OUR PERSONAL COLUMN SEVERE STORM SUNDAY THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

The Robt. Eberle family are camping at Coletina. Miss Orlene Williams went to San Francisco Monday. Miss Grace Merritt is attending Chautauqua at Ashland. Henry Hiller arrived Friday from Portland to spend a few days. Mrs. W. F. Lempe and child and Mrs. E. Daniels are visiting at Soda Springs. Mrs. Alice Carlon and brother, Fred Cook, returned from Portland last week. Miss Bertha Barrie arrived in Grants Pass Wednesday and will remain until fall. Mrs. Jas. Slover and Miss Lella went to Portland Sunday to spend some time with Mr. Slover. Mrs. H. C. Perkins returned last Wednesday evening from an absence of several weeks at Eugene. Rev. and Mrs. J. W. McDougall and Mrs. Mutch went to Ashland Tuesday to attend Chautauqua. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stovall and Mrs. W. H. Freed went to Ashland Tuesday to camp during the Chautauqua. Mrs. M. F. Dulybon and daughter, Miss Lida Fyfield, left last week for a visit with Mrs. Dulybon's brother at Seattle. Wm. Patella, brother of Mrs. L. B. Hall, arrived in Grants Pass Monday from Deatur, Ill. His family will arrive later. Martin Heston is now at the World's fair and has a position as pass inspector. He expects to visit his parents here in August. Mrs. Geo. B. Archer left Sunday morning for San Juan, Cal., to visit her father, who is sick. Mrs. Archer has not been home for five years. Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton of Table Rock were in Grants Pass Wednesday with a fine team of young horses, which he expects to dispose of here. Louis Gentner left Sunday morning for San Francisco, where he enters the Van Der Neillen engineering school to take the electrical course. Geneva Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Myers, returned on Thursday from a visit of six weeks at Portland, McMinnville and Newburg. A. L. Myers returned this week from Newburg and will superintend the operations at the Owl Gulch quartz property. Wm. Colvig was elected supreme overseer of the A. O. U. W. at its recent meeting at Chasmooga, Tenn. He returned to Jacksonville last week. D. McCarthy, the S. P. engineer, who is now running on the Lebanon branch, is visiting his family at Ashland and looking after his peach crops. E. E. Redfield of Glendale was in town on Monday. He has lately completed the big railroad wood contract on which he has been working for some time past. Mrs. W. J. Rogers and Miss Abbie Stackpole left on Monday for a vacation in the mountains. They will visit Goldenview city and the scene of the Briggs gold discovery. A. U. Bannard is at Boswell springs for the benefit of his health. Judging from the fact that he took a two-mile walk a few days ago, it would seem that the springs certainly agree with him. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colvig, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Colvig and Frank Colvig left on Tuesday morning for a camping trip to the hunting and fishing grounds of upper Evans creek. They intend to remain about three weeks. A. LeRoy, of the Oregon Information Bureau, was in Grants Pass Tuesday, gathering samples of ores and grain for exhibition at the Bureau. The Courier proprietor loaned him a specimen of gold from the Briggs find to place on exhibition. This Bureau is doing a great amount of good in supplying information to intending settlers. Their rooms are in the Union depot. J. H. Colby and son, Herman, returned this week from a visit to Coos Bay. They met several former Grants Pass people there, among them E. A. Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ferd. Mr. Colby says the ranchers of Coos county are feeling the effects of unusual dry weather fully as much if not more than the people of Josephine and Jackson counties. He reports the roads dusty all the way to the coast, whereas travelers usually expect to encounter some mud on the way. He found the country generally prosperous though times were somewhat quiet.

J. W. Harmon's Barn Struck by Lightning and Destroyed

Sunday's electric storm was one of unusual severity for this locality. Grants Pass being on the edge of the storm, escaped its force. The strength of the elements was manifested mainly further south and east, and the storm center seems to have been along the range of mountains that separates the Applegate from the Illinois river tributaries. In the Applegate and Deer creek valleys, the rain poured in torrents. The new barn of J. W. Harmon near Selma, a structure 60x80 feet and one of the best barns in the country, built according to the late ideas and with all the modern conveniences, was struck by lightning and burned, with some 60 tons of hay. The loss was about $1200 with no insurance. Postmaster C. E. Harmon of this city, while returning from a visit to the Harmon place on Deer creek, encountered a lively hail storm at Selma. The storm rattled down as big as marbles, the team became frantic, but by good engineering, they were got under shelter in R. C. Churchill's barn before the matter became serious. On the Hays hill there seems to have been a small water spout or cloud burst. The water poured down the hill in torrents, badly slating and gullying out the road, which prior to the storm was in almost perfect condition. Several trunks were fired by the electric spark in sight of Grants Pass, on the hills south of town. It is reported that a gatopost at the Hathaway place on the Murphy road, was also struck by lightning. The thunder storm of Sunday carried with it hail showers in some localities. It has been reported here that the hop fields of the Applegate suffered severely from this cause. However, J. A. Rehkopf, whose yard had been removed to have sustained the most serious damage, says that, in his opinion, the storm will increase rather than diminish the yield of hops. The hail did knock some hops from the vines but did not knock down any of the vines and the ground received such a thorough soaking that the increase in yield will be fully double the damage done.

Provolet and had to stop on business, and dropping the lines, he started to where the men were at work on the big Laurel hill ditch, and when he was some distance away, the team became frightened and started to run, before anyone could reach them. They were hitched to a mower that Mr. Peine had just purchased, and the damages will exceed $20.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

It is Found Impossible to Float Sewer Bonds.

The regular meeting of the City Council was held Thursday evening. Present, Mayor Gilkey, Aldermen Williams, Bashor, Perkins, Trimble, Rehkopf and Calvert, and Recorder Maybee. The petition of E. L. Cass and 130 others asking that Sunday closing ordinances be repealed was presented, and laid on the table until the ordinance now in force can be tested. The city attorney was instructed to draft an ordinance to exclude from the operation of the fire limits the south half of blocks 46 and 47. Following saloon licenses were granted: A. Lempe, Fred Schallhorn, J. G. Schallhorn, Coburn & Hawkins. The Council refused to grant license to Henry Walter. Claus Schmidt was granted permission to use street while putting up building on 6th and J streets. The Mayor, who has been investigating the sale of sewer bonds, reported that, on account of irregularities in the election for same, it would be impossible to float the bonds until steps could be taken to correct the deficiency. The Building Committee recommended that the Justice of the Peace and constable have use of the city hall for their offices at $5 per month. Day Marshal Robert Sexauer submitted report on measurements of water in the reservoir during the month of June, showing a depth of from five feet six inches to eleven feet three inches, which insures good pressure and plenty of water at all times. The following bills were ordered paid: Wolke & Shaska, sewer work... $850 90 Grants Pass Hdq Co., cement, etc 351 75 Hair-Riddle Hdq Co., " " 170 65 Hotel Josephine... 2 50 Sugar Pine Store... 30 50 W. GRANTS PASS NOT SO HOT

Glendale People Think we are in a Basic Oven. But Not so.

Besides being in the district which enjoys the most perfect climate of the Pacific coast, Grants Pass has the further advantage of having the most delightful location in point of beauty and comfort of any town in Southern Oregon. Its situation in the little valley giving it the benefit of every breeze that sweeps over from the coast to temper the summer heat, while the surrounding hills are near enough to break the force of the more violent winds, which disturb the peace of towns situated on level tracts of larger area. Engineer C. H. Sampson of this city has for a number of years past spent a considerable portion of his time at Glendale, being there day after day on his run. While there he has been somewhat nettled at the repeated allusion to the hot weather with which they credited Grants Pass. Mr. Sampson was convinced that Grants Pass weather was no hotter than that of Glendale. Being in both places every day, he rather thought the balance was on the other side, but in this view he was laughed to scorn by the residents of Glendale. To settle the matter conclusively he procured the records of the voluntary weather observers of the two places for 21 days in June, from the 10th to the 31st inclusive. The result is somewhat surprising. The records show a mean maximum temperature of 81 in Grants Pass; in Glendale, 90.1. On two days only the temperature in Grants Pass went to 100. In Glendale it reached that point on 9 days of the 21 for which the comparison is made. Grants Pass records the highest notch; 103 as against Glendale's 102. Glendale records a lower mean minimum temperature than Grants Pass and has a greater daily range. This is natural, as the town is situated in a very narrow valley with high mountains on both sides and the temperature is therefore more susceptible to the quick heating and cooling of the earth's surface. So Mr. Sampson thinks it is time for Glendale folks to revise their weather ideas in regard to Grants Pass.

1491 GETS THE COUCH

The Handsome Davenport Goes to Miss Maud Baber.

On Wednesday afternoon, there was quite a gathering at R. Thomas & Co.'s to witness the drawing for the beautiful Davenport given away by this enterprising firm. About 4:30 p. m., Mr. A. E. Voorhies, who was Master of Ceremonies, selected one of the customers, Miss Sadie Lowden, to do the drawing. She was forthwith blind folded and with due solemnity, put her hand into the big pile of tickets and drew forth a ticket, which proved to be No. 1491, which was held by Miss Maud Baber, who thereby becomes possessed of a handsome $35 Davenport, large and roomy. Indignation. With its companions, heart burn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle at Model Drug Store.

Bring Your Wife Along. Women are the best judges of dress, their own or the Men's. They know a good thing when they see it, and you may rely firmly on their good judgment. Bring her with you, by all means, let her help you select your Summer clothes. She'll understand that 'gentle goodness' of a Schloss Art-Tailored Suit, better, perhaps, than you. However, you are sure of good treatment here, whether you bring her or not. The difference in the cost of a Schloss-made Suit and that made by the 'merchant tailor' will be enough to open her eyes to the possibilities for money saving. Just think, we sell a suit like either of those shown in the picture at so little a price as $12.50. The 'merchant tailor' would want to charge $25 for a suit not so good in fit, style or quality. Here is a clear saving of $12.50, which your wife can find good use for in adding to her own wardrobe. No wonder she is bent on breaking you of the 'merchant tailor' habit. This label on Schloss made clothes is to protect the wearer. It stands for reputation, uniform excellence and up-to-dateness. 'Drop in and let us talk it over.' P. W. Hart & Co. Outfitters to Particular People. GRANTS PASS.
