OUR PERSONAL COLUMN

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

Stephen Abell, who has a ranch in the vicinity of Merlin, was in Grants Pass Saturday.
W. H. Purdy, a rancher of Hugo vicinity was trading with Grants Pass merchants Saturday.
C. F. LeChercq, a minor and rancher of Applegate, was in Grants Pass Saturday and Sunday a guest at the Palace hotel.
George Howland spent last Saturday in Medford on a business for the Three Pines Lumber Company of which he is president.
Mrs. Frank H. Chamberlain of Tolo returned home on Wednesday after a visit of several days in this city with Mrs. Hemmenway.

W. J. Smith, who has a large general merchandise store at Selma, was in Grants Pass over Saturday night, a guest at the Palace hotel.
Attorney A. S. Hammond was in Medford Saturday on legal business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hammond, who spent the day with friends.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Frederick, formerly of this city and for the past year located at Astoria, have removed to Portland, where they intend going into business.

W. H. Purdy, who has a ranch near Hugo and also does sawmill work during the milling season, was in Grants Pass Saturday making purchases of the merchants.
Fred Blackman, who is driving on a work train north of Roseburg, took advantage of a break in the steam schedule to spend Sunday at home. He returned Monday evening.
H. F. Day returned Friday to his farm near Murphy after being employed for the previous three weeks in hauling supplies to the Grants Hill for L. Hill, who conducts the boarding house at that mine.

President B. F. Minkler of the Southern Oregon State Normal, returned to Ashland Friday from an extended trip north during which he took part in teachers institutes at Salem, Pendleton, Baker City and other places.
Mrs. F. W. Van Dyke received this week a letter from Dr. Van Dyke, bearing the date of October 28 and the postmark of Donlouts, 12 hours sail from Rotterdam. The doctor is in excellent health and has enjoyed his trip immensely.

Hon. E. L. Smith of Hood River, president of the Oregon Development League and president of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, passed through Grants Pass Friday on his way to El Paso, Texas, to attend the National Irrigation Congress to meet this week in that city.
Louis Barger of St. Helens, Oregon, is in Grants Pass, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Corlies, friends who the latter were residents of St. Helens. Mr. Barger is a telegraph operator and is looking over Rogue River Valley with a view of locating as he is well pleased with the country.

Mrs. E. N. Tibbets with her two children left Saturday for Albany to join her husband and where they will hereafter reside. Mr. Tibbets was foreman on the helpers running out of Grants Pass, but last week he was transferred to Albany and is now living on the Albany-Portland local.
Charles Davidson is among the new arrivals in Grants Pass. He is coming from Atkinson county, Missouri. Mr. Davidson is a steam engineer, holding a license both in Missouri and Montana, where he operated mining engines and he expects to secure employment with some of the mining companies of this district.

Jack Phelan, who has charge of a bridge gang working near Merlin, spent Sunday in Grants Pass. Mr. Phelan has been in the employ of the Oregon Southern Pacific for many years and has had charge of the construction work on most of the Howe truss bridges that have been put in on the Company's Oregon lines.
J. E. Eary and Carl Stout of Leland and Roy Smith of Greenback were in Roseburg last Thursday night and were put through the tangle of logs and brush that all fawns have to work their way to reach the green and peaceful pastures controlled by the Elks of No. 326. The young men are said to have stood the ordeal as became Noble Elks of the forest and were greatly pleased with the good fellowship of the Elks and with the worth of the order.

Hon. W. I. Vawter, president of the Jackson county bank of Medford, joint representative for Jackson and Douglas county, and one of the leading attorneys of Southern Oregon, came down from Medford Saturday evening on the 8 o'clock train and remained in Grants Pass attending to some legal business until the 10:30 train when he returned to his home. Mr. Vawter is prominently mentioned as a candidate for speaker of the house and he has very good prospects of securing the support of all the delegations from the Southern Oregon counties and will receive some support from the Willamette valley and Eastern Oregon counties, giving him a strength that will make him one of the strong candidates before the house.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Brief Notes and Items of Interest and Importance.

Little grains of powder, Little drops of paint, Make a lady's frockies Look as if they aint!
The school at Missouri Flat, Applegate, will close this Friday. It has been an eight months' term and Miss Tillie Hooks, of Jacksonville, has been in charge and she has conducted a very successful school.
Regular meeting of the city council will be held on this Thursday evening, but now that the light proposition is indefinitely postponed, there will not likely be any business to consider other than to audit the regular city expense account.
A surprise party was given on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lydia Dean, in honor of her son, R. A. Dean, prior to his return to Prospect after a brief visit at home. A number of young folks were present and the evening was most enjoyably spent, games being the principal feature of amusement.
W. I. Sweetland shipped Monday, 227 head of steers to Gazelle, Cal., which he had sold to J. C. Mitchell of that place, who will stall feed them for a time and then ship them to the San Francisco market. They were all fine heaves in good condition and had been bought by Mr. Sweetland of the farmers of this part of the valley.
Grants Pass Lodge No. 84, A. F. & A. M. had degree work Saturday evening, following which a lunch was served and a delightful social hour was had by the members in the banquet room. Grants Pass has the honor of having one of the strongest Masonic lodges in Southern Oregon both in membership and financial standing and of having the largest and finest Masonic temple of any town in Oregon of the size of Grants Pass.
Commander John Patrick of Gen. Logan Post No. 29, G. A. R. has received a communication from Department Inspector T. E. Hills, of Ashland, stating that he will be in Grants Pass on December 7 to inspect Logan Post. At that same meeting the annual election of officers for the Post will be held and Commander Patrick expects every member to attend both as well as to participate in the election of officers.
James Oswald of Holland was in Grants Pass Friday with a load of dressed chickens, butter and other farm products. Mr. Oswald has a fine ranch on Beaver creek, a tributary of Soaker creek and he has been marketing produce in Grants Pass for several years past and he has the reputation among the local merchants of bringing in the best dressed beef, pork, poultry and butter, eggs and other farm produce of any farmer in Josephine county.
George Christy, who with his father, H. C. Christy, is running a saw mill and a shingle mill near Selma, was in Grants Pass Friday.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Brief Notes and Items of Interest and Importance.

Mr. Christy stated that they were through sawing for this season, but running their planer for some time yet. They will run their shingle mill all winter and with one machine are able to average 25,000 shingles per day. Having a fine body of sugar pine from which to get their bolts and being expert shingle weavers, their shingles are among the best that are brought to Grants Pass.
Eastern Star pln lost Wednesday between Mrs. Werts home and Masonic Temple. Please leave word with Mrs. B. P. Scott.
August Petch has had a cement sidewalk put down on the Sixth street, front of his business block. The walk extends for 100 feet and is one of the best laid in the city and is a credit to the contractor, R. J. Colvin.
A Runaway Bicycle. Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Buckle's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, skin eruptions and piles. 25c, at Clemens' and National Drug Store.

Correct Clothes

Hand-tailored by Schloss Bros. & Co.,

They are markedly superior in style and workmanship to other makes of ready-to-wear apparel.

Don't be deceived by the clothing pictures you see in the magazine advertisements. Take these elaborate illustrations and compare them with the clothes they claim to represent and watch the effect upon your opinion.

"Fine pictures do not make fine clothes," is one of the Schloss slogan. This make of clothing stands on the genuine quality actually found in each garment.

The suit shown in the illustration but faintly represents the latest shape of Double Breasted Sack. We have it in the popular browns and fancy mixtures.
