Can furnish work in Scotch, Swede or American Granite or any kind of marble.

Cured Consumption. Mrs. R. W. Evans, Charwater, writes: "My husband lay sick three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That is six years ago and since then we always kept a bottle in the house. For coughs and colds it has equalled 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at every Drug Co."

OUR PERSONAL COLUMN

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

Dr. Moore visited San Francisco last week. Dick Patrick and John McArthur were at Leland last week. Fred Miller has been visiting during the week in Medford.

Attorney H. D. Norton was in Medford Friday on a professional visit. Mrs. C. W. Boulware left Saturday for Roseburg to take up her residence. C. P. Dixon came up from Legna, Cal., on Saturday to spend a few days on business.

Mrs. Moore, of Salem, is visiting in Grants Pass, the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Hale.

Myron Harrison, the well known miner of this county, is now employed at the Sterling mine.

O. L. Danlap of Salem is now first truck operator at the depot, J. H. Morrison having gone to Red Bluff.

R. E. Guthridge left Thursday for Roseburg where he is working in the interest of the Lincoln Annuity Union.

Mrs. Blanche Burnett has returned to Medford after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hoyt.

Miss Hattie Telford returned last Thursday from Coletina, where she spent two weeks visiting her brother and family.

Bookkeeper Gray returned last Thursday after assisting in the Roseburg bank for a few weeks and is now at work in the First National Bank.

Foreman Brown of the Bourke placer near Holland, who measured the rainfall, says that at that place 22 inches of rain fell in 23 days in February.

L. R. Croissant and Frank McFarlane returned on Friday from Ashland where they have been putting in the season "rolling headders" in the Bourke placers.

C. H. McElung is in town after spending the winter working in Del Norte county. He expects to return when the work opens up again. Everything at present is nearly floating.

Miss Ada Ketchum of Ashland arrived Monday to assist Miss Ida Weston in the millinery store. Miss Ketchum has been a trimmer with the Hargrove sisters at Ashland for some time.

M. W. Steel and family have moved to Medford from Grants Pass. The move to Medford at this time is made especially because of the poor health of Mr. Steel's father, who resides in Medford.

Ed. Tynan, the Southern Pacific conductor, has recently gone to San Francisco to take treatment for rheumatism. He has been suffering from this complaint for some time at his home in Ashland.

E. F. Meisner, voluntary weather observer at Kerby, reports a total rainfall at that place, in February, of 30.85 inches. He says the rainfall in the corresponding month in 1903 was 8 inches and in 1902, 29.75.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Anderson of Langely, Kan., arrived in Grants Pass Wednesday and will spend some time visiting at the home of their son, Wm. Anderson. They were accompanied by Earl Young, also of Langely.

A. W. Coleman arrived here last week from Proget Sound in the hope that a change of climate would benefit his health. The excessive rain of last week made him feel perfectly at home, although it was not what he had hoped to find.

Mrs. Eva Hill Young arrived on Wednesday morning from Alaska where she has been living during the past two years, and will spend some months visiting at the home of her parents near Mariposa. Mrs. Young is a former Josephine county teacher and her many friends are extremely glad to welcome her again from the land of ice and snow.

W. E. Mallory, vice-president of the Lincoln Annuity Union, spent Friday and Saturday in Roseburg where he instituted an assembly of that order. Mr. Mallory says the order of Pendo at that place have received their charter and supplies to the supreme council in San Francisco and that Pendo members are turning to the Lincoln Annuity Union.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Interesting Session Held Saturday Afternoon.

A regular meeting of the Grants Pass Women's Club was held last Saturday afternoon in the parlors of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Robert Booth, in her report for the philanthropic department, recommended that the club give a Sacka-wa entertainment to raise the $50 which has been appropriated the Grants Pass club by the Lewis and Clark Committee. The entertainment was considered and a motion to have it was carried unanimously.

Mrs. McCroskey's resignation as superintendent of the needlework department was accepted and Mrs. Mutch elected to fill the vacancy. A calendar committee, composed of the superintendents of the various departments was appointed to outline the next year's club work.

Mrs. Goodnow suggested that the club give a flower show, and this matter was left in the hands of a committee, who is to report at the next regular meeting.

A proposition considered sometime ago was brought up for final settlement, and it was voted to amend the constitution by requiring the secretary and treasurer to give $500 bonds. After a five-minute recess the following program, given by the music department, was greatly enjoyed:

Piano duet—selected. Mrs. Wilson, Miss Luma Current events. Mrs. Barnes Ballad—"Astoria." Mrs. Barnes Folk-song—"Old Folks at Home."

The Carol Quartette Scotch Ballad. Miss Parker Paper—"Ballads and Folk-songs."

Balad—selected. Mrs. Clark Folk-song—"My Old Kentucky Home."

Mrs. Hale and class. Mrs. D. H. Shovall, Reporter.

EULA HOWARD PRAISED

For Excellency in Piano Work in San Francisco.

Miss Eula Howard, who gave a recital in Steinway hall, San Francisco, February 25, has made for herself a prominent place among the musicians of the Bay city if we may judge from the press notices, all of which speak of her in the highest of terms. We take pleasure in quoting from a number of the San Francisco papers:

Bulletin—"Miss Eula Howard astonished and delighted a large audience at Steinway hall Thursday. Miss Howard is a young girl whose home is in Grants Pass, Or. A year and a half ago all her dreams of what music might be were evolved from her own consciousness, for she had received only the most primitive sort of instruction and had never heard anyone play the piano better than she could herself. Now she has had 10 months of enlightened instruction, has listened (with a pleasure that is given to few mortals) to music as interpreted by artists, and has applied herself so diligently to the work she has chosen for herself, that she is able to rouse a remarkable enthusiasm whenever she plays at any concert. Her playing is called 'original,' her expression is beautiful and delicate. Here technique is chiefly noticeable for the finger-work, which is marvelously dainty, delicate and perfect. She was repeatedly cheered by her enthusiastic audience."

"Two numbers on the program which the audience especially enjoyed and which were repeated were 'The Lieblich dich,' by Grieg, and 'The Lady of Shalott,' by Albert Elkus. The latter appealed strongly to the audience, Miss Howard playing it most charmingly."

"By her delightful interpretation of art and her devotion to it, as well as by her sunny personality, little Miss Howard has endeared herself to a large circle of friends in San Francisco. She is a dear and beloved member of the Mansfield Club, named for her instructor, Hugo Mansfield, and the other members of that organization acted as ushers and attendants at this recital."

Chronicle—"Miss Eula Howard, a young girl pianist of unusual promise, was presented to the public last evening in concert by her instructor, Hugo Mansfield, at Steinway Hall. This attractive little maid rendered a programme of difficult compositions of varied moods not only with careful and notable technique, but with powers of interpretation seldom found in a musician of her age. The opening number, Schumann's 'Davidsbündlerchen,' was one of such entirely distinct movements as showed at once the young artist's power of expression."

"One of the most interesting and dainty musical bits on the programme was Albert I. Elkus' 'Lady of Shalott,' suggested by Tennyson's poem. It was full of dreamy suggestion and the sentimental romance in melody so charmed the audience and was so gracefully and lightly played by Miss Howard, that composition and pianist were encored."

Town Talk—"On Thursday evening, February 25, Mr. Hugo Mansfield presented his young pupil, Eula Howard, in a piano recital at Steinway hall. It is less than two years since Miss Howard came to San Francisco from Grants Pass, Oregon, and pursue her musical studies, and her progress has been truly remarkable. Her technical achievements alone are sufficient to arouse enthusiasm, but the greatest charm of her playing consists in a rare and beautiful individuality that lends an indescribable pianquity to her rendition of certain compositions, as for instance the 'Davidsbündlerchen' of Schumann, her playing of which is something of a masterpiece of De Pachmann, the only pianist who has played the composition in San Francisco."

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

Little Girl Badly Burned—Boy Kicked by Horse.

The little five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Smith was very badly burned on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Smith was at a store house some 50 feet distant from the dwelling where the child was playing on the floor. The little one's dress in some way was ignited from the fire in the room. Attracted by the child's screams, the mother rushed to the rescue but the child was terribly burned about the limbs and lower part of the body before the fire could be smothered. Her present condition is serious. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are residents of Provoit, where he is postmaster. The accident occurred in this city.

Richard, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Meade, was the central figure Sunday evening in an accident that might easily have been more serious than it was. He went out of the house and in a very few minutes sounds of woe attracted the attention of his mother. She met him returning to the house with face covered with blood from a gash on his forehead, caused by a kick from a horse. Upon being questioned, he admitted that he had pulled the horse's tail and pulled it hard. The cut was quite a bad one but fortunately there was no injury to the skull.

Lumber Firm Changes.

The S. P. D. & L. Co. factory and all the Booth Kelly interests in Grants Pass changed hands March 1st, the new owners being the California Pine Box & Lumber Co. This company is one of the biggest lumbering concerns on the coast and has mills in different parts of California. The Grants Pass factory will be under the management of I. A. Robie and there will be no change in the running of the factory. Everything will be conducted as heretofore and the same force will be employed. The Curtis company contract will also stand as with the old owners.

The factory started up Monday for a continuous run.

The Galice Consolidated Mines Co. has declared a dividend of half a cent per share and announces that hereafter dividends will be issued on the first of each month as the output warrants. The company has three quartz work on Galice creek and the clean-ups are very satisfactory. Manager A. B. Ocasio has recently returned from the east and is now at Galice.

Considering the amount of development work necessary and which has been accomplished, this property has made a remarkably fine showing in reaching the dividend paying stage so quickly, and at so small a sacrifice to the treasury reserve. Besides taking in great quantities of property, it is undoubtedly one of the best managed mines in Southern Oregon.

Government Timber Land. It seems to be a general idea among the people that all the valuable government land in Oregon has been taken. Such is not the case, as I can show you 28 quarter sections of government land that will cut from three to six million feet per each quarter of Sugar and Yellow Pine, Cedar and Oregon Pine, in very desirable locations for timber claims and home-steads, close to town and the railroad, with good roads leading to them. If you intend taking a timber claim or homestead, first let me show you some claims and then before filing, go and see what others will show you. I want you to get all the timber and in the best location that you can for your money. Maps and pamphlets furnished on application. My location fee is $135—W. B. Sherman, Rooms 10 and 12 Masonic Temple, Grants Pass, Ore. Long distance phone 731.

MARCH AT The Sugar Pine Store. A Little Chat With Our Customers. Do you want to know all about the new shirt waists? Just how to make and finish them, all sorts of new ideas in trimming and decoration, in fact, the very latest up-to-date wrinkles in this deservedly popular and necessary garment? Then be sure to read the April issue of McCall's Magazine, which will contain a lesson in dress-making on this very subject, as well as all sorts of timely and useful information, making this number invaluable to the woman who does her own sewing. Do you want to look as pretty as you can this spring? Remember to get the April McCall's, because it will contain illustrations of all the smartest and loveliest of the new spring fashions in dresses, coats and wraps, as well as charmingly stylish designs for little girls and boys. The spring and summer millinery is fascinating. This number will have photographs of Paris hats on living models—the prettiest girls we could pick out for this purpose—which will show you exactly how the shapes will look when worn. This year Easter comes in April, you know. So our April number is to be an Easter Number as well, and we are going to try to make it a record-breaker. "Quaint and Curious Lutes and Easter Customs in Old Mexico," have been described for us by a well-known young literary woman who spent last Easter there with a camera getting interesting photographs, which we have used to illustrate the article. Then there are also directions for Easter cooking and for making Easter eggs, and stories and poems appropriate to the season. A spiky interview with a great opera singer will give you an insight into the wonderful life of a prima-donna, while something absolutely new in the way of a children's department will form a delightful feature for the little ones of your household. These are but a few of the dishes selected at random from the table of contents, which we intend to set before you in our Easter Number. Remember all goods that need it will be steam sponged and shrunk free of charge if bought of us. The Easter number of McCall's Magazine will be given away with a purchase of $1.00 worth of dry goods; a year's subscription with $5.00 worth of shoes or dry goods, or both combined. You will notice the chance to get this most useful and entertaining Magazine, Free, for a month or a year. THE SUGAR PINE STORE.
