REV. CONNELL LECTURES
Speaks at Bottineau, N. D., on "Cash and Character."

The Bottineau, N. D., Courant of February 13, has the following comment on a lecture delivered there by Rev. W. G. Connell, who will soon arrive here to take the pastorate of Bethany Presbyterian church in this city:
"W. Gourlay Connell's lecture, 'Cash and Character,' at the Opera house Saturday night was a strong plea in favor of less cash and more character. Mr. Connell is an eloquent speaker and his strong personal magnetism holds his audience from first to last. 'Those who did not hear 'Cash and Character' missed a rare treat. Mr. Connell occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday night and preached a most excellent sermon."

In raising a load of dirt and rock with a windlass, the handle slipped from his grasp, flew around and struck him squarely on the nose, breaking and crushing that feature. He caught the handle and held it, preventing the bucket from falling on the head of the man in the shaft. He is recovering rapidly and no disfigurement will result.

FIGHT ON THE SIDEWALK
Two Business Men Indulge in Lively Set-To.

Quite a lively pugilistic encounter took place on Monday forenoon between two of the business men of Grants Pass: Robert Burns of the City Meat market and Martin Rude, proprietor of the Union restaurant. A meat bill was one of the causes of the fray, but there were other elements of discord to add to the hostility of the occasion. The encounter took place on the sidewalk in front of the meat market and was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic throng of spectators who made no effort whatever to separate the combatants. It was in the forenoon, the marshal was off duty, and the street superintendent was at work, so that there was no police officer to interfere. The men were allowed to fight until they separated themselves, which they did after a time. Neither suffered any serious injury.
