B. Y. P. U MEET IN CONVENTION

Sessions Being Held in First Baptist Church of Grants Pass.

The First Baptist church is entertaining a convention of the Young People of the Rogue River Baptist Association, which embraces the Baptist churches of Josephine and Jackson counties. This is the first convention of its kind to be held in this Association and is the outgrowth of some suggestions which were made to Roy K. Hackett when the association held its annual meeting in Merlin last June. Since that time Mr. Hackett has taken the initiative in visiting the various churches of the valley and stirring up their interests. The result has been that some 30 or 40 delegates have come together from Ashland, Medford and other points up the valley. A program has been arranged during which there will be discussions of the varied phases of Young People's work.

Pastors Baker of Ashland, Carstens of Medford, and Travis of this City, Missionary Austin of the association will have places on the program as will also Miss Carrie O. Millsbaugh of Portland, the State Secretary of the Young People.

It is hoped that by closer fellowship and more unified effort, larger work will be done in the surrounding districts, where at present, no work is being attempted.

Friday evening the delegates will be met at the train by a committee from the local society and escorted to the home of J. D. Drake where the church people have prepared supper for all. The service at the church will begin at 7:45 and an address will be given by Miss Millsbaugh on "The Value of an Association Organization for Our Young People."

It is expected to form a permanent organization in order that an annual convention may be held in connection with the associational gathering. The meetings are all public and the young people especially are cordially invited.

Following is the program for Saturday:

W. C. T. U. Column
All matter for this column is supplied by the Grants Pass Woman's Christian Temperance Union.
The 20th annual meeting of Oregon Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in The Dalles, Oregon, October 2-6. We expect a full delegation to leave Grants Pass about October 3, and take in the fair on the return home. National Convention will be held at Los Angeles, October 22 to November 1, 1905. World Convention, Boston, Mass., June, 1906.
The Women's Christian Temperance Union held their annual meeting for election of officers in the League room of the Methodist church. Officers were elected by ballot as follows: President, Mrs. H. L. Calvert; vice-president, Mrs. C. V. Henkle; Treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Wade; recording secretary, Mrs. Geo. Howard; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. W. Hood.
Delegates were also elected to attend State Convention at The Dalles, October 3 to 6 inclusive. Mrs. Henkle represented the county. Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Langhridge, Mrs. Ament and Mrs. Perry to represent the Local Union. Alternates, Mrs. Fay, Mrs. Calvert, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Coe and Miss Lomas.
Reports of officers and reports intended were given showing energetic work done. The president had missed but one meeting during the year. The Secretary reported 24 regular and eight business meetings. Treasurer reported double the membership and twice as much in the treasury as at the close of last year. Her secretary reported $31.00 and for state dues during the year, and over $50 spent for other temperance work, also one institute, one social and one Sunday school temperance rally. About 18 departments were taken up and most of them held successful meetings. A report of each might make this article too long, so I will give but a few to give some idea of work done.

Forty-five thousand, seven hundred fifty pages of good literature have been distributed, our Mother's meetings held, we have a list of 27 co-workers in the Union Signal and several to the Crusader Monthly. In the department of Franchise we secured 100 names to petition for the unsealing of Senator Smoot in Congress, and sent over 200 names signed to the petition for Woman suffrage to come before the people at the June election, besides doing other work in this line.

The column in the Courier so kindly granted us by Mr. Woodley has recently been supplied.
While we are glad of the success of the past year, we look forward with hope and inspiration for the coming year, striving to do what we can— "for God, and home and every land."
The Pacific Issue has run time to time printed the addresses of Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, on the salmon's relation to prosperity. In the recent campaign in Los Angeles, Dr. Jordan gave the following strong endorsement of the no-license policy as being beneficial to business prosperity as well as to moral welfare.
"There is no possible question that business prosperity in any town rises as the salmon disappears. The money that is expended to the salmon is divided between the liquor manufacturer on the one hand and the saloon keepers and middle men on the other hand. It does not go into the stock of wealth of the community, but is as much destroyed, so far as the community is concerned, as though it were thrown in the sea. At the same time two-thirds of the economic value of the ability of every man who exists saloons at all is lost through the weakness that comes from drink. When people become accustomed to clean towns without saloons, cess-pools, piggens, and dens of vice, they will not tolerate any or all of these influences afterward"—Pacific Issue.

Walter Wynant
A very pretty wedding occurred on Tuesday, September 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wynant near New Hope, when their daughter, Miss Lydia L. Wynant, was united in matrimony to Geo. D. Walter (Rev. H. H. Brown of Bethany Presbyterian church, Grants Pass, officiated). At 1 o'clock as the organ played Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bride, beautifully attired in white, appearing leaning on the arm of her bridesmaid, the groom being attended by his best man, Clarence C. Wynant, the brother of the bride. They took their places under a beautiful arch of flowers, formed by Mrs. Messinger, in the large bay window where they were pronounced husband and wife. After congratulations, they all repaired to the dining room where the wedding dinner awaited them. Both parties are well known here, the bride having lived all her life here where she is a general favorite among her acquaintances. The groom was a former resident of this county but for the past year has been at Newcrest, Idaho. They left here on the evening train for Portland and other points of interest, departing amid a shower of rice. Several of their friends met them at the train to bid them God-speed on their journey. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. English; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Slover, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Messinger and children, Mrs. Ira Tomkins, Miss Blanche Dean, Miss Gladys Brown, of Texas, Mrs. Edith Bakkef, also Mr. H. H. Brown and wife, three brothers of the bride and one sister, Miss Florence Wynant, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wynant.

Perl Houck Deceased.
Perl Webster Houck, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Houck, was born May 8th, 1879, at Newton, Jasper county, Ia. When 3 years of age his parents moved to Nebraska, and at the age of 14 he came with them to Grants Pass, where the remainder of his life has been spent.

He was known as an industrious, upright young man; of a retiring disposition but of a cheerful, genial nature, which won for him the friendship of those with whom he worked and associated. Always free from the evil tendencies, habits and appetites too commonly found in young men, he lived a blameless life throughout, and did much for the material welfare and comfort of his parents. A few months previous to his death he was brought under unusual Christian influences and as a result was converted and became an attendant and expectant member of the Presbyterian church. His last illness which was exceedingly painful, was borne with fortitude and he faced the probabilities of death without fear and with the assurance that it was well with his soul. The end came at about midday, September 15th. The funeral services were held in the Bethany Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. H. H. Brown, assisted by Rev. W. T. Gonjler.

A noticeable feature of the occasion was the abundance of floral offerings. The burial which took place at the Granite Hill cemetery was in charge of the Modern Woodmen's lodge, of which he was a member.
He leaves a father, mother, two brothers and one sister and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss.
