Mrs. Adelia Abernathy went to Portland last Friday to spend 10 days with friends and to see the fair. Mrs. W. T. Coburn and her sister, Miss Cora Baldwin, left Thursday for Portland to spend a week enjoying the sights at the Lewis and Clark fair. Mrs. James Hedden and son, James, stopped off Friday, while on a trip to California from their home at Drain, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clements. G. B. Conner, of San Francisco, is spending the week in Grants Pass. Mr. Conner is a well known California mining man and is looking over the mining possibilities of Southern Oregon. Miss R. A. Denman is spending a month on a trip north, viewing the sights at the fair and visiting with relatives in Seattle. She will return to Grants Pass about the middle of August. Miss Frances E. Stewart is in the city a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. D. Stricker. Miss Stewart resides in Chicago and is a teacher in the Chicago Cooking school and is spending her vacation on this coast. Miss Emma Aggeo spent last Monday in Grants Pass a guest of her former pupil, Miss Edna Distrow. Miss Aggeo closed a term of school last week at Trail, on upper Rogue river, and was on her way to her home at Wilbur. H. M. White is home from his mine on Thompson creek, laid up from some injuries received last Saturday while trying to stop a runaway team. Mr. White is not seriously hurt and expects to be able to return to his mine next week. Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Aspray of Moscow, Idaho, visited at the Episcopal manse this week. They left Thursday for Leland to spend a few days with Rev. and Mrs. Williams who are spending their vacation on a homestead. Dr. Aspray is with Dr. Gritman's hospital at Moscow. H. C. Kinney made a business trip to Hills Thursday. Dr. and Mrs. Walker went to Portland Sunday to visit the fair. Geo. Riddle on Thursday joined his family at Ashland for a few days visit. Mrs. Graham and her sister, Mrs. Farra, of Corvallis, went to Chautauqua Thursday. Rev. D. T. Sammerville was in Ashland last Friday and Saturday attending Chautauqua. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Holman went to Ashland Thursday to take in the closing days of Chautauqua. Ray Telford returned to his home at Klamath Falls Tuesday after a two weeks visit with friends and relatives here. Miss Lane and Miss Lyman, sister and niece of Mrs. Henry J. Bacher, are in Grants Pass from Chicago to spend a month with Mrs. Bacher. W. M. Hair went to Ashland Saturday to attend the Chautauqua and be with his family who are camped in the Chautauqua grove. He returned Tuesday. Tom Fry and Geo. Bacher returned last week from their Portland trip. Arthur Sampson, who went to Portland with them is now at Seaside with his mother. Mrs. J. Jennings left Wednesday for Newport for the summer. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hathaway and Ruth who will have rooms at the Jennings cottage. Mrs. A. R. Killough of Hanover, Ill., after a six-weeks visit with the Misses Telford left Tuesday for Klamath Falls to visit the H. C. Telford family, who were her neighbors in the East. H. H. Gilfrey, who for 30 years has been reading clerk of the United States Senate, and whose home is at Salem, spent Tuesday night in Grants Pass a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Perkins. Mr. Gilfrey is a cousin of Mrs. Perkins. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lucas are receiving visits from their daughters, Mrs. Herbert C. Sampson, who arrived Sunday from California to spend the summer and Mrs. R. W. Oakes of Southern Idaho, who arrived Friday to spend two weeks. A Mercer from Alpena, South Dakota, arrived in Grants Pass last Saturday to look over this section with a view of locating. He is a farmer and is desirous of getting to a country where there is more encouragement to a farmer than in Dakota. J. E. Curtis, one of the leading jewelers of Grants Pass, was stricken last Thursday evening, with a light stroke of paralysis. The attack is rapidly subsiding and Mr. Curtis is now able to be about his room and he expects to resume his work in a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolke and children will go to Portland Friday. Mr. Wolke will remain but a week to see the fair and to attend to some business for his firm, the Grants Pass Hardware Company, but Mrs. Wolke and children will stay a month in Portland on a visit with friends. J. W. Sovereign came up Tuesday from Portland to spend the week here to attend to some business in connection with a farm that he owns five miles southeast of this city located in the Green mountain pass to Applegate. Mr. Sovereign will return to Portland Saturday where he is a motorman on an electric car. Thomas Fry and William Fry returned Monday from their vacation, which they spent in Portland enjoying the interesting features of the fair. Tuesday the young men resumed their respective duties. Thomas as bookkeeper in the First National Bank and William as clerk in Dr. J. E. Smith's drug store. Mrs. C. E. Wickstrom, whose husband is a well known miner and logger of Evans creek, left Friday with her children to spend a month near St. Helens, at their former home on the Columbia river, with relatives. Mr. Wickstrom will be unable to go north this summer, owing to his business interests here, but he expects to make a trip to St. Helens this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Calvert returned Thursday from Phoenix, where they had been attending the previous day the funeral services for Mrs. Calvert's father, John B. Coleman, whose death took place at the family home in Phoenix on Monday from paralysis. Mr. Coleman was one of the pioneers of Rogue River valley and one of the best known and highly respected citizens of Jackson county. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swayne, their daughter, Miss Bertha, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Potter, returned Friday from a 10 days trip to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Potter had intended to locate in Portland but they found that city so overdone in every business that they decided that Grants Pass had more opportunities to offer to a new comer than its big neighbor, so they came back to permanently locate here. Dr. W. F. Kremer and Mrs. Kremer returned Monday from Portland where they had been for the previous week visiting the fair. While in Portland Dr. Kremer attended the sessions of the American Medical Association, of which he is a member. The sessions continued over three days and were divided into sections to take up special topics of medical and surgical science. Dr. Kremer attended the sections devoted to general practice and to surgery. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Hall and daughter, Rowena, arrived in Grants Pass Wednesday to spend a few days with Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Stricker. Mrs. Stricker is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who reside in Los Angeles, and they are on a tour of the United States and Canada. They go first to Portland to see the fair and from there they visit the Canadian cities and thence to Boston and return to their home by way of New York, Washington and New Orleans.

A Brief Record of Local Events.

Miss M. A. Barrett, Public Stenographer—Courier Building, 1st floor. Clemens, the druggist, ever alert to keep in the procession of progress, has had his drug store renovated and its attractiveness greatly improved, making it both in appearance and convenience equalled by few drug stores in Southern Oregon. Henry Walters has purchased the restaurant conducted by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Chapman and will operate it in connection with the restaurant he has in the adjoining building. Mr. Walters is having the annex thoroughly refitted and furnished and will make it one of the best restaurants in the city. Dr. George J. Bacher, who graduated high in his class this spring from the Portland Dental College, has opened an office in Roseburg for the practice of his profession. Dr. Bacher is a Grants Pass young man and has many friends here who wish him success in his new location. H. J. Eicher, while at Walters' restaurant Saturday making an estimate on the interior decorating, stepped behind a counter and into an open trap door. He fell into the basement striking on his side and receiving several bruises. Fortunately no bones were broken and Mr. Bacher is now able to do light work. Chas. Gresham, of Placer was making purchases in Grants Pass Tuesday. Mr. Gresham is a placer miner, and he stated that the Grave creek placers have all made their clean-ups for this season and have secured less gold than for any season for several years past, owing to the scarcity of water during last winter and this spring. Alfred Anderson was in Grants Pass Saturday conferring with parties with regard to the sale of a promising quartz claim he is developing on Paul creek, a tributary of Williams creek. Mr. Anderson has over 100 feet of tunnel work done and he has opened up a 4-foot vein of ore that carries good values and which is largely free milling. L. T. Jones, a millwright who had charge of the construction work on the new Lucky Queen 10-stamp mill, but who for the past six weeks has been prospecting on Jump-off-Joe, is spending the week in Grants Pass while under medical treatment. Through overwork and exposure in the hot sun while climbing hills he used himself up so he is compelled to take a layoff. It is reported that Joseph York, whose home is on Applegate about 13 miles south of Grants Pass, has been seriously injured in eastern Oregon where he had gone to work in the hay fields. The report is that his arm has been cut off by a mowing machine, either in a runaway or by the team starting up while he was cleaning the sickle. He was working some 45 miles beyond Lakeview and had to be brought to that town by team before anything could be done toward caring for the injury. If his condition permits he will probably be brought home immediately. Fred Mensch left on Thursday for Douglas county to complete the survey of public lands under his contract. He was accompanied by Melvin Andrew and John Colvig who will assist him in the survey. The remainder of the crew will be secured on the ground. The land to be surveyed consists of five sections in township 29 south, range 6 west, lying south of Dillard; six sections in township 30 and 12 sections in township 29 south, range 1 west. This tract lies near the headwaters of the South Umpqua river some 40 miles above Canyonville. It will probably require four or five weeks work to complete the survey.

The Hotel Josephine barbershop was reopened this week with George Kneudson, of St. Paul and Tina Sheppard of Seattle in charge. Both are first class barbers and will give a service that will be the equal of the best barbershop in Southern Oregon. The bath room is in order and patrons of the Hotel Josephine barber shop will find everything to their liking be it a shave, a bath or a shine. Clark Nickerson was in Grants Pass Tuesday from Deer creek where he has resided since early in the spring he having rented the farm of William Turner. Mr. Nickerson will move back to Grants Pass this fall as his wife is yet rather feeble as the result of a fall this summer from a wagon, and will occupy the dwelling house he owns on South Sixth street near the meeting house of the Church of God. Mr. Nickerson also owns other property in this city. Dr. Beard returned Sunday from attendance at the American Medical Association meeting at Portland and can now be found at his office. Mrs. Beard who was with the doctor at Portland has gone to Seattle to spend two weeks with her mother and sister. There were nearly 2000 physicians in attendance at the meetings and with the wives and daughters it made nearly 5000 people. They were given receptions and entertainments, street car and boat rides and altogether made a full week for the medical profession. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. White and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hestand arrived in Grants Pass Thursday and are looking over the city with a view of locating. They are from Syracuse, Nebraska, and are friends of W. M. and J. E. Hair, they being neighbors when the Hair brothers resided in Nebraska. Mr. White is a real estate dealer and he is so well pleased with the prosperous, bustling appearance of Grants Pass that he may locate here. Mr. Hestand is a farmer and he too is well pleased with the appearance of this section and may locate here. Cashier H. L. Gilkey, of the First National Bank, left Thursday for Hoquiam, Wash., where he will enjoy for a couple of weeks the refreshing ocean air of that seaport. Mrs. Gilkey and son, Winfield, have been at Hoquiam for the past two weeks with her parents and Mr. Gilkey will join her. Miss Wilma will remain in Grants Pass. During Mr. Gilkey's absence the office work of the bank will be in charge of Roy Hackett, the assistant cashier, and Thomas Fry, the bookkeeper. J. D. Fry, formerly cashier of the bank, and one of the stockholders will assist the young men in attending to any intricate financial matter that may arise. J. R. Rush was in Grants Pass Saturday from the Lucky Queen mine near Jump-off-Joe. Mr. Rush with his father, Benjamin Rush, and H. A. Corliss are the owners of the Lucky Queen mine, and which they bonded last year to Spokane parties. These parties put up a fine 10 stamp mill but before they got it ready for operation this spring a disagreement among the stockholders financially embarrassed the company and all work was shut down at the mine. Mr. Rush stated that it was the understanding that a meeting would soon be held at which the stockholders would decide as to what would be their future plans in regard to operating the mill or to sell it. A. L. Swayne has his brick business block on North Sixth street completed and ready for occupancy. The work of putting in the shelving and counters was completed last week by E. R. Cole and in arrangement and workmanship the finishing of the rooms is very handsome and complete. Mr. Swayne may rent the building but if not he will open it as a first-class grocery store. Mr. Swayne was in that business in Tulsa, I. T. prior to his coming to Oregon last winter and he has shown himself to be an energetic, thorough business man. Mr. Swayne is so well pleased with Grants Pass that he recently sold all his holdings in Tulsa and will invest in property in this city as he considers Grants Pass real estate a first class investment. Dr. Cora B. Lemon, of Portland, is in Grants Pass to spend a month with friends. Dr. Lemon completed this spring a four year course in medicine and graduated with high honors from the Portland Medical College. After taking a brief rest Dr. Lemon will leave the first of September for the East where she will take special work in a branch that she will make a specialty in her practice. She will return to Oregon in the spring and locate in Grants Pass. Dr. Lemon, with her parents, was a former resident of this city, and was a successful and popular teacher for two years in the city schools and she has many friends here who are pleased with her success in her new vocation and who would give her a hearty welcome should she decide to locate in Grants Pass. Mrs. Miles M. Mee has sold her restaurant to Mrs. H. E. Brown, and moved to the Rogers house on West F street. Mrs. Mee though having a prosperous business, decided to give up the restaurant as Mr. Mee had to be away all the time, he being in charge of the sawmill and of the construction work of putting in the new penstock at the Golden Drift Company's dam. Mrs. Brown has been conducting a small dry goods and notion store on North Sixth street but she has placed that in charge of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Waughtal. Mrs. Brown will devote her entire time to the restaurant and being herself an expert cook she will be able to see that the services given is first class and as good meals served as to be had in Grants Pass. Mrs. Waughtal will add millinery to the stock of goods in their store. GOOD PASTURAGE for cows or horses, joining the town limits. For particulars call at Heck & Hays stable.

Change of Management. A change in management of the Garman-Hemenway Department store took place this week. W. A. Hemenway retiring to be succeeded by his father, James Hemenway. Mr. James Hemenway is senior member of the firm of Garman-Hemenway Company conducting large department store in Grants Pass, Cottage Grove and Silverton. Mr. Hemenway has resided at Cottage Grove until last spring when he went to Silverton to take charge of their store at that place. He is a progressive man and of large experience in the mercantile business and he will be a good addition to the Grants Pass business community. Mr. W. A. Hemenway goes to Silverton to assume the management of their store at that place and he and Mrs. Hemenway left Thursday for their new home. Mr. Hemenway has proved himself to be a progressive, thorough business man and his departure from Grants Pass is regretted by many who wish him well in his new vocation. Mrs. Hemenway has been president of the Grants Pass Woman's Club for the past year and she has been prominent in literary and religious interests. She is a woman of high attainments and Silverton is fortunate in securing her as a resident for she will be of great assistance in all movements for the intellectual and moral welfare of that town. Real Estate Transfers. John H. Williams, et al. to J. B. Howard, Lot 6, Block 25, Original Township, Also to Col. Johnson, Lots 22 and 24, Block 45. "Who hath not perceived while beauty's perfume eye Asks from his heart the pleasure of a sigh" Beauty in a shoe, as far as style and shape is concerned, may be discovered at a glance, but quality cannot always be judged in advance unless you are an expert. Keen observation avails you nothing. That is exactly why you should come to us when you want the kind of shoes that will wear for a long time and give you satisfaction while they do wear. All you have to make certain of when you buy here is that the shoe fits you comfortably. Our John H. Cross shoe for ladies, manufactured at Lynn, Mass., insures both style, wearing qualities and fit, none better. LADIES with tender feet, DOES COMFORT in a shoe mean anything to you? If so step into a pair of GROVER'S Soft Shoes for tender feet, strictly hand made. Each dollar purchase entitles you to a chance on the piano. R. L. BARTLETT Grants Pass, Oregon.
