OREGON'S NEW FISH LAW

Close Season Changed and Fishing With Gig Prohibited.

Sec. 4064. It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in Rogue river, and its tributaries, except with rod and line, commonly called angling, from 6 p. m. Saturday to 6 p. m. the Sunday following in any week of any year, or from July 1, to December 31, in any year, east of its confluence with the Illinois river, except for propagation purposes by owners of and employees of hatcheries, or from March 1, to April 1, and from August 15, to September 1, west of its confluence with the Illinois river, or within three miles outside the mouth of said Rogue river from May 1, to August 1.

Sec. 4071. It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in Klamath river or any of its tributaries, above the tide water, at any time by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, or any of their bays or tributaries, below tide water, from 6 p. m. Saturday to 6 p. m. the Sunday following, in any week of the year, or between 6 a. m. on the first day of February and 6 p. m. on the first day of August, or between 6 a. m. on the 30th day of November and 6 p. m. on the 15th day of December.

Sec. 4074. It shall be unlawful to take or fish for the young of salmon, under twelve inches in length, in any waters of the state of Oregon, or in the waters of any of the rivers or bays over which the state of Oregon has concurrent jurisdiction, at any time or in any manner whatever; or to take, fish for, stone, club, shoot, with any description of firearms, spear, foot hook, or molest, wound, kill, or injure, in any manner at any time whatever, or to expose for sale, or have in possession, except for the purpose of propagation, any gravid or spawning salmon.

Sec. 4075. It shall be unlawful at any time whatever, to take, fish for, or pursue salmon in any of the rivers and their tributaries in the state of Oregon, or in any waters over which the state of Oregon has concurrent jurisdiction, with spear, gaff, or foul hook, or other device, whether used with rod and line or otherwise, for the purpose of foul hooking salmon; Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect operations and rights of the North American Indians who have not severed their tribal relations.

Sec. 4076. Any person or persons fishing for taking or catching salmon in violation of this act, or fishing for salmon by leaving or having in any of the waters over which this state has concurrent jurisdiction, or who shall leave or cause to be left, or have or permit any fish, weir, pound net, set net, fish wheel, seine, or any device intended for or which is capable of being used to catch fish in any of said waters, in a condition to take or catch fish, during the close season provided for in this act, or purchasing salmon or unlawfully caught, or having in his or their possession, any salmon so caught, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than $30 or more than $500, and costs for each and every offense. In the prosecution of all actions under any of the provisions of this act the burden of proof shall be upon the defendant to show that the salmon in his or their possession during the above prohibited time, were caught by hook and line. All salmon so unlawfully caught or taken possession of by the fish warden, or his deputies, and shall be by him confiscated and sold at the ruling market price. Any person shall be authorized to purchase the same from the fish warden, and the fish warden shall thereupon deliver to the party purchasing the same a certificate of such sale, and such certificate shall be a complete defense to and prosecution for having in his or their possession such salmon in violation of any of the provisions of this act. The money arising from the sale of such salmon by said fish warden, or his deputies, shall be deposited in the "hatchery fund" for the district in which it was collected.

Sec. 4098. It shall be unlawful for any proprietor or operator of any sawmill in this state, or any employee therein, or any other person, to cast sawdust, planer shavings or other lumber waste made by any lumber manufacturing concern, or suffer or permit such sawdust, shavings or other lumber waste to be thrown or discharged in any manner into any waters flowing into the Pacific Ocean within this state, or the Columbia river, or deposit the same where high waters will take the same into any such waters, or the Columbia river.

Sec. 4098. It shall be the duty of all persons, firms, or corporations, who purchase from fishermen or takers or catchers of fish, for the purpose of selling them again for profit, or who pack, preserve, retail or otherwise deal in fish, to report to the fish warden on or before the 15th day of November of each year, the number of every species of fish, stated separately, so purchased by them during the year ending on said 15th day of November, and if purchased by weight, the number of pounds of each species; and said report shall be accompanied by affidavits to the correctness of the same. Any person, firm or corporation, who fails to neglect, or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 4113. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000, and the costs of the action, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; Provided, in case of fine only that he be imprisoned in the county jail until such fine and costs of action be paid, he shall be credited on such fine and costs the sum of $2 for each day of imprisonment. In all actions for violations of the provisions of this act, one-third of the moneys collected as fines shall be paid to the district attorney, or his deputies, who conduct the action; one-third shall be paid to the informer or prosecuting witness; Provided, such informer or prosecuting witness is not a regularly appointed and salaried fish warden, or salaried deputy warden, the remaining one-third or two-thirds, or all, as the case may be, shall be paid to the Master Fish Warden and by him deposited with the State Treasurer, to be placed in the "hatchery fund" for the district in which said fine was imposed.

HOG RAISING IN OREGON

Wm. Schulmerich Recommends Feeding of Alsike and Rape.

Wm. Schulmerich of Farmington, Ore., writes as follows to W. E. Coman, general freight and passenger agent, S. P. Co., on the subject of the profitable raising of hogs:

I will give my experience in raising and fattening hogs, which has proved to be the most profitable stock I have on the farm at present prices of pork and bacon. I have the hogs that are slaughtered in the fall and winter farrowed in March or April. They are pastured in April, May, June and July on alsike clover. I find alsike preferable to red clover as it is eaten with more relish by hogs and cattle. The end of May or first of June a field is sown to rape. The land should be finely pulverized and 3 pounds of seed sown broadcast per acre. The seed should be harrowed in with a peg tooth harrow and the land rolled or clod-mashed. The rape can be pastured all fall and winter, and the shoats will be in fine condition to fatten.

Last summer I pastured 42 shoats on two acres of rape for two months. The shoats kept in growing condition all the while. This plainly shows the value of rape for hog pasture. I would recommend alsike clover for spring pasture in the Willamette Valley and alsike wherever it can be grown.

Alsike hay has about the same feeding value as wheat bran and makes an excellent winter ration for stock hogs, when run through a feed-churn, with a little skim milk added.

Peas and barley mixed make the best ration for fattening hogs that I have used. Five pecks of each should be sown per acre. They ripen together and can be harvested with a binder, and yield from 40 to 60 bushels per acre.

The year 1901 I kept account with 12 hogs. When put up to fatten they averaged live weight 75 pounds each. They consumed an average each of 450 pounds rolled barley, and 300 pounds skimmed milk in 60 days. When slaughtered they averaged weight dressed 210 pounds. The meat was cured, and the ribs, lard and bacon sold for $204.60. Value of shoats and feed consumed, $95.00. Net income, $109.60, besides the offal. I have gone into detail in this to show what can be done when the product is finished on the farm.

In conclusion I will say that farmers in western Oregon should try the clover and rape for summer feeding and grow peas and barley for fattening hogs. At present we have a market for many more than are produced.

If we increase the production of hogs it will not be long before we have a first-class packing establishment in our midst. Then we will be able to compete with the East in their own domain by furnishing them with a better article than corn fed bacon.

Yours respectfully,

Wm. Schulmerich.

ROAD TO MOUNT REUBEN

Leland Route the Most Feasible. Road Will Be Built.

The mine owners of the Mt. Reuben district are anxious for a wagon road between Mt. Reuben and Leland and have promised, if the county will build the road between Leland and Reuben creek, they themselves will extend the road to the mine. The traffic of the Gold Bug, the Copper State, and other mines of this district is considerable. There has been a road between the Gold Bug and Glendale but the floods of the winter have almost completely demolished it, so that its reconstruction is almost equivalent to building a new road. The Leland route is the best of the two and in the case of most of the mines, the shortest. The ground on this side of the mountain is much better for road construction and an easy grade may be secured. The matter was presented to the county court last week by a committee from the board of trade, who received the assurance that there was $500 appropriated and ready to be used when the people of that district fulfill the conditions proposed.

The body of Chas. H. Butler, who disappeared from Picard in January, has been lately recovered from the Klamath river about a mile below the Shovel creek hot springs. Circumstances point to suicide by drowning.
