THURSDAY, Dec. 10, 1903.

Strikes are expensive to both sides. The recent Chicago railway strike cost the Company $50,000 in receipts, and the strikers lost $50,000 in wages. The expense to the general public has not yet been figured up.

A difference of opinion regarding wages between the members of the Restaurant Keepers Association of San Francisco, and the waiters and cooks, is responsible for a hungry feeling that is prevalent with restaurant patrons. An early adjustment of wages is looked for.

"Cut out your booze or get your time" is the way the railroad men translate the new order which is reported to have been issued from the office of the president of the Northern Pacific. No copy of the proclamation has yet been received, but official notice is expected shortly. January 1, 1904, is the date set for this new condition to become general. Not only is liquid refreshment of an intoxicating nature barred from Northern Pacific employes during working hours, but even the "social glass" when off duty is denied.

Secretary of War Root makes his annual report as follows: "On December 1, 1902, the Army of the United States, according to the latest reports which had been received from the military departments, consisted of 205,000 officers and 66,000 enlisted men, a total of 271,000. In addition there were in the service 3,000 men of the Hospital corps, excluded by the act of March 1, 1887, from classification as part of the enlisted force of the Army. There were also in the service 193 volunteer medical officers, 100 officers and 1,878 enlisted men of the Philippine scouts, and 29 officers and 40 enlisted men of the Porto Rico regiment."

FIFTY SHIVERING HOBOS

Arrived in Town Tuesday and 30 Leave on Same Train.

The annual southward migration of the break beam tourists is now at its height. Tuesday there were about 30 in town, but they pulled out on the night freight. This same freight, however brought in about 50 half frozen mortals, who had come from Roseburg.

The Roseburg authorities lined them up, marched them to the depot, and told them to pile on the outgoing freight. This they did and rode on the outside to this place. They were soon thawed out and as good as ever except that they were hungry. The marshal refused to purchase provisions for them and they subsisted on "hand outs." The majority of them left on the night freight south. These men are not all professionals—some are willing to work, but have been unable to find it.

RELICS OF EARLY DAYS

Exhumed From Indian Grave on Rogue River.

Edgar and Warren Halbert, sons of A. N. Hulbert of Sams Valley, some time ago located an old Indian grave on the banks of Rogue river, near the mouth of the valley and last week they went on a tour of investigation. The spot was soon found and they went to work. At a depth of five feet they came upon the bones of a human skeleton—more digging and the shovel struck against a hard, metallic substance. This proved to be an old Dutch oven, large and heavy, covered with a heavy copper lid. Removing the lid, the boys came upon the earthly treasures of a Redskin, who, years before had gone to the happy hunting ground. There was a display of beads that must have made its former possessor the envy of his tribe. Twenty-four big silver dollars—each with a hole punched through the center and all strung on a beakskin thong, were discovered. These were Mexican, Peruvian, and Spanish coins, dating from 1830 to 1846. They were tarnished and discolored from their long years of burial. There was a quantity of Wampum or Indian shell money, copper ornaments of Indian make, two pebbles of stone, one with an ornamental handle, a large cleaver and big disk, both rusty with age, and an iron hook or snitch, from a pack saddle. A most gruesome find was a mat of human hair—a scalp lock taken, perhaps, from the owner of the Dutch oven and the pack saddle—a hairy pioneer who came west in the early days and was never heard of more—the only clue to an unwritten tragedy.

The spot where the grave was located is within sight of the historic Table Rock and the scene of fierce battles between the redskins and the whites.

For lack accommodations from Merlin to Galice and other points, call on J. R. McCalliard, who will mail trains No. 12 and 15 if notified by wire or mail beforehand.

A street light as ordered placed at the corner of Maine and Oak streets and the light on G street between Seventh and Eighth was ordered removed to the corner of G and Seventh streets.

The resignation of John Leckhardt, as marshal, was tendered and accepted and J. D. Stevens was appointed and confirmed as marshal to fill the vacancy.

The following bills were allowed:

A deed to the Salvation Army for lot 7, block 47 in the original Townsite, was ordered made, pursuant to a resolution of the Council passed in 1900.

Saloon bonds of C. E. Smith approved.
An ordinance granting franchise to J. O. Booth for gas works was amended, read the third time and passed.

The council held a special meeting Friday evening to consider the proposition of renting the hall over the hose room to the American Athletic club, who had made application for the room. After some deliberation it was decided to rent the hall for $2.50 per month. The hall was used for a gymnasium. Councilman Bacher was appointed to have charge of the matter.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS.

A regular meeting of the Grants Pass Woman's Club was held in the parlors of the Presbyterian church, last Saturday afternoon. Much business of importance was considered by the ladies.
The following bills were allowed, and a motion made that an order be drawn on the treasurer for the respective amounts:
Literary department, expense of the Howe lecture, $11.
Art department, $7.
Musical department, $10.
Needs work department, $10.
Mrs. Robt. Booth, $5 for the prize window box.

The matter of Miss Ethel Palmer giving a piano recital, under the auspices of the club was considered. It was the voice of the club that the recital be given, and a committee of arrangements was appointed by the president. It was decided that all receipts, above expenses, be given Miss Palmer.

A proposition considered some time ago was brought up for final settlement, and it was agreed that the words "religion, politics and temperance" be stricken from the constitution, leaving the club free to consider matters.

The ladies of the club will keep "open house" to their husbands and gentlemen friends on New Year's day from 3 till 9 p. m. The arrangements for the reception were left with a committee.

Vacancies in the two departments, Home and Household Economics, and Physical Culture, for the positions of superintendent, were filled. Mrs. Hildreth was appointed to the former, and Mrs. Hemenway to the latter.

Mrs. Robert Booth gave an interesting report of the work being done by the Philanthropic departments of other state clubs, and desires that the Grants Pass club take up similar work.

Leland Siftings.

Stock on the range is doing well. Our market is good for all kinds of farm products.
Claude Wright from Merlin made our burg a call last week.
Mr. Phillips of the Hotel Leland is making some improvements in connection with his hotel.
The recent frosts have injured the blackberries, which were in all stages—some in bloom, others green, and still others nearly ripe.
Our town keeps on hand for its customers, anything that is required. We have a good blacksmith who is always ready to serve his customers.
Our people are moving about so fast that it is useless to try to keep track of them. Farmers are taking advantage of the dry weather in doing their farming.
This vicinity has afforded two butchers, who have done a good business, using the beef that has been produced here. A person who has anything to sell can find a ready market.
Business is good here. The stores are doing a good business. Miss Hall is called upon to help in the Virtue & Makin store, when business is roaring, and she is very efficient and always ready to wait on the many customers. She is a very affable and obliging young lady.
At present the nights are quite frosty, although the days are nice and warm. People are plowing and putting in their grain. The frosty nights have a tendency to cut off the water supply for the miners, although some miners will have plenty of water that comes from Grave creek.
Timber buyers from Washington are here looking over our timber. What we need most is desirable immigration to settle our country. A good many desirable tracts of land are for sale in this vicinity. There is also lots of railroad land that could be made into good homes of as our climate is second to none, and crops of all kinds can be raised without irrigation, although with water, the crops are larger. In regard to health, this country cannot be excelled; no fever or ague, no mosquitoes, no rain, but little wind. We have well established schools. People who contemplate moving to this location will have the benefit of good schools.
The roads are in a bad condition on account of so much heavy hauling to the mines. Wide Awake.
Music stands, exceptional values—Thomas'.

I. O. O. F. Notice.

A special meeting of Golden Rule Lodge No. 78 I. O. O. F. is hereby called on Tuesday, December 15 at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of meeting the Grand Master. All members and visiting brothers are requested to be present.

City Election.

Monday was election day in Grants Pass, but it would not have been evident to an outsider that there was anything unusual happening. The day passed quietly, but there was carried work done in bringing voters to the polls. The principal interest centering in the election of mayor. There were 473 votes cast. Mr. Gilkey receiving 207, giving him a majority of 141. The vote stands as follows:

WARD 1 2 3 4 5

Mayor-Elect H. C. Gilkey is a native of Maine, but came to the Coast in 1873, when a lad of 7 years. For 22 years he lived in Western Washington, at one time being a resident of Seattle and later of Montesano, where he had an interest in the Bank of Montesano and for six years he was cashier of that bank.

Nine years ago, Mr. Gilkey came to Oregon, locating in Medford, Oregon. Three years ago he came to Grants Pass to accept a similar position in the First National Bank of Southern Oregon.

Mr. Gilkey is a republican and while in Montesano, he served for three terms on the city council and at Medford served two terms as mayor. Politics are not considered in the municipal elections in Grants Pass, Mr. Gilkey being nominated because of his business ability and firm stand on the question of strict observance of law by all classes of business—alcoholist as well as merchant.

Notice is hereby given that the District Boundary Board of Josephine County, Oregon, will meet in the court house in the afternoon on January 7, 1904 to act on a petition now on file to change the boundary lines of school district No. 28 and No. 7, so as to include the following described territory in school district No. 7, of Josephine County:

Commencing at the point where the center line of Sec. 19, Township 26 North, Range 5 West of Willamette Meridian, touches Rogue River thence running south on said line to the corner in the center of section 29 of same township and range thence east one mile to the center of Sec. 29, thence North on the line in the center of sections 29 and 30 to Rogue River, thence westerly down the bank of said river to the place of beginning.

Burglary Wednesday Night.

Some one with an uncontrollable desire for a gun, broke a pane of glass in the front of C. H. Parker's second hand store on Sixth street, Wednesday night and stole a big Colt's revolver that had been displayed in the window. The chase was broken with a big oak stick, which was left on the sidewalk. No other articles were missing and there is no clue to the thief.
