

Easter Day

Sunday, April 3, 1904

We hope it will prove to be the advent of Sprig and beautiful Spring weather.

It is now seed time and soon will come the harvest. Don't buy old seed for late planting. Owing to the lateness of the season you require seed that will germinate quickly and make a rapid growth.

We do not claim to have Specially Prepared Seed, but all our seeds are NEW and we think they will grow.
Have plenty of Flower Seeds this season—All kinds of Sweet Peas in bulk; Native Morning Glory seed, etc.
Onion Sets—White or Yellow Danvers 10c per pound. Early Peas and Beans in bulk.

OUR PERSONAL COLUMN

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

Judge Booth visited Portland last week.
Mrs. Clarence Prescott of Ashland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Prescott of this place.
Mrs. G. W. Cotvick is suffering from a sprained hip, the result of a fall on the walk at her home.
Arthur Fryer is now a member of the Norris & Rowe's show band. He left for the south last week to join the show.

Wm. Alfred and E. P. Cheshire attended the state gathering of K. O. T. M. at Portland last week, as delegates from the Grants Pass lodge.

Superintendent Savage visited the Savage & Miller place near Miller creek near Davidson last week and spent a few days hunting boulders.

George Trimble fell from a car at Glendale last Wednesday, and a broken leg is the result. He was taken to the company's hospital at Portland Thursday.

A. B. Rintoul, district representative of the Equitable Life Insurance Company, is doing business for the company here. He will probably locate in Grants Pass.

Mrs. Odie Kame returned to Medford last Thursday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Nate Bates for several weeks. Mrs. Bates also went to Medford to visit her parents.

John W. Howard returned to Grants Pass last week after spending several months with Mrs. Howard and Miss Eola at San Francisco. Mr. Howard has gone to Ketchikan to look after his business interests.

Mrs. J. M. Kitchin of Stayton spent a few days in Grants Pass this week visiting with relatives and friends, on her return from Tucson Springs, Cal., where she has spent several weeks. She went to Glendale Wednesday evening and will visit there for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. F. R. Bowersox.

Mrs. Mae R. Hoyt, who went as a representative for Placer Hivo No. 51, to the State Convention of the L. O. O. P. Temple, Portland, last week, returned home on Friday's train, some five hours late. She reports having had a most successful and enjoyable time, the session terminating in a classed initiation and also with a banquet.

Dr. J. C. Smith has purchased a drug store in Grants Pass and left for that place Thursday, accompanied by his daughter Hazel. Mrs. Smith will follow about the first of April. Our people will much regret to lose this estimable family from our city, but will wish them the best of fortune in their new home. The people of Grants Pass will find the Dr. a competent and accommodating druggist and a man in every respect, worthy of their confidence and patronage.—Jefferson Review.

Henry Croissant broke his arm on Friday in a way that emphasizes the saying that we are in danger wherever you go. In attempting to jump across a little creek, only a few feet wide, on a street, his feet slipped on the ground, which was covered with water and he fell. He threw his left hand to back check his fall and broke the arm near the wrist. Hank says he has fallen in the same way probably a thousand times in the course of his life, without any disastrous effect, but in this case the arm happened to be in just the proper position to be broken by the force of the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Deamore and Waldo Greene went to Greenback Friday to furnish music for a dance which was given there on that evening. The trade, Mr. Deamore reports, are in a fearful condition. The road through the granite district north of town is badly washed and cut out. The Loose creek bridge is a wreck and lies broken backed in the creek with a big pile of boulders holding it down. The east approach of the Grave creek bridge has severed its connection with the bank and its support is undermined. Light teams, however, manage to drive on and teter perilously across.

Milinery Opening.

Mrs. M. P. Anderson will hold her spring opening of milinery on Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2. A large assortment of trimmed hats in the latest designs will be on display.

BORN.

McKIMMENS—In this city, Wednesday, March 28, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. McKimmens, a son.

INSTITUTE A WIGWAM

Improved Order of Red Men Organize.

Takilma Wigwam, No. 29 of the Improved Order of Red Men was instituted in Grants Pass Monday evening by G. M. Orton of Portland, Great Sachem of the Great Council of Oregon and J. H. Howard of Oregon City, deputy organizer. The lodge starts out with a charter list of nearly 40 members with a probable membership much larger.

Officers were elected as follows: Sachem, E. G. Smith. Sr. Sagamore, R. M. Eberle. Jr. Sagamore, Geo. Slover. Prophet, G. W. Finch. Chief of Records, O. A. Thomas. Keeper of Wampum, W. O. Harmon. 1st. Sanop, A. D. Knight. 2d. Sanop, E. J. Sims. Guard of Wigwam, S. J. Taylor. Guard of Forest, J. H. Colby. Warriors, J. B. Eberle, E. F. Hannum, Jos. Wolke and H. W. May. Braves, J. O. Gibson, A. C. Brown, F. E. Miles, J. B. Phillips.

After the election officers were installed by the Great Sachem and Acting Great Mishenewa, W. H. Hampton. The next meeting will be held in W. O. W. hall on Friday evening.

Easter Services.

At the Presbyterian church Easter Sunday, communion service will be held in the morning. In the afternoon Knight Templars' service will be held with sermon by Rev. W. G. Connell. Special music will be rendered by the choir. In the evening an Easter concert program will be given by the Sunday school.

The most elaborate preparations for some years is being made at the Newman M. E. church for Easter services. Subject for the morning service—"The Power of the Resurrection." Special music has been arranged for this service.

H. L. Gilkey, superintendent of the Sunday school and his corps of workers are putting forth their best efforts to make the evening exercises the best this church has ever enjoyed. All will be made welcome to these services.

The Presbyterian church of Woodville is now to have a resident pastor, Rev. R. Tweed of Florence arriving there last week with his wife and two children, to take up the work. The Woodville church, although it was organized within the past few years, has a neat church building and is in a flourishing condition. Rev. Mr. Tweed and family stopped off at Grants Pass on their way to Woodville.

Robert Heston, a man about 60 years of age, a brother of James Heston of Dairy, Klamath county, perished in the Cascade mountains about 15 miles east of Ashland on Thursday or Friday. He was traveling afoot from Klamath Falls to Ashland on his way to Portland. After walking all day in the snow he was only half a mile from shelter, when he is thought to have become exhausted and to have fallen into a sleep from which he never awakened. The mail carrier had passed at a point some 10 miles from the place and at that time Heston was making good progress and his condition appeared to be good.

Mary Osborn Donthit of Portland is in Grants Pass in the interests of her book "The Souvenir," which she is preparing to publish. "The Souvenir" will be a very handsome publication, containing articles on the early history of the state as well as delineation of its present possibilities and resources. As a medium for advertising Oregon, the book is of exceptional value, and boards of trade in the several towns are co-operating with the author in furthering its publication. Miss Donthit announces for the benefit of a cover design; also, to the public schools, a prize for illustration for a story. Address 511 Morrison St. Portland, Oregon.

At the January term of circuit court for Josephine county, the jury in the case of E. L. Dunham vs. the S. P. Co. awarded the plaintiff $12,000 damages. On motion Judge Hanna several weeks ago granted a new trial, assigning as a reason therefor error in giving the jury an instruction asked for by the plaintiff's attorney. The court holds that under the law and evidence in the case the plaintiff although under age is held to the same degree of responsibility in looking out for himself and avoiding personal danger that an adult would be. The instruction referred to was the reverse of this and therefore clearly misleading upon the main issue in the case, viz. the negligence of the parties. The case will come up again for trial at the April term of circuit court.—Sentinel.

Eastern Star.

All members of the Eastern Star are requested to be present at a regular meeting on April 6th for regular and initiatory work after which a special program will be introduced. By order of the committee.

Free! Free! Free!

An enlargement with every dozen cabinets until the 1st of May at Nichols studio, opposite court house.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to acknowledge in this public way my appreciation of the kindness of the mayor, common council and friends who have done so much in ministering to my comfort during my affliction from which I am now convalescing. Such acts of kindness are in harmony with the spirit of Christ as expressed in His words: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."
John Patrick.

J. DeGuire was found guilty in the Ashland city court last Thursday of violating the saloon ordinances and was fined $75. He is credited with having run a "blind pig." This conviction, as well as others which preceded it, was secured by the evidence of T. K. Roberts of Woodville.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. For sale by all druggists.

Cast off Your Trousers Buttons.

The Buttonless Suspenders Will Retire Them from Service.

Six trousers buttons now become as superfluous as the vermiform appendix. After making centuries of trouble and placing men without number in perplexing predicaments, they can now go out of business for all time.

The new buttonless suspenders differ from the familiar form only the substitution of clasps for the leather ends; but these clasps are of a peculiar pattern, neat, nickel-plated, with a grip like a bull dog's, yet warranted not to tear the cloth. Cast-offs both in front and in the back are provided, so that it becomes necessary to open the clasps only when the suspenders are changed from one garment to another. This operation, however, is just as simple as unbuttoning the straps.

Harth & Son have secured the first 600 pairs of buttonless suspenders to come to Grants Pass and they're on sale today at the store at an introductory price—50 cents at Harth & Son's.

Patrons guaranteed Sun Proof Paint is sold only by Cramer Bros.
C. C. Daniels, real estate and rental agent, Cor. Eighth and M streets.
