THE OBSERVER SHOOTS
WIDE OF THE MARK

Makes Reflections Not Suitable and Only Reflected on Former City Recorder.

Councilman Chausse, who is one of the publishers of the Observer, has put himself in somewhat of an embarrassing position by publishing in his paper some grave charges of neglect of duty by the city officials. He specially charges Recorder J. M.
Booth with not turning over license fees to the city treasurer and with not making a monthly report to the council. He broadly intimates that the mayor was directed in not seeing that the licenses were collected by the recorder and the marshal and properly accounted for. And he implies that the council has been equally negligent in not having a monthly report from the recorder and not properly looking after the well-fare of the taxpayers.

The proceedings of the council show that Councilman Chausse has never uttered a word or even intimated that the mayor, the recorder and the marshal were not properly doing their duty. A councilman is required by his oath of office and his integrity and business capacity to guard the interests of the city and if he knows of the neglect of duty or the infraction of a law by a member of the city government he should make it known to the council that action may be taken to enforce the city ordinance.

Councilman Chausse in his paper charges that only $10 in license money has been turned into the city treasurer since Recorder C. E. Maybee went out of office the first of last April. He further claims that during 1904 there was collected $140 for show licenses and $88 for dray licenses and in January of this year $13 of licenses that were due in the previous year and were not collected, making a total for the year of $361. According to Councilman Chausse's statement Recorder Maybee in the three months of 1905 that he was in office was somewhat neglectful as he only turned in $30 for show licenses, and does not say whether or not he turned in other licenses or fines.

As the Observer directly charges Recorder Booth with either not collecting the licenses and fines, or if he has of not turning them into the city treasurer, Mr. Booth makes a statement to refute these charges. By his statement he proves that he has turned into the city treasurer in the nearly eight months since he has been in office $132.50 for show licenses, $33 for dray licenses, $37.50 for pound fees, $5 for peddlers licenses, and $56 in fines. Making a total of $306.50, for the 7 1/2 months. The dray licenses will not all be collected until the close of the year. There has also been turned in $108.75 of road poll tax collected by the street commissioner.

These reports show that Mr.
Maybee, in the 15 months of last year and this year, turned into the city treasurer, according to the Observer's statement, a total of $391, while Mr.
Booth shows that in the 7 1/2 months of his term as recorder he has put into the city treasurer's hands a total of $373. The Observer's attack was for the purpose of defeating Mayor Good for re-election and of electing Mr.
Maybee, mayor. Just how well Councilman Chausse's campaign of misrepresentation will succeed the election in December will show. It is quite likely to have the opposite effect than intended by the negligent councilman and will elect Mr. Good by a very large majority.

And make us lose the good we oft might win By fearing to attempt."

CITY CAMPAIGN ON AND PROVES TO BE HOT

Nominations Made—Registration Closes Next Friday—
Election December 4.

The conventions for nominating candidates for councilmen from the various wards of the city were held this Thursday evening.

In the First ward the convention was held at the Central school building and W. M. Hair, of Hair-Riddle Hardware Company, and one of the present councilmen for the First ward was nominated and was the only candidate put up.

The Second ward convention was held at the Court House. The nominations made for this ward were T.
W. Williams and Dennis Stovall. Mr.
Williams is one of the present councilmen from the First ward and is a partner with his brother, J. H. Williams in operating a planing mill in this city and a saw mill on Cheney creek. Mr. Stovall is the well known newspaper correspondent and writer.

The Third Ward convention was held at the City Hall. The terms of both councilmen in this ward expire with this municipal year, Councilman Will Smith having served his full term and Councilman F. W.
Chausse filling by appointment the position vacated by Eugene Cass, and as an appointed officer can only hold until the first election. For the one year period to complete the term now held by Mr. Chausse, there were two nominations. Mr. Chausse, who is one of the publishers of the Observer, and Lincoln Savage, school superintendent for Josephine county. For the two year term there were also two candidates, August Fetsch and Peter Gravlin. Mr. Fetsch, until it burned last summer, was the owner and manager of the brewery and saloon in South Grants Pass on the Kerby stage road. He is now conducting the Layton hotel and saloon. Mr. Gravlin is a teamster and for several months past has hauled granite for sidewalks.

For the Fourth ward the convention was held in the Salvation Army hall and the nominees were T. Y.
Dean and W. T. Coburn. Mr. Dean is one of the present councilmen from the Fourth ward and is a partner with C. A. Dickson in the Black Horse Livery Stable. Mr. Coburn is a partner with S. J. Hawkins in a saloon on West G street.

The nominations for mayor will be made this Friday evening at the Court House, to be participated in by voters from all the wards. The only candidates so far mentioned are Mayor George E. Good and Attorney C. E. Maybee. The contest over the office of mayor promises to be the chief element of interest in the municipal campaign with Mayor Good as the chief storm center. Some of the church people are opposing his election because they claim he has not been vigorous enough in making Grants Pass a closed town, while the saloonmen and the sporting fraternity are opposed to him because he has closed down on them too hard. Mr.
Maybee is supported by these same church people, who expect him to close up the town, and the saloon men look with favor on him as a mayor who would open up the town. The Observer and Robert Glenn Smith are also supporting Mr. Maybee.
There are several people though, supporting Mr. Good and he is likely to be re-elected.

The registration books will be kept open by Recorder J. M. Booth until Friday, December 1 at 5 p. m. All men are entitled to register and to vote who are citizens of Oregon and have been residents of the ward in which they are to vote for more than 60 days prior to the election.
Those not registering and desiring to vote will have to get six freeholders to swear to their qualification. The election will be held on Monday, December 4.

"Speaker" is the name of a new Josephine county post office established this month, with L. Speaker as postmaster. Speaker is at the Hole in the Ground, six miles up Wolf creek from the town of Wolf Creek.
Mr. Speaker, who is also stockkeep-er, was in Grants Pass this week laying in stock for his store.

Provoit to Entertain In suite Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Provoit, accompanied by Mr. Provoit's sister, Miss Orlia Provoit, and Mrs. E. M. Spencer, came in from Provoit Tuesday to do winter shopping and stayed over night guests of friends in the city.
Miss Provoit, whose health has been somewhat impaired, remained in Grants Pass, a guest at the home of Mrs. Coffman. Mr. and Mrs. Provoit and Mrs. Spencer returned to their homes Wednesday.

While in the city Mr. and Mr. Pro-voit and Mrs. Spencer called at the Courier office to state that arrangements were being made by the farmers about Provoit for the farmers institute that is to be held at that place the first week in February under the auspices of the State Agricultural College.

They gave the assurance that a large attendance would be had at this institute, for the farmers being through their farm work would have time to attend. From word they had received they were certain many would attend from Williams, Missouri Flat, Applegate and Murphy districts, for Provoit being in the center was easy of access to all sections of the Applegate Valley. To add to the pleasures of the day and to extend to the farmers and their wives, sons and daughters, for all are wanted to attend, who may come from a distance, and to the speakers, the hospitality for which Provoit has a good record, a fine dinner will be given by the citizens of Provoit. Mr. Provoit stated that all were working together with a will to make the institute at Provoit the largest in attendance and the most successful of those that will be held in Rogue River Valley this February by Dr. Withcombe and associates.

Grants Pass Wins Championship.

The football game this Friday afternoon between the High School teams of Grants Pass and Roseburg was the hardest contested and most exciting of all the games played this season by the Grants Pass boys. It was hard, close playing from start to finish and gave the rosters ample chance to display their enthusiasm in which they were not backward.

The attendance was less than that at the last game. The Grants Pass team was made up strictly of school boys, and though lighter in weight, put up a game that gave them the score of 12 to 11.

This game gives the Grants Pass high school boys the championship of Southern Oregon.

Temperance Union.

Our last regular meeting was held at the Baptist church, Friday, November 17. We were glad of a good attendance and the opportunity to greet Mrs. Margaret Munns, corresponding secretary of the Washington State W. C. T. U., and the opportunity to hear her speak for a few minutes of the National Convention and words of cheer for us.

Mrs. Munns is a college friend of Mrs. J. E. Travis and stopped to visit her on her way home from Los Angeles.

Though some are careless and indifferent concerning this great evil of intemperance, many are being roused to see the danger of uncontrolled evil, and in several of the late elections vice has been put aside and the right has triumphed. So the good work goes on and no matter who does it we are glad of it all. "Line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little, there a little," and let us keep in mind the watchwords of our organization "Agitate, Educate, Organize."

Miss Hessie Ternham gave us a recitation. Arrangements were made for a Union Sunday School Temperance Rally on the afternoon of November 26, to be held at the Presbyterian church. Everybody cordially invited. Do not fail to attend.

DEED.

WINDOM—At Tacoma, Wash., Miss Hazel Windom, daughter of Mrs.
Lettie Windom, and a former resident of Grants Pass.

(Of the funeral the Tacoma Ledger has the following:

"The funeral of Hazel Windom from the First Methodist church was impressive and was attended by many students from the High school, which was dismissed out of respect for the dead. Miss Windom was 15 years of age and the only daughter of Mrs.
Lettie Windom. She died Monday, following an operation for appendicitis. She was a student of the High school and her friends filled every seat in the church. Rev. Mr. Marlatt made a very effective address. A floral piece of extraordinary beauty was given by high school students.

Another handsome floral tribute was from the daughters of Hor. Smaller pieces almost hid the casket. Music was rendered by girls of the High school and six young men students of the High school were the pallbearers.

CANTATA, PILLAR OF FIRE.

The Cantata "The Pillar of Fire" presented at the Presbyterian church Sunday under the direction of H. C.
Kinney was one of the most pleasing musical events ever given in Grants Pass and was enjoyed by a large number of people as the church was crowded.
The choruses rendered were highly commended as were also the solo parts.
Perhaps the most enjoyable number

Men Past Sixty in Danger More than half of mankind over 60 years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for 20 years although I am now 91 years old." For sale by H. A. Rotermund.
