

Camping and Picnic Parties

Are now the order of the day. No fun camping unless you have plenty to eat. Why cook and sputter around a hot stove when you can call on us for the best Cold Sliced Ham (always kept on ice.)
 Canned Corned Beef 15 and 25c.
 Veal or Ham Loaf 15c, 2 for 25c.
 Lunch Sausage, Lunch Herring, Tamales, Enchiladas, Chiliconcarnie, Soused Mackerel, Finest Red Salmon 25c.
 American and Imported Sardines 5c to 25c.
 Sliced Bacon and Ham; Full Cream Cheese; Sliced Dried Beef in glass or we slice it for you; Lunch Jellies, pure fruit, 10c; Saratoga Chips; PICKLED TRIPE, Sweet and Sour Pickles; Fresh Vegetables, daily.

A WORD ABOUT STRAWBERRIES

Location, Culture and Man makes the berry. We are handling Morrison's mountain berries, unquestionably the Finest Flavored STRAWBERRY brought to this market. Not necessary to buy two boxes of this fruit in order to get one; for canning and preserving they are just what you want. Nothing saved in putting up cheap over-ripe fruit because it takes same quantity of sugar. Remember the place.

The White House Grocery.

H. C. BOBZIEN. SIXTH STREET.

Hard on the cat but not hard on the one who does the washing. We have a large stock of Wringers from $1.75 up. Our Ball Bearing Cycle Wringer makes washing easy.

OUR PERSONAL COLUMN

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

Charles A. Brown returned Monday from Fort Jones, Cal.
 Jos Wolke and daughter Clara went to Portland Tuesday on a business trip.
 Mrs. H. C. Perkins went to Eugene Friday on account of the illness of an uncle.
 J. H. Williams has been exercising his new automobile on the streets this week.
 Mrs. George I. Gillett went to Fort Klamath Tuesday to join Mr. Gillett, who went some time ago.
 Station agent G. P. Jester visited Harrisburg and other northern points last week, returning home Monday.

Rev. C. Galeener of Danville, Ill., visited his brother J. P. Galeener last week. He preached at the Newman M. E. church Sunday morning.
 Albert Schmidt returned Thursday from San Diego, where he and his parents went last February to reside. Albert prefers Grants Pass to San Diego, California.

Mrs. T. Y. Dean and children returned home Sunday evening from Dillard and Riddle, where she visited her sister, Mrs. J. Carr and Mr. Dean's father and mother.

The Williams creek and A. A. C. ball teams cross bats at the new A. A. C. grounds next Sunday. The grand stand will be completed and ready for business by that time.

A. N. Hulbert of Sams Valley has purchased the Turner place of 88 acres, five miles down the river. There is a nine-acre hop yard and a good orchard on the place. More hops will be added.

O. M. Cronch, president of the Alameda Mining Company, operating the Alameda mine on Galice creek, left Portland Monday for the East. He will visit various places, but will spend most of the time in New York state.

Misses Mae Sutton and Mae S. Mault of Ashland were passengers on Monday's northbound overland, en route for St. Louis and eastern points. Their trip will extend over three months and they will go as far east as Pennsylvania.

Rev. J. W. McDougall returned Friday from attendance at the M. E. conference at Los Angeles. He was accompanied by Rev. L. E. Rockwell of Portland, who stopped off over night. While in California Mr. McDougall visited the Chas. Hancock family at Corona. They are very pleasantly located and Mr. Hancock has a good business.

Mrs. Geo. R. McKimmins and children with the exception of Miss Mattie, who will remain here for the present, left Monday evening for Nehalem, whither Mr. McKimmins and Bayard had preceded them. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Morrison, with whom they exchanged property, arrived here last week and have taken up their residence on the McKimmins place.

Miss Rose Lay, of Portland, Ore., has opened a public stenographic office on Sixth Street, Rooms 3 and 5, opposite the Josephine. She will also conduct a shorthand school, giving a full and thorough course; same system taught as in the leading business colleges.

An automobile which arrived here recently, from San Francisco by steamer, for J. H. Williams, of Grants Pass, Or., was shipped to its destination, by wagon, last Saturday. It seems that it was the intention to run the automobile over to the Pass, but the bad condition of the wagon road prevented such, the large boulders beyond the summit interfering mostly. The machine was a costly one; and the freight charges from San Francisco to this place amounted to $17, while the charges by rail from and to the same points would be $75.

A saying was made, but a still greater one would have been made had the wagon road been in condition.—Treasurer City Record.

Piano Recital.
 Miss Laura Parker will give a piano recital in the opera house, Wednesday, June 23d. She will be assisted by Miss Edna Parker in vocal numbers.

A. U. Bannard—Undertaker.
