A. E. VOORHIES, PROPR. & MNGR Entered at the post office at Grants Pass, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1903.

Somewhat of a political sensation was produced in this state by the appointment of E. W. Davis to the registership of the La Grande land office. The Oregon delegation suggested J. W. Knowles for the position, ter in that light. Knowles casts a large portion of the blame for his rejection on Ex-Congressman Moody,

The news was received last week that Vice-Consul Magelsson, at Beirut, Turkey, had been assassinat-Later it was learned that he was not killed but was fired upon. The war ships Brooklyn and San Francisco, that were at Genoa, were immediately ordered to proceed to Beirut. Turkey has been making all sorts of excuses and explanations and seems to view the approach of the war ships with considerable nervousness. The attitude of the government is not changed on learning that the consulwas not killed. The fact that he was fired upon is sufficient and the Turk ish government will be required to square the matter as satisfactorily as

The mine owners and others who have exhibits should not neglect the opportunity offered by the St. Louis and Lewis & Clark fairs. All that is necessary is to get the exhibit to the depot. After that it will be taken care of. Those who have properties which they wish to sell or in which to interest capital for development, may find in these fairs a valuable opportunity for advertising their advantages, as each exhibit should be accompanied by a descrip tion of the property and its condition as regards development and other details. A piece of ore alone is only a piece of ore. Accompanied by description, it becomes representative of its property and is suggestive of it.

The charges of Attorney Parker of Heppner against the relief committee of that town attracted ensiderable attention throughout the state lately. In a letter to his brother, which found its way into publicity, he charged the committee with misappropriating the funds and stated that a large amount of the contributions were unaccounted for. The Heppner committee thereupon made prepara tions for a libel suit but finally de cided to allow the matter to drop if Parker would make a suitable public retraction and apology. Parker has issued a statement admitting that he made the statement on information of imperfect reliability and admits his mistake in so doing. The committee states that its books are open and that every cent received, disbursed, and yet on band, is there so down in black and white,

=A GREAT SNAP= 100 ACRES LAND within 2] miles of Grants Pass with an 8 year old orehard containing 700 winter apples and 100 peach and prune trees; all fenced. The land lays well with just a very gentle slope, but high enough to escape the river fogs. The greater part of the tract is exceeded with an excellent growth of timber for fire wood, and at prevailing high prices is a first class investment for this feature alone. One good crop will much more than pay for the land. A school house is just across the road. Three living springs on the place. This is offered for much less than actual value so if you want a genuine bargain, hurry. Price. $650.00. SIMONS & REASONER, Ashland, Oregon.
