THURSDAY, Jan. 14, 1904.

John Alexander Dowie, the famous "Elijsh," has returned from a trip of "Zion" will have sufficient lumabitants.

Affairs in the Russin-Japan quarrel seem to be nearing a crisis at last, prising Bohemia and Blue River, for plete.-Telegram. I have never been there, and, there and unless something unforescen ocfore, am personally ignorant of the curs immediately, war will be declarconditions; but I incline to the beed. Russia is now concentrating lief that Northern California, from forces on the Yalu river and is making all possible precautions to fore Oregon, from Lane County south, stalt a possible rush on Port Arthur by the Japanese. Last week General Longstreet pass ed away, and this work is recorded country. On the other hand, there the death of General John B. Gerdon, are also streams in Josephine county Photo Supplies at the Courier ofthe very last of the famous cou federate generals. He entered the not especially precipitons. Shelley A U Bannard-Undertaker service as a captain of infantry and rose to the high rank of licutemant general. Since the war he has twice served as presidential elector, was governor of Georgia for four years and served 12 years in the United States senate. His death occurred on January 9, and the immediate cause was stomach trouble. He was 71 years of age.

General Rafael Reyes, the Colom bian special envoy now in Washing ton, has despaired of persuading the United States government to take any backward steps in the Pasama affair and is now ready to leave Washintgon. General Reves says that the feeling in Colombia is quite in tense and that it will be difficult to restrain the people when the failure of his mission is announced. It seem to be the international feeling that the Panama matter is too important to be controlled by a foolish little nation like Colombia.
