Box.

Dr. J. P. Eastor, broke into the work of the election Monday with a box of strawberries. Now fine strawberries are not uncommon in this section, which is a strawberry hot bed. But this box that Dr. Eastor had would arrest the attention of anyone at any time. Eight berries filled the box. They were of a cross between three varieties—the Enormous, the Belts and the Kansas—the latter being introduced to produce the fertilizing quality that the two other varieties do not contain. One of the berries measured nine inches in circumference. People have seen large strawberries, but this eight to the box turned out by Dr. Eastor just naturally squeals anything of the kind ever seen to our knowledge. Dr. Eastor is an enthusiastic admirer of the president and calls his new breed, "The Teddy Roosevelt." Wm. M. Colvig took the box on Monday evening's train with him for St. Louis to "show" the Missourians what they can do in Oregon. He expects to be able to keep them in the refrigerator. No doubt they will be heard from should they keep in condition.—Valley Record.

Receive Degrees

Two Grants Pass young ladies graduated this year from the University of Oregon at Eugene—Miss Margaret Bannard and Miss Ethel Palmer. Miss Bannard completes the classical course, with the addition of German. Miss Savie Bannard, an alumna of the university, is at Eugene, spending commencement week with her sister. Of Miss Ethel Palmer, the Oregonian of Tuesday has the following to say: "Villard Hall was crowded Monday evening, when the graduating exercises of the school of Music were held. The single member of this year's class is Miss Ethel Carolyn Palmer, pianist, and pupil of Mrs. Rose M. Hollenbeck. Miss Palmer is registered from Grants Pass, and is one of the best known young musicians in Western Oregon. Her work tonight was of a high order, her five numbers on the programme, holding the close attention of the entire audience." Miss Palmer's many friends will have an opportunity of hearing her in Grants Pass in the near future.

Sued by His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coacohella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all druggists.
