OUR PERSONAL COLUMN FALLS AMONG SAMARITANS

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day.

A. C. Hough was in Ashland Monday on legal business. Miss Myra Montgomery spent Thanksgiving here with friends. Mrs. Hickman of Murphy is visiting in Grants Pass with Mrs. S. Beall. Mrs. Alice Starr of Glendale is spending a few days in Grants Pass. Mr. and Mrs. S. Beall visited at Gold Hill Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McTimmons. Miss Gertrude McCallister left Sunday for Sacramento, to join her sister and to reside there. Dr. Beard is receiving a visit from his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beard of Sellwood, Ore.

Errol Gilkey is spending the week in Medford, paying a visit to his former teacher, Miss May Phipps. Mrs. Chas. Brady went down to Grants Pass to visit her sister a few days, Tuesday.—Ashland Tidings.

Chas. E. Perdus, a farmer of Wimer vicinity, was in Grants Pass Monday making purchases of the local merchants.

Attorney A. S. Hammond, of Grants Pass, was in Ashland Wednesday on professional business.—Tidings.

Frank Blanton arrived from Eugene a few days ago to spend the winter here. He has spent the past several winters in Grants Pass, preferring this climate to the Willamette Valley.

Miss Olive Cooper, trained nurse, left for Grants Pass Saturday evening, where she will be employed professionally for a couple of weeks.—Medford Mail.

E. D. Edwood, for several years past conducting a jewelry store in Medford, but recently in the hotel business in that place, has moved with his family to Portland.

J. D. Niman and family are recent arrivals from North Yakima, who will make Grants Pass their home. Mr. Niman brought a six horse team with him and will do teaming in the spring.

A. T. Martin and family left Sunday for their former home at Mochanobury, Ill. In disposal of property there and to arrange for returning in the spring to make Grants Pass their future home.

Dr. R. E. Smith and family left Sunday for San Francisco and will later go to Reno, Nev. Dr. Smith and family have been residents of Grants Pass for the past four years and will be greatly missed. The firm of Smith Bros. Mercantile Co., composed of "Tot" and "Max" Smith, did a good business while here.

Mrs. H. L. Gilkey received a message Monday from Hogue, Oregon, that the body of her brother, W. H. Karr, who was drowned, November 8, while on a hunting trip on Grays harbor, had been found and the funeral would be held at Hogue on Wednesday. Mrs. Gilkey having been in poor health for some time past, was unable to stand the fatigue of the long journey to reach Hogue.

A. S. Hammond was in Jacksonville last Saturday to appear in the suit brought by C. A. Ellison to restrain the city of Ashland from collecting assessments on the sewer system now being put in by that city, in the circuit court. Mr. Hammond was one of the attorneys for the plaintiff. Judge Hanna took the case under advisement and will give his decision at the opening of the regular term of court next Monday.

C. F. Dittmar stopped over at Grants Pass Wednesday and paid the Courier a pleasant call. He expects to resume his law studies at Stanford University in January with the express purpose of specializing for a mining practice. People in Southern Oregon will remember this young man with the kindest favor. They are unanimous in their appreciation of what he has accomplished toward setting our mining conditions accurately before the eyes of outside capital, for the best publicity that this section has received, was contained in his carefully prepared and handsomely published Southern Oregon edition of Mineral Wealth.

Amateur photographers very often get into the habit of thinking they cannot afford to buy the best papers on account of the expense. To those I can offer a high grade developing paper, two dozen, 4 1/2 sheets at 25c or two dozen 3 1/2 sheets for 20c. This paper is not as good as Velox, but is very good.

The new N-A Developer now on the market is the best that has ever been offered for sale. The prints remain a canary color until fixing is thorough. For sale only by A. E. Voorhies.
