OUR PERSONAL COLUMN

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

Miss Cora Smith leaves Thursday for Junction City. Mr. and Mrs. S. Baell returned last week from their summer at the mine on Alibon.

Misses Minnie Tuffs and Edna Parker returned last week from their California trip. Mrs. L. L. Jewell went to Portland the first of the week to visit the Dr. Moore family.

J. M. Warburk and J. P. Hamnell of Seattle were in town Monday outfitting for the hills. Miss Mattie McKimins went to Wagona on Saturday to begin a six months term of school at that place.

J. M. Booth and wife and Miss Ada Smith went to Kerby and Waldo Wednesday and will return Friday. The W. M. Hair family returned last week from a several weeks visit at their old home and at the World's fair.

M. D. Follett has purchased lots on A street bordering on Gilbert creek and will this fall erect a neat dwelling thereon. Miss Bertha Tait who has been spending the past six weeks with Miss Ethel Palmer and other friends returned to her home at Eugene Tuesday.

Miss Ella Curtis spent two weeks of last month at the mines in the mountains near Healy, Siskiyou county, Cal. She found the altitude too high for her. Mrs. S. C. Clark has sold her brick residence 510 D street to Mrs. H. D. Norton. Mrs. Clark and daughter, Miss Juanita, will leave soon to visit Mrs. Clark's sister at Lewiston, Idaho.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Kitchin of Stayton, arrived in Grants Pass this week and will locate here. Dr. Kitchin is a physician of over 30 years experience and has a high standing in his profession. Rev. J. B. Travis, Miss R. A. Denman and Miss Mabel Turner went to Talent Monday to attend the annual session of the Rogue River Baptist Association. Mr. Travis delivered the annual sermon on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lizzie McNeil Bechtel, who is in the foreign mission work in Africa, will speak at Newman M. E. church on Thursday evening. She will soon return to resume her work and join her husband in the mission field. Lennie Monn spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday with friends in the city, returning to his duties in the O. R. & N. Co. office at Portland Monday evening. He has rented a house at Sunnyside, where he and his mother will live. His mother has been spending a few weeks with friends in Idaho.

T. F. Croxton, Miss Gay and Wayne left Wednesday for Portland, where the Croxton family will spend a year or more. Mrs. Croxton left last Wednesday for a visit with Oakland and Eugene friends and will join the rest of the family at Eugene. Miss Ozyth will devote her time to voice culture. The Croxton residence has been rented to C. V. Henkle.

Class Taber, E. L. Gray, Martin and J. A. Hanco returned Tuesday from their hunting camp on Bear lake. They killed 14 deer and three bears, a black, cinnamon and a grizzly bear cub. Mr. Taber's pack horse while packing a bear to camp fell over a bank and struck on the neck below. The horse, however, had the bear on its back which served as a bumper and the horse was unhurt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cne, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. G. Matthews, H. E. Foster, Geo. S. Callahan, H. A. Wilson and Miss Edna Howard are among the visitors from Grants Pass who are attending the Knights Templar convolve in San Francisco.

Wharton-Riddle. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, August 31, 1904, Joseph Wharton and Ethel Lynn Riddle were joined in wedlock at Riddle, Oregon, by Rev. J. A. Townsend, of Roseburg. The wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Will Langlois, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed out on the lawn, the bride and groom standing on the veranda and the guests seated under the trees. The lawn was illuminated with Japanese lanterns which gave a charming aspect to the whole scene.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, the bride and groom came out of the house, and before the numerous assembled guests were joined in marriage by the ring ceremony, which was very impressive. The bride was attired in a lovely gown of tan voile, trimmed with insertion and ribbon, over tan silk, and carried a bouquet of white lilies tied with a bow of blue ribbon.

After the ceremony the bride and groom threw the bouquet, which is the usual custom. Miss Anna Wharton caught the bride's bouquet and when thrown by the groom, was caught by Fred Winston. A delicious lunch of ice cream, sherbet, cake and lemonade was served on the lawn. A great many useful and pretty gifts were received. The Riddle band gave the bridal couple a serenade which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The guests departed about 10 o'clock wishing the happy couple all the joys of a long wedded life. Mr. Wharton is a salesman for the Hair-Riddle Hardware Co., of Grants Pass, and his bride is the daughter of Hon. and Mrs. G. W. Riddle of Astoria, Douglas county. Both are popular and worthy young people whose success in life seems well assured.—Roseburg Review.

THE CITY SCHOOLS OPEN With Efficient and Capable Corps of Teachers.

The Grants Pass public schools opened Monday with a good enrollment, although it is expected that several hundred more will be added during the month, when the hop picking and vacation seasons are over. On the first day the names of 75 pupils who had never before attended the Grants Pass schools were recorded. The three schools are under the efficient charge of Superintendent R. R. Turner who recently arrived from the east.

The corps of instructors is as follows: Supt., R. R. Turner. High School Principal, M. W. Davoport. Asst. Principal, Miss Astella Goodin. Eighth Grade, Miss Mae Bishop. Seventh Grade, Miss Minnie Tuffs. Sixth Grade, Miss Lucy George. Fifth Grade, Miss Ethel Crane. Fourth Grade, Miss Alta Schneider. Fourth Grade, Miss Mary Day. Fourth Grade, Miss Francis McWilliams.

Third Grade, Miss Stella Paddock. Third Grade, Miss Winifred Carter. Second Grade, Mrs. Mollie Belding. Second Grade, Miss Edna Parker. First and Second Grade, Miss Callie Healin.

First Grade, Miss Alice M. Pool. First Grade, Miss Lillian Hogan. At a meeting of the school board held Monday evening it was decided to fit up the basements of each of the three school buildings to be used as lunch rooms, where the scholars may spend the noon hour during the winter. The general recesses have been done away with. The high school will have no recess. The other grades will have recesses one or two rooms at a time so as to avoid the confusion which follows if the entire school is let out at one time.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

New Sunday Ordinance Fails to Become Law.

The Grants Pass council held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, September 1st, with members all present except Hair and Trimble. The petition of G. D. Walter and others to have street opened from Second to West street, Railroad Addition, graded, and for a bridge across Gilbert creek, was referred to the Street Committee.

The petition of Elias Pollock and others for the establishment of grade and granite walk on west side of Fifth street from C to D streets was allowed.

The city engineer was instructed to establish initial points for the survey of Miller & Company's Addition. Also to complete the map which was prepared by B. McCulloch for the city. Auditor and police judge was instructed to procure the necessary supplies for registrations and December elections.

The city engineer, in conjunction with the Light Committee, was instructed to draft specifications for lighting the city. The saloon bonds of C. D. Williams & Company and W. S. Woods were approved.

Ordinances assessing the cost of lateral sewers to the adjacent property read first and second times. On motion the ordinance repealing 212, prohibiting gaming on Sundays, was taken from table, read second and third times and placed on its final ballot and failed to pass.

The following bills were allowed: Williams Bros' D & L Co. $230.30 F. W. Hathaway, board 41.10 Water, Light & Power Co. 17.65 Grants Pass Hdq. Co. 30.14 Dr. P. D. Stricker 34.50 Veitch & Hayes 2.80 Joseph Moss 17.00 Palace Hotel 13.00 G. J. Taylor 1.55 Hair-Riddle Hdq. Co. 39.70 M. Clemens 85 J. Trimble & Cook 23.30 Cramer Bros 2.40 H. A. Rotmund 85.00 J. M. Holton 4.00 Dick Patrick 31.50 George Snow 65.00 O. C. Beal 85.00 John Patrick 50 Council then adjourned.

Frank Colvig went to Astland Monday to remain for a few days. G. Karg of Mt. Reuben was in town Wednesday on a business visit.

Mrs. H. W. Atkin and children left on Monday evening for Blue Earth City, Minn. The business of Clink is now conducted by Clink & Stevens. Roy Stevens buying the interest of Mr. Clink.

W. E. Kahler, a merchant of Sumpster, visited here this week with the families of M. W. Wheeler and R. H. Gillilan. Mr. Kahler is an old time resident of Southern Oregon and is a brother of the late G. W. Kahler of Jacksonville.

In the list of the Josephine county hop yards, published in the last issue of the Courier, the acreage of the largest yard, that of John Rauzan, was somewhat underestimated. Mr. Rauzan has 57 acres of bearing hops and is employing this year about 300 pickers.

At Newman M. E. church next Sunday, September 11, there will be preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. L. B. Skors. In the evening Hon. J. M. Glass of Pasadena, Cal., will deliver an address in the interest of the temperance cause. A large attendance is desired.

Reduced Rates to St. Louis Exposition.

The Southern Pacific Co. will sell round trip tickets at greatly reduced rates to St. Louis and Chicago, en route the St. Louis Exposition, on the following dates: October 3, 4, 5. Going trip must be completed within 10 days from date of sale and passengers will be permitted to start on any day that will enable them to reach destination within the 10 days limit. Return limit 90 days, but not later than December 31, 1904. For full information as to rates and routes call on Agent Southern Pac., at Grants Pass. W. E. Conan, G. P. A.

Trimble & Cook now carry a stock of buggy and hack wheels in all grades. The prices are right. J. Monroe Layman spent several days in town this week from the Lewis & Clark mine on Canyon creek and brought quite an amount of handsome specimens of telluride ore for the mining exhibit. The Lewis & Clark is showing up well and constantly improves in appearance with development, new bodies of rich ore being discovered from time to time. A number of rich strikes have been made in the vicinity and the Canyon creek district bids fair to become one of the liveliest and best camps in Southern Oregon.
