THE JOSEPHINE COUNTY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Lately Organized—Object Promotion of Harmony and Progress Among Members.

Union and co-operation is the watchword of today and every interest and class of people is gradually being amalgamated into societies, combines and trusts. Every industrial interest has its unions and the lawyers, doctors, dentists, newspaper men, merchants, bankers, ministers and in fact about every vocation has been unionized more or less. The banks have their associations, the railroads their combines and the big financiers their trusts. Even the farmers are feeling the impulse of the times, and in the more progressive and thickly settled sections unions have been formed for fruitgrowers, stockmen and other agricultural interests and the grange and other organizations solidify the interests and advance the well being of the people of the rural districts.

Unions and kindred organizations, when rightly used materially advance the welfare of those taking part, and also do much to bring higher ideals and a general betterment of conditions for the world at large. By bringing about co-operation it enables more to be accomplished by a given effort than through individual work. When the proper feeling controls, these unions do much to eradicate jealousy and unfair competition, and to encourage a spirit of co-operation, education, and of mutual interest in each other's welfare that makes for the common good of all.

Having this in mind the physicians of Grants Pass and of the county have organized the Josephine County Medical Association, with the present membership made up of Doctors F. W. Van Dyke, W. H. Flaagan, J. C. Smith, D. P. Love, Loughbridge, M. C. Findley, W. F. Kremer, F. D. Stricker, T. E. Beard, G. H. Douglas and R. C. Kealey.

A meeting was held Tuesday evening for permanent organization at the office of Drs. Findley and Loughbridge, which was attended by all the members except Drs. Beard and Douglas, who were called that evening to patients. After business of the meeting was transacted a very pleasant social hour was had. Mrs. Findley and Miss Loughbridge acted as hostesses and served an appetizing lunch of coffee, sandwiches, fruits and nuts. In addition to these ladies there were also present Mrs. Love, Mrs. Stricker and Mrs. Kealey. At this meeting Dr. Van Dyke was elected president, Dr. Flaagan vice-president, and Dr. Smith secretary and treasurer. A committee was appointed to draw up permanent constitution and by-laws and a committee was also selected to prepare a fee bill to govern all professional charges made by the members. The consensus of opinion was that there should be no material change in the present charges except for night trips. It was agreed that the present fee for night trips to the country was inadequate to the expense for repairs to vehicles and the wear of horseflesh as well as the hardship to the physician. This raise in fees being practically an addition to the bad road indirect tax that the farmers of Josephine county are paying. Another object in raising the night fee was to stimulate both town and country people to not wait until midnight to call a physician, but to where possible, attend to that duty during the day, or early evening.

The principal purpose of the Association is social and educational, the fixing of a uniform fee bill being a minor object. Doctors are too prone to live within a little world to themselves and to be jealous and distrustful of their fellow practitioners. To break this spirit down and to build up one of generosity and co-operation will be the work of the Association. In the line of education it is expected to make the Association of much benefit to its members. All progressive physicians desire to increase their knowledge pertaining to their profession and after often take post graduate courses. Every physician in his practice has cases involving rare complications and difficult and new methods of treatment. To share with his fellow physicians the knowledge gained in the diagnosis and treatment of such cases will be expected of the members of the Association. Meetings of the Association will be held at least once a month and at each time some topic, previously assigned or selected by a member, will be considered, making it in effect a practical school of medicine and surgery.

If the doctors of Grants Pass are able to carry out the broad, helpful plans of the Josephine County Medical Association it will be another evidence of the progressiveness of this community. Such medical associations are common in the Eastern states and they are doing much to make more pleasant and agreeable the lot of the physician which is not the life of ease that it is generally held to be, and to check the tendency of getting into a rut and fossilizing, as some doctors do, but to stimulate a desire to progress and to keep up with the advancement of medical science, which is developing to higher standards quite as rapidly as any of the other sciences.

ILLINOIS BANKER PRAISES GRANTS PASS

Thinks City and County a Good Place for Profitable Investment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fullenwider left Monday for their home in Mechanicsburg, Illinois, after spending three weeks in Grants Pass guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hall, the two ladies being sisters. Mr. Fullenwider is at the head of the banking house of A. T. Thompson & Co., one of the largest financial concerns in that part of Illinois. Mr. L. B. Hall was also financially interested and held a position with this bank until two years ago when he sold out and came to Grants Pass.

Mr. Fullenwider was free to express his opinion that Grants Pass has many prospects of becoming a city of considerable size and a trading and manufacturing point of much importance. In company with Mr. Hall he visited several of the mines of the district and he also saw much of the valley and thinks that with its many resources it will become a prosperous section and be a good place in which to make investments as also in which to settle.

The hall was very tastefully decorated with evergreens, and punch was served to the dancers during the evening, from a neat little booth decorated in green and white, at one end of the hall. The evening being clear and cold, and just right for dancing, a very enjoyable time was spent by all present.

BOYS MUST STAY AT HOME NIGHTS

The Curfew Law Is to Be Strictly Enforced—Offenders Will be Arrested.

There are a number of boys in Grants Pass who are liable to find lodgings in the city jail some night and at no distant date either, if they are not off the streets and at their homes very soon after the curfew bell rings. Complaint has been made from several sections of the city about bands of boys, in numbers ranging from three to a dozen and in age from 10 to 18 years, being on the streets to as late as midnight, and by yelling, whistling and making other noises prevent orderly people, who are home and in their beds, from sleeping. These bands of young hoodlums have been guilty in several instances of doing petty mischief and of being very rough in their conduct. Mayor Good is not inclined to allow a boy hoodlum any more latitude than he is a hobo man and he has given orders to the night policemen to quietly go through the residence sections of the city and arrest every boy they find on the streets after 9 o'clock and put them in jail despite their pleadings. And the city jail is a pretty tough place for a boy to sleep in, who is used to having a nice warm bed, for at the jail there is no fire at all and the cells are cold and damp and a hard cement floor and a couple of blankets is the extent of the city's hospitality to hoodlum boys and hobo men.

This warning is not intended for the boys at all, for the police will attend to that, but it is to let the fathers and mothers know where they can find their boys if they fail to come home at once after the curfew bell has rung.
