For confectionery go to Rotermund. Williams Bros. & Kendall received this week another new boiler for saw mill, with a considerable amount of other machinery which is being hauled out to their saw mill near Wilderville. Have you been fishing yet? If not get an outfit at Cramer Bros. and take a day off with your family. Miss Ellen M. Stone, the mission-ary whose capture by brigands in Macedonia made her world famous, passed through Grants Pass Thursday evening, en route to Portland on a lecture tour. W. J. Wimer of Josephine, J. A. Whitman of Jackson, Geo. E. Baldwin of Klamath and W. J. Moore of Lake will assist Chairman Sam White in his management of the democratic congressional campaign. Hartford Vedette Bicycles 1903 models now on hand at Cramer Bros. The Labor Union will hold an open meeting May 9, in the Court house at 8 o'clock p. m. at which Rev. W. G. Connell will deliver a general address on Social Problems. The public at large is invited to attend. Medford has been considerably annoyed by burglars lately and a number of residences have been entered and robbed. Two men were arrested but as they could not be connected with the robberies they were discharged. New lot of the famous Hartford Thorn tires just received at Cramer Bros. W. Hase & Son, publishers of the Klamath Republican of Klamath Falls, have sold the business to Wesley O. Smith of Klamath Falls, who will continue the same. Dr. J. S. Herndon of Ashland has been appointed to a position on the board of regents of the Southern Oregon State Normal school, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge J. S. Orr, formerly of Klamath Falls. For squirrel poison go to Rotermund. J. M. Booth and John M. Rummell have purchased the insurance business of J. A. George Hartman has been about for the past week with his face in a sling, so to speak, as a result of an accident with a bicycle. While riding at a good rate of speed, his wheel ran against an obstruction and the front forks broke off, throwing George forward on his face, which was very severely cut and bruised in consequence. He is recovering rapidly from his injuries. For Soda water go to Rotermund. The A. O. U. W.'s free entertainment given at the opera house last Wednesday evening was well attended. The entertainment was a very excellent one, consisting mainly of stereoscopic views with a story connecting the pictures and giving them increased interest. The illustrated songs by Rev. G. H. Osborne were greatly enjoyed. Hon. W. M. Colvig and Ralph Feeney gave short and interesting addresses on the excellence of the A. O. U. W. as an insurance order. For sea shells go to Rotermund. The appearance in this city of Norris & Rowe's Big Shows is looked forward to by the amusement lovers with much interest. Each season that the show has visited us, marked improvements and enlargements have been noticed. This season will be no exception to the rule. The growth and improvement of these big moral shows has been nothing short of phenomenal, and the success of the enterprise can be traced to the fact that the show is clean, moral, wholesome, instructive and very amusing. It is, in fact, an entertainment that the most fastidious can witness without having any of his scruples hurt. It is an entertainment that every boy and girl should see, because their budding minds absorb the lessons of what kindness and patience will accomplish, even over dumb brutes. This season the performances will not be confined to trained animals alone, but will include also some of the best circus gymnasts in the country, and a troupe of shiffling Japanese equilibrista and jugglers, and a company of expert cycle whirl riders.
