GRANTS PASS SCHOOLS BEGIN YEAR'S WORK

Enrollment on Opening Day Larger Than Any Previous Year.

The Grants Pass schools opened Monday with as promising an outlook for a successful school year as has ever been had. The enrollment the first day was 249 for the three school buildings, which is an increase of 37 over the enrollment for the first day of last year. Many children are yet picking hops, but that work will close this week and they will be able to enter school next week. A large number of families are yet at the sawmills, mines and farms, where they have been for the summer where the men and boys were employed. These families will soon move back to town and add fully 100 children to the school roll. There are also many families who will temporarily move to Grants Pass or who will send their children to school here. The Grants Pass high school is free to all pupils in Josephine county, the county contributing to its maintenance. The attendance of the high school has been gaining each year and this year there will be a larger number of pupils than ever before in attendance, both from the city and the county. The assignment of teachers for this year is as follows:

- City superintendent, R. R. Turner.
- High school—Principal, A. E. Harrison; first assistant, Miss Nora S. Bridge; second assistant, Miss A. H. Walker.
- Central School—Eighth grade, Miss Sadie G. Agnew; seventh grade, Miss Minnie L. Tufts; sixth grade, Miss Nellie M. Ames; fifth grade, Miss Ermine Rathbun; fourth grade, Miss Alice M. Pool; third grade, Miss Lillian Peck.
- East School—Sixth grade, J. A. Blah; fifth grade, Miss Blanche

Crane; fourth grade, Miss Elizabeth Holgate; third grade, Miss Adelia C. Mulkey; second grade, Miss Amy L. Cherry; first grade, Miss Calla Hoslin.

South School—Third grade, Miss Lucie George; second grade, Miss Winnifred Guthrie; first grade, Miss Lillian Hogan.

Grants Pass being a district of the first class has the right to fix the qualifications that are required for teachers in its schools. This rule has never been put in force before but it was decided to provide an examining board for the purpose and at the meeting of district board last week City Superintendent R. R. Turner, County Superintendent Lincoln Savage and R. W. Clark were appointed members of the board.

To be in readiness for the opening of school the board has had the buildings put in perfect order. At the High School the old unsightly bicycle shed has been torn down and a place provided in the alcove by the basement entrance in which scholars may leave their bicycles. The alcove, which is bound by three walls of the main building was covered with a roof and racks placed on each side to hold the wheels. A large reading table, with a rack through its center has been placed in the library room. During the vacation a number of fine reference books were received for the school library that had been ordered in the spring by City Superintendent Turner. In order to inculcate habits of reading and to enable the scholars and teachers to keep posted on the events of the day Supt. Turner has subscribed for all the leading magazines and periodicals. Through the efforts of the teachers and scholars over $200 was raised last term to add to the library fund. This with what the board has appropriated has enabled Supt. Turner to make such additions to the library as will make it of much value in the school and a credit to Grants Pass.

This being the second year for City Superintendent Turner in the schools of this city he is able to better organize the work and while the schools did good work last year, there is every promise of better work being done this year. A part of the teachers have never taught in Grants Pass, but they come with such strong endorsements of their work in other schools that it may be assumed that they will give good satisfaction here. The teachers heretofore in the schools have been so successful in their work that they will be certain to do their full part to keep up the high standard of the Grants Pass schools and to make them the equal of the best in the state.

Political Pot Simmering.

Hon. S. E. Huston arrived in Grants Pass Wednesday from his home at Hillsboro and remained over until Thursday when he left for Jackson county. Mr. Huston is a candidate for congress for this district and he is out looking over the situation to see what his political prospects are in Southern Oregon.

Mr. Huston has visited most of the counties in the First district and he states that his chances for winning the nomination in the primary election is most encouraging. The contest though for congressman will be a lively one for there will be six or eight candidates after the position. The other candidates beside Mr. Huston, will include Hon. W. L. Vawter of Medford, Ex. Governor T. T. Geer of Salem, Hon. C. B. Moore of Oregon City, Congressman Elmer Hermann of Roseburg, Hon. Claude Gatch of Salem.

So far the only man whose candidacy has assumed any strength for the Democratic nomination is Hon. R. G. Smith of Grants Pass and it now looks as if Mr. Smith will have the co test all to himself in the Democratic party.
