ing. He will save you money. He buys and sells everything of value. He is located in the McArthur building.

C. L. Clevenger.

None of the arts come nearer our homes and affections than does photography. By its means the poor as well as the rich are enabled to preserve the pictured semblance of loved ones and to adorn their walls with pleasing reproductions of the best works of the masters. One of the skilled members of the profession is Mr. C. L. Clevenger of this city. He is a true artist of talent and attainment, and his heart is in his work. He does all kinds of photographic work, including views, mining scenes, animal pictures, commercial work, and in fact, any and all kinds of work pertaining to the art of photography. He has been in business here for five years, and is well and favorably known.

E. A. Edger.

One of the representative business men of this city is Mr. E. A. Edger, the flour and feed man. Mr. Edger has been in business here for the past year, and by fair dealing with customers he has built up a most satisfactory trade. He handles the best brands of flour, and all kinds of mill stuffs, as well as hay and grain. He is prepared to fill large or small orders promptly and at the lowest prevailing prices at all times. He ships in car lots and sells for cash, and gives his customers the benefit of close prices on everything. Get his prices before buying.

I. W. Ryan and Son.

These gentlemen have made the annals here for the past two years. They are workmen of skill and ability, doing a general blacksmith and repair business. They use first class material and every job that leaves their shop is guaranteed to give satisfaction. They make a specialty of horseshoeing and understand their business. The reputation of this firm for first class work is more than local and brings them trade from a distance. While their work is first class in every particular and turned out on time, their charges are most reasonable. Their shop is located on Sixth street, between J and K streets.

F. Fetsch.

Among the business houses of first rank in Grants Pass, a prominent place must be accorded Mr. F. Fetsch, the well known clothier. This gentleman has been in business here for the past 14 years, and by fair and square dealing he has built up a large trade. He carries one of the largest and most complete stocks of ready to wear clothing, gents' furnishings goods and shoes in the city. His stock is well selected and embraces the best weaves and the latest styles and fashions at all times. A fine line of furnishings is carried in stock and Mr. Fetsch makes a point to be strictly up-to-date in every particular, at all times, while his prices are as low as good goods can be sold for. He handles nothing but the best in every line, transacts his business on equitable principles, and customers are assured of getting full value for every dollar expended with him. He makes a specialty of fine tailoring and is in a position to supply customers with the best suitings obtainable, fashioned by the best art known to the tailoring craft.

C. St. Louis.

When you go to buy jewelry, you must to some extent take the word of your jeweler, as to the quality and value of your purchases, as no one not an expert is capable of passing upon the wares of a jeweler. This leads us to say that Mr. C. St. Louis has been engaged in the jewelry business here for the past eight years and his reputation for fair and honorable dealing with customers is well established and brings him trade from a distance. He carries a large and well selected stock of diamonds, watches, and jewelry and his prices are as low as first class goods can be sold for. He is reliable and responsible and all goods purchased from him will prove as represented. Mr. St. Louis is a workman of skill and ability and makes a specialty of fine repair work. He is a leading business man of this city and a prominent citizen.

P. H. Harth & Son.

A leading and reliable firm in the clothing and furnishing goods trade of this city is that of P. H. Harth & Son. They have been engaged in this line of trade here for the past 14 years, and the firm name is familiar to every resident within a trade radius of Grants Pass.

They carry a large and well selected stock and do a wholesale and retail business. Their stock embraces a large and complete assortment of standard grade of mens and boys clothing, to all the newer styles and fashions from the best weaves of this country. Their line of furnishing goods is especially complete and includes all of the latest novelties as soon as they appear upon the market. Their shoe department includes everything new, fine or fashionable in footwear, as the heavier goods for rough wear. A full line of clothing and rubber goods are included, as well as trunks, valises, tents and wagons covers. All goods sold by this firm are sold upon their merit and will prove as represented. The reputation of this firm for fair and honorable dealing is well established and brings them trade from a distance. The members of this firm, P. H. Harth, and his son, Henry are two of the substantial business men of this county. They are public spirited citizens and are always to the front when the best interests of so the city are at stake.

J. E. Peterson.

A better time to profitably invest money in real estate in this section of the country never existed. The country is being developed rapidly and real estate values of all kinds are advancing. A man who is thoroughly posted on the real estate situation in this section of the state is Mr. J. E. Peterson. This gentleman has resided in the county for 15 years and has been engaged in the real estate business here for the past eleven years. He does a general real estate business, buys and sells all classes of property, writes insurance and looks after property for non-residents. He has for sale farming lands, improved ranches, business and residence property in this city, and at prices that are bound to prove good investments for the speculator or homeseeker. Mr. Peterson is well and favorably known here, and all business with him will be liberal and profitable to all concerned.

Trimble & Cook

Blacksmiths are plentiful here, but few, if any, equal Trimble & Cook in knowledge of the business. The firm is composed of James Trimble and D. S. Cook, two well known business men of this city. They are both old timers here, Mr. Cook having made the anvil ring here for 16 years. They have been in business together for the past three years and do the lion's share of the business. They do a general blacksmith and repair business, making a specialty of horse shoeing. They are both workmen of a high order, and use nothing but the best of all kinds of material and all work is fully warranted. These gentlemen are well and favorably known here and have their shop equipped with all modern machinery and appliances needed in their work.

L. J. Perdue & Co.

One of the leading and popular livery barns of this city is that conducted by L. J. Perdue & Co. The personnel of the firm being L. J. Perdue, and E. F. Hayes, and during the years they have been in business here they have built up a large and growing business. They have new rigs and turnouts, fast teams and careful drivers and are in a position to render first class service to the traveling public, while their charges are most reasonable. Farmer teams are fed and cared for at small cost, and every attention given. They pay special attention to commercial travelers and can give first class service at all times. They believe in giving first class service at reasonable prices, and patrons of theirs never have just cause for complaint.

L. G. Higgins

One of the chief requirements of a town surrounded by a mining country is a first class assayer. This leads us to say that Mr. L. G. Higgins is a gentleman with extended experience in this line and makes a specialty of the business. He thoroughly understands assaying of all kinds and his certificates may be depended upon as correct and reliable in all cases. His office is fitted with all necessary appliances for making exhaustive assays, and he will tell you what kind of process is best adapted to a certain ore. He makes examinations and reports on mines, and during the year that he has been in business here he has gained a reputation for straight honest work and is in high favor with the prospector and mine owner.

B. A. Williams.

Among the well known and representative real estate dealers of this city, we wish to direct attention to Mr. B. A. Williams. This gentleman has made his home in this county for 27 years, and is well acquainted with the present and prospective value of real estate, and is in a position to render valuable services to buyer and seller alike. He has a large list of property for sale embracing farm lands, city property, vacant and improved, and at the price asked, cannot fail to prove good investments, as real estate values of all kinds are advancing rapidly. Mr. Williams also locates parties on timber claims or homesteads, knowing all vacant lands in this section of the state. He buys and sells property, rents houses and leases land, writes insurance and furnishes help of all kinds. He is reliable and trustworthy and all business entrusted to him will receive prompt and careful attention.

C. D. Nichols.

The desire to preserve the pictured semblance of loved ones and familiar scenes is as natural as life, and the people of Grants Pass enjoy special facilities in this line by reason of the studio conducted by Mr. C. D. Nichols. This gentleman is a leading artist with years of experience in the business. He has conducted a studio here for the past year and has been most successful. He does all kinds of photographic work, including high class views of mines and other Southern Oregon scenery. He is a gentleman of marked ability and stands at the head of his chosen profession here. His studio is located opposite the court house.

C. D. Smith.

Among the newer business men of this city we will direct special attention to Mr. C. D. Smith, the flour and feed dealer. This gentleman has been engaged in the flour and feed business here for the past four months and has built up a good trade. He carries a large stock of the best brands of flour, feed, hay and grain. His facilities for filling large or small orders promptly are of the best, and he is in a position to quote the lowest possible prices. He ships in car load lots and takes advantage of every discount. Mr. J. J. Perry, until recently associated with Mr. Smith in this business has retired from the firm, Mr. Smith now becoming the sole owner.

R. O. McCroskey.

Among the leading business men of this city, appropriate mention should be made of Mr. R. O. McCroskey, the well known dry goods dealer. This gentleman has been in business here for some 13 years and by applying the golden rule to trade principles he has built up a large and growing business. He occupies commodious quarters, two floors high, filled with an up-to-date line of dry goods, notions, ladies and gents' furnishings goods and a full line of ladies cost, wraps, furs and ready to wear garments. He also handles trunks, valises and umbrellas, and all goods sold by Mr. McCroskey are sold upon merit and will prove as represented. His large and complete assortment allows customers to make suitable selections at all times, and patrons of his may always depend upon getting full value for every dollar expended with Mr. McCroskey.

Drs. M. & E. M. Elwood.

When from advancing age, indolence or other causes, the eyesight becomes impaired, it is well to seek the advice and assistance of a skilled and competent optician. Drs. M. & E. M. Elwood of this city are skilled refracticians, being graduates of Johnson's Optical Institute of Chicago. They located here about one year ago and have built up an extensive business. They make a specialty of optical work and test eyes and fit glasses scientifically. They are equipped with all necessary appliances and delicate instruments used in their profession. They test eyes free of charge and guarantee all work done. They also carry a fine line of jewelry, watches, clocks and silverware, and their prices are as low as good goods can be sold for.

The Demaree Music House.

No home is well furnished without a piano, and the greatest care should be taken in purchasing one necessary and costly a piece of furniture. This leads us to say that the Demaree Music House of Grants Pass, conducted by Mr. R. L. Demaree, has been established here for five months and is here to stay. This house is not only reliable, but responsible, and every instrument sold by them is fully warranted. They carry a large stock of pianos, organs, stringed instruments, sheet music and musical merchandise and their prices are as low as good goods can be sold for. They also handle sewing machines of the leading makes and a full line of supplies of all kinds. They handle such well known makes of pianos as the Knabe, Steck, Ludwig, Hamilton and others. They carry the new talking machine, Zonophone, which is the latest on the market in the line of talking machines, and is far superior to all others.

Mrs. M. P. Anderson.

Ladies who seek the latest creations in millinery should bear in mind the attractive parlors of Mrs. M. P. Anderson. Here will be found an imposing array of ribbons and feathers, hats and bonnets trimmed and untrimmed, all models of taste and beauty, which cannot fail to please. Mrs. Anderson has been engaged in the millinery business here for the past 10 years and her skill and ability is too well known to require comment by us. She is well adapted to her profession and is in close touch with the fashionable centers and preserve the latest novelties as soon as they make their way on the market. She keeps her stock strictly up-to-date and her prices are very reasonable.

W. A. Paddock.

The bicycle has become such an important means of conveyance that the city that has no agency or a repair shop for this twentieth century vehicle is an exception. At the bicycle repair and general repair shop of W. A. Paddock of this city can be had most any of the leading makes of wheels and a full line of supplies of all kinds, and at right prices too. This gentleman conducts an up-to-date repair shop and is equipped with all the tools and appliances necessary in this work. He employs none but skilled help and care is taken that only the most perfect work is turned out, and every job that leaves his shop is marked by the greatest accuracy that skill and care can attain. Mr. Paddock also handles a full line of fishing tackle, sporting goods and talking machines and supplies. When in need of anything in his line, give him a call.

Grants Pass New Water Light & Power Co.

Among the important institutions of this city special mention should be made of the Grants Pass New Water, Light & Power Co. This company was first organized in 1890, and in 1899 it passed into the hands of the present management. They have a modern and complete electric plant for lighting and power purposes, having a capacity of 3000 incandescent lights. They have the alternating current system the best known to science for the distribution of electricity for lighting and power purposes. This company also owns the water works system of this city, and have an ice plant for the manufacture of pure ice. They are prepared to furnish ice to customers in quantities to suit. The water supplied to consumers in this city is exceptionally pure and free from injurious ingredients, and the service of the management is highly satisfactory. Mr. W. H. Halbert is president of the company, C. O. Morgan secretary and R. W. Clark, manager.

Pacific Pine Needle Co.

The manufacturing activities of Grants Pass receive from time to time, valuable accessions in the way of enterprises which further enlarge the trade resources of the city. One of the leading establishments of this kind is that of the Pacific Pine Needle Co., which was incorporated in 1897. This company manufactures a number of products from the pine needle by various processes, which are all covered by patent. This company is the only one engaged in this branch of business in the United States. Their chief product is "Pinosana" and is used in the manufacture of mattresses, pillows and furniture upholstery. It is manufactured from the fine of the pine needle and is superior to any substance used for this purpose by reason of its great softness, cleanliness and durability, besides it possesses high sanitary qualities, as a mattress, pillow or comforter filled with this article drives away fleas and other vermin. Again it imparts the fragrance of the pine tree which is very beneficial to those suffering from rheumatism and pulmonary troubles. The plant is situated with machinery especially designed for the manufacture of the different products placed on the market by this company and cost $25.00 to install it. Other products manufactured by this company are instant, Pine Needle Syrup, Soap, Toilet Waxes, Extracts for baths and cigars. These products are all impregnated with the extract from the pine needle and are of great value. The cigars manufactured by this company are especially designed for the use of athletes and are used by thousands of people with gratifying results. The different remedies and products known as Pacific Pine Needle products, manufactured by this company from the pine needle have all met with great favor wherever introduced and are endorsed by the most eminent physicians of this country and Europe. The company has a factory, a whole sale and retail house in San Francisco and warehouses in Portland, New York and Hamburg, Germany. The enterprise was promoted and brought to perfection by the unceasing efforts of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Corda. Mr. Corda is president and manager of the company, and fully deserves the success attained. M. R. Corda is Secretary of this Company and has aided materially in making the enterprise a success.

Western Hotel.

This city is better than usually supplied with good hotels, but the one we have in mind now is the Western Hotel, conducted by Judge J. O. Booth. Judge Booth has conducted this hotel for eight years and is well and favorably known to the traveling public. The Western Hotel has 33 nice clean rooms, comfortable beds and a table supplied with the best the market affords. Popular prices prevail and it is headquarters for mining men in this section. It is lighted by electricity, and provided with modern conveniences. Mr. Booth gives his personal attention to the details of the business, and greets the new arrival with a cordial welcome and speeds the departing guest on his road with pleasant recollections. Judge Booth was elected to his present position of County Judge of Josephine County one year ago last June and has given eminent satisfaction.

Joseph Moss.

It is an admitted fact that the soundest, safest and most secure investment are those properly placed in real estate. Josephine county and the whole state of Oregon is a most favorable field for investment at the present time, as real estate values are advancing rapidly. In this connection it is eminently proper to refer to the leading real estate dealer in this section of the state. We refer to Mr. Joseph Moss. Mr. Moss has made his home in this county for 20 years, and cellent ten cent cigar, and professional smokers will tell you that their "Stage Line" cannot be beaten for five cent goods. A word to local dealers. This factory, if properly supported, would be an important industry to Grants Pass, and pay out large sums of money for wages and expenses which would stimulate every branch of business. Again, they pay taxes and are a factor in supporting the city, which no foreign made cigar does. Again, their goods are first class and every dealer in the city should see to it that they are properly placed before the public. They manufacture about 15,000 cigars per month at the present time, and ten times as many could be manufactured and consumed here, which would mean ten times the wages now paid. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Galvin & Smith

Elegance and taste combined with good business, are essential to the up-to-date liverman, and the rigs and turnouts of Galvin & Smith are readily recognized by these distinctions. Promptness is also a characteristic of this firm, and teams may be had on a moment's notice day or night. Careful drivers are furnished and every attention is given to the traveling public. Special attention is given commercial travelers and the best rigs and teams in the city are furnished. The firm is composed of Thomas Galvin and W. C. Smith. They have been in business here for two years and are well and favorably known to the traveling public.

International Correspondence School.

Of the many institutions and business enterprises of which we will speak in this edition, none are more worthy of mention than the International Correspondence School, of Scranton, Pa., with branch offices here under the able management of Mr. C. W. Ross, of Grants Pass, Oregon. Truly, this institution supplies a need which has hitherto been felt and sought for in vain by those some five years ago he engaged in the real estate business. He does a general real estate business, buys and sells property, makes collections, writes insurance and does all other business coming under the scope of legitimate real estate transactions. He has for sale a large list of property including city property, farm lands and ranches, timber lands, etc. He is reliable and responsible and all business with him will be attended to promptly. Mr. Moss is a foremost business man and an enterprising citizen, always to the front when the best interests of the city are at stake.

Charles H. Parker.

A recent addition to the business directory of this city is that of Charles H. Parker, dealer in new and second hand goods. This gentleman commenced business here about three months ago and has built up a most satisfactory business. He carries a large and complete stock of new and second hand furniture, stoves, ranges and house furnishings goods of all kinds, and his prices talk out loud. Mr. Parker buys all kinds of second hand goods of value and pays the cash for them. If you want to buy or sell, see Parker. He will save you money.

Curtis & Co.

In this review of the business houses of this city, we wish to direct attention to Curtis & Company, the jewelers. This company has been in business here for the past two years and the reputation of the company for fair and square dealings with customers is more than local. They carry a large and well selected stock of jewelry, watches and silverware, and their prices are as low as the best can be sold for. Mr. J. G. Curtis, the head of the firm, is a workman of skill and ability, and during the time he has been in business here he has gained a reputation for fine repairing that is more than local and brings him trade from a distance. Repairing is done promptly and at reasonable prices. Curtis & Company can be safely recommended to the favorable consideration of the buying public.

Grants Pass Cigar Factory.

To the man who smokes, a good cigar is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. To such men, and they are legion, we desire to direct attention to the cigars manufactured by the Grants Pass Cigar Factory. This factory was established some eight years ago, and about 15 months ago it passed into the hands of the present proprietors, J. V. Schmidt and S. Soumefeld. They use nothing but the best of tobaccos and manufacture honest goods, and as the reputation of their goods became better known, they gradually made their way into new territory. Their brand "Four 8's" is an excellent ten cent cigar, and professional smokers will tell you that their "Stage Line" cannot be beaten for five cent goods. A word to local dealers. This factory, if properly supported, would be an important industry to Grants Pass, and pay out large sums of money for wages and expenses which would stimulate every branch of business. Again, they pay taxes and are a factor in supporting the city, which no foreign made cigar does. Again, their goods are first class and every dealer in the city should see to it that they are properly placed before the public. They manufacture about 15,000 cigars per month at the present time, and ten times as many could be manufactured and consumed here, which would mean ten times the wages now paid. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Calvin Welch.

For four years the name of Calvin Welch has stood at the head of the clothing trade of this city. His name, goods and honorable methods of doing business are familiar to every resident within a trade radius of this city. Mr. Welch carries a large and complete stock of clothing of the latest styles and best weaves, and a full line of gents' furnishings goods of all kind and his prices are as low as good goods can be sold for. His stock of shoes is especially complete and embraces all of the new styles and shapes, and every shoe sold by him is warranted to prove as represented. His line of hats embraces the latest shapes and styles and includes the standard makes, while his prices defy competitive comparison. Mr. Welch is a foremost business man of this city and an enterprising citizen, well and favorably known all over this section of the county.

G. H. and H. G. Co., Inc.

One of the leading mercantile establishments of this city is that of the G. H. & H. G. Company, Inc., White-Hemenway Co., managers. This company has been in business here since last July and by fair and honorable dealing with customers, have built up a large and growing trade.

They carry a large and well selected stock of general merchandise and do a wholesale and retail business. They buy in large quantities and take advantage of every discount which enables them to sell for less than competitors who do not enjoy equal advantages. Their stock includes dry goods, notions, furnishing goods, clothing, staple and feed, fancy groceries, fruits, flour, hay and provisions. They make a specialty of groceries and miners' supplies, and are in a position to offer the very best of everything at the lowest prices. In their shoe department will be found all the latest styles and shapes as well as the heavier goods for hard service. This store can be safely recommended to the favorable consideration of the buying public.

Hornung and Dupuy.

A well patronized store of this city is the ice cream and confectionery store conducted by Hornung & Dupuy. This firm is composed of Herman Hornung and D. M. Dupuy, and they have been identified with the business interests of Grants Pass for some five years. They manufacture a very superior ice cream, and do a wholesale and retail business, and besides supplying a large local demand ship to outside points in large quantities. They also sell cream, milk and a full line of dairy products. They also do a wholesale and retail business in confectionery, fruits, nuts, cigars and tobacco, being agents for Lowrey's and Gauthers' chocolates and bonbons.

M. Clemens.
The public has a right to demand that the drug business be conducted by the most capable representatives. The accuracy of compounding medicines is as important as the prescribing of the right kind of medicines. This leads us to say that Mr. M. Clemens has been in the drug business here for the past ten years, and is a pharmacist with years of experience and his efficiency in this line is well known. He carries a large and complete stock of pure drugs and chemicals, toilet articles, sundries and the thousand and one things usually carried by all first class drug stores. Liberal dealing, personal competency and close attention to the wants of the trade are among the extensive patronage enjoyed.

National Drug Store.

One of the pioneer business houses of this city is that of the National Drug Store, which was established some 14 years ago. It is now conducted by Judge J. O. Booth, assigned. They carry a large and complete stock of drugs, chemicals, proprietary medicines, sundries, stationery, toilet articles and rubber goods. The prescription department is under the supervision of graduates and registered pharmacists and nothing but the purest of ingredients are used. The stock is especially complete and is constantly replenished with all the representations of pharmacopoeia. No questionable goods are handled and all drugs and ingredients used for their freshness and purity.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's cough remedy cures colds and grip, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.
