CABANASS—In Grants Pass on Saturday, May 20, 1905, Frank Cabanass.

The funeral services were held Monday from L. B. Hall's undertaking chapel with interment in Granite Hill cemetery. Mr. Cabanass was only a recent resident of Grants Pass coming here from San Francisco, where his brother Judge Geo. P. Cabanass, is police judge of that city. Consumption was the cause of his death.

DIXON—On Tuesday, May 23, 1905, Mrs. Mary N. Dixon.

Mrs. Dixon's death was most sudden and a sad blow to her family. Her son, Dr. H. C. Dixon of this city, went to Newburg last Friday to accompany his mother from her home to this city for a visit with his family and with her other son, Dr. E. P. Dixon. When on their way here and while the train had just passed Junction City Mrs. Dixon was stricken with heart failure and died within a few minutes. The body was taken off the train at Eugene and Dr. Dixon telephoned his brother here, who left on the 5 o'clock train to join him and assist in taking their mother's remains to its last resting place in the family burial lot in the cemetery at Newburg. Mrs. Dixon was known to a number in Grants Pass who find her most estimable lady and know that her death is a heart felt loss to her family. The doctors Dixon are expected to return to Grants Pass Monday or Tuesday.

OUR PERSONAL COLUMN

People as They Come and Go From Day to Day

 Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fry left Thursday for California to spend a month in the Yosemite Valley.

Mrs. A. S. Hammond returned Friday from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Portland.

T. P. Cramer made a bicycle trip to the Waldo country last week and this week he has visited the Applegate district.

Miss Lulu Conger went to Medford Tuesday, where she will stay two weeks to attend to some business matters and to visit with friends.

E. W. and Fred Britton of Newburg and G. C. La Raut of Grand Rapids, Mich., arrived in Grants Pass Sunday and will look over this country with a view to locating.

Arthur Sampson returned Sunday from attendance at the Stanford preparatory school. He will spend the summer vacation with his parents and return to the school in the fall.

J. M. Payne, an extensive farmer of Deer Island, Columbia county, arrived in Grants Pass Sunday and Tuesday he left for Holland, in which district he is interested in a mining proposition.

Mrs. F. E. Willett returned Sunday from Dunsmuir where she had been for a week on a visit to her sister. Her daughter, Lole, came home with her, she having spent a month with her aunt and cousin.

Mrs. A. U. Bannard returned Saturday from Portland where she spent two weeks visiting friends. While there she had the pleasure of listening several times to Rev. B. F. Meyer, the noted London divine.

Willie and Ida Booth left last week for Portland where they will be joined this week by their mother, Mrs. Charles Booth and her daughter Kathleen. Mrs. Booth, who will hereafter reside in Portland, has sold her home on Eighth street to John M. Booth, who will occupy it as a residence.

G. A. Cobb has bought the house and six lots on L street, between Fourth and Pine, that belonged to C. G. Seaman and has moved with his family to the house. Mr. Cobb will build this summer two more houses on the property, which he will rent. Mr. Seaman became sometime since a resident of Woodville, where he in company with A. C. Johnson put in last month a large general merchandise store.

The press reports announce that L. S. Cass has been made assistant manager of the Chicago & Great Western Railway, a company that operates 1000 miles of railroad in Illinois, Minnesota and Iowa. Mr. Cass' headquarters will be in St. Paul. Mr. Cass is a brother of E. L. Cass, manager of the Grants Pass Cold Storage Company. He has been prominent in railroad and electric traction business in the East for a number of years.

J. C. Kitto came to Grants Pass Friday, from the Oregon Belle mine where he has been employed since last fall, and remained in the city until Monday on a visit with his sister, Miss Jennie Kitto. Mr. Kitto left Monday in company with William Berry and Arthur Donahue for Nome, Alaska, where they expect to spend the summer in mining. Walter Kitto, also well known in this city, will leave the Oregon Belle next week for his former home at Idaho Springs, Colorado.

F. S. Jones, who with Frank Mashburn are the local managers and principal owners of the Golden Rule store, returned Saturday from a month's business trip to St. Louis and to visit relatives near that city. Mr. Jones reports the business condition in that city and other towns he was in as very satisfactory and a good trade year was expected. Mrs. Jones, who had as yet not joined her husband in Oregon, returned with Mr. Jones to take up her residence in Grants Pass.

John Hall returned Friday from Greenback where he had spent a couple of days looking after mining interests he has in that district. Mr. Hall has two claims, both near the Greenback and one of them, Rough Nugget, he is having developed. Jack Hayden being in charge of the work. The vein is showing up well both in width and values and Mr. Hall feels so encouraged that he will continue development for some time yet, or until he is able to decide on the permanent value of his property.

Mrs. Sarah V. Griffith was in Grants Pass Monday from her home near Wilderville. Mrs. Griffith stated that her husband is in a very critical condition and may not survive the injury he recently received by being thrown from a cart. He laid by the roadside seven hours before being found when he was taken to the home of Monroe Perrin, where he remained until Sunday, when he was taken to his own home. His lungs appear to be hurt and he has other internal injuries that have developed serious symptoms.

Joseph Mahler, as many another miner has found, has decided that Southern Oregon is a good mining country and far better than many of the much advertised districts, to which miners rush to only find that a few big strikes is the extent of the riches. Mr. Mahler left Grants Pass three years ago for California, where he spent a year. He then went to Arizona where for the last two years he has prospected with varying success. He found some good districts there but the weather was so intolerably hot that it was killing on a man to work or to travel while prospecting. Mr. Mahler is now satisfied to stay in Southern Oregon and he will in a few days start on a prospecting trip through the southern part of the county.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

The commencement exercises of the Grants Pass public schools were held last Friday evening in the opera house, which was well filled with an audience that greatly appreciated the many excellent features of the program. The stage was handsomely decorated with bunting in the school colors of red and white and the beautiful silk flag, recently won by the school in the merchants voting contest, was draped above the stage and made a handsome center piece.

Flowers were in profusion and there were many beautiful bouquets for the graduates and others taking part in the exercises.

The program opened by a well given chorus by the High School girls, with the piano accompaniment by Prof. M. W. Davenport. Miss Margaret Scovill, one of the graduates, then read a paper having for her subject—"Silent Influences." Miss Scovill handled her topic concisely and clearly and her paper was a credit to herself and the school. A piano duet by Miss Mabel Ryle and a Miss Florence Lamar was exceedingly well played. "The True Purpose of Education" was the topic of the paper by Miss Ruth Scovill, another of the graduates. There was nothing impractical in the thoughts expressed and what it was above the average of graduation essays and showed that the young lady fully comprehended the full bearing of her subject.

A piano solo by Miss Ethel Riggs was a pleasing feature of the musical selections. City Superintendent R. R. Turner then, in a short and well executed address, introduced President B. F. Mulkey, of the Southern Oregon State Normal at Ashland, who made the address to the graduates. It was a school talk from introductory to close and it is seldom that the work and results of the American schools are set forth so clearly and so practically as was done by President Mulkey. There was none of the pedantic, impractical ideas so often heard from college professors, but the sentiments were all practical and proved that the speaker was a practical man and held that education should be practical. President Mulkey held the close attention of his audience and he frequently was heartily applauded as he made a point that met the hearty endorsement of the large number of well dressed men and of mothers who were present. At the close of his address President Mulkey was given an encore that was highly expressive of the appreciation in which he was held in Grants Pass.

R. Thomas, president of the Grants Pass school board, then presented the diplomas to the graduates and to the members of the eighth grade class. Mr. Thomas made a short address to the boys and girls in which he gave them some helpful, practical advice. He made no predictions that some of the boys might be a governor or a president and the girls women of renown, but told them with a good, common school education, and with honesty, industry, morality and perseverance that they could hope to attain success in the walks of life that they should take up. A chorus by the school closed the program after which Superintendent Turner expressed the appreciation of the teachers and scholars to President Mulkey and the others who had assisted in the evening's exercises and to those attending for their helpful appreciation of the work of the school.

Prof. Turner left Sunday for Napoleon, Ohio, where he taught before coming to Grants Pass, where he will spend a week, after which he will go to his home in Stanton, Va., where he will spend the summer. He will return to Grants Pass the last of August to attend national educational congress that will be held in that city, after which he will return to Grants Pass to be in readiness when school opens the first Monday in September.

Prof. M. W. Davenport and wife will return to Connecticut to his former home. Miss Goodin will leave next Monday to spend the summer with relatives in Portland and Washington county. She has been elected to a position in the high schools of both Salem and Prineville, the latter town offering her $20 a month if she will take the position. As a token of their esteem the scholars of her room in the High School presented her with an elegant chaffing dish, and her class in the Methodist Sunday school gave her a fine china dish. Miss MacEwen goes to Baker City where she has been given a position in the schools of that city. Miss Alis Schneider has a position in the Eugene schools and will spend the summer at her home in that city. Miss McWilliams returned to her home in Ashland and will teach in the schools of that city next year. Miss Inez Kitchen returned to her home in Ashland.

They have a tunnel in some 400 feet and at the present there is a clear-cut vein between the walls of nearly four feet in width.

S. R. Green while on a recent trip to Mt Baldy found an eagle's nest in a tall tree on that butte. Last Sunday he went to the place and cut the tree down to get the young eagles that were in the nest. The fall was so great that one was killed but he secured the other and brought it home with him. The little fellow is taking kindly to his new life and bids fair to become a bird of eight or nine feet spread of wing and able to carry in his talons a pig or lamb as easily as a hawk carries a chicken.
