. Intelligence and public sentiment appreciate its work. In the case, however, of the smaller community scattered about our country, where its beneficial functions ought to be exercised on a smaller radius, a library's setting and conducting are more difficult matters. To start it upon a right basis and to see that it conducts its work efficiently the constitution for such an undertaking must be simple, but effective. If that be well framed, it is valuable in taking the place of less formal responsibility among individuals.

Even a small library must be on a practical working basis. Its written constitution must not merely contain rules for its work and the duties of those concerned in the work, but hints that are practical and judicial beyond any such letter of the law.

The writer begs to submit the following constitution, which may be useful to those who would like to set about some such village work even on a very modest footing to begin with, but who are not without ideas of what definite regulations and admissions ought to be included in its outset:

CONSTITUTION OF THE TOWN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Article I. This association shall be incorporated and known as the "Town Free Public Library."
Art. II. Its object shall be the diffusion of useful and otherwise beneficial literature within the community—town, in the case of a town—residents of the place named of proper age, either temporarily or permanently, shall be entitled to the privilege of the library, provided such temporary residents do not remain in the library for more than two weeks, but to the reading room of the library all permanent residents and visitors for even a shorter time than two weeks shall be welcome.

12 Minutes for Lunch.

This is the average time spent in a large city restaurant by three thousand lunchers. It takes three hours to digest a fresh egg soft boiled; three hours to digest a boiled dumpling; three hours to digest a fresh roast beef. In fact, three hours is the time required to digest the average twelve minute lunch. The object of the busy lunch is to let the busy man get back to his office work. But man get back to his office work. The brain is inactive for lack of necessary blood. The natural consequence is indigestion, and indigestion opens the door to many diseases.

Indigestion is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

It is with heartfelt gratitude that I send this testimonial to you, with a public acknowledgment of the benefit which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me. I was suffering with indigestion, and was unable to work half the time. Every thing I tried only gave me temporary relief. My wife finally persuaded me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Pleasant Pellets." I received two boxes of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I then felt so well that I stopped taking medicine. Three months have passed since I can do the heaviest kind of work, can eat anything I desire and enjoy it. I am now 72 years old and this is the first time I have ever felt so well.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps or a payment of mailing only, or 10 stamps for each book volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DYSPEPSIA.

People that have dyspepsia, weak stomachs, weak hearts, weak eyes and generally weak bodies. They feel listless and the world in general has a bluish look to them; they have so many symptoms that it is difficult to locate the place where the trouble lies. The fact is the source from where they get their strength has been cut off and they are sick all over. The food taken into the stomach remains undigested, causing belching and bilious attacks, followed by sick-headache, and general weakness. The medicine that puts the stomach in condition so that the food can be readily digested, will cure dyspepsia, and make strength where there was weakness. We have cured thousands of persons during the past 30 years of dyspepsia, with Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. A 25c box of these pills will cure you of people with poor digestion than six months of dieting or a gallon of pepper. It only takes one for a dose. We will send two of these pills to prove what they will do. Write to Dr. Gunn, Buffalo, N. Y. or send him 25c in cents by mail on receipt of price. Box Dr. Bosanko Co. Phila., Pa.

For reckless daring courage a Dallas man deserves the medal. A few days ago while on the road in Yakima county he looked ahead and saw a team of horses hitched to a buggy in which was a man, his wife and child coming at a breakneck speed, the driver having lost control of the animals. The Dallas man hastily leaped from his car, secured his horse, and as the runaway dashed by seized one of the animals by the bit, leaped upon its back and soon had them under control.—E.
