ter, Edith, arrived in Grants Pass last

W. H. Royce who owns a fine hay and stock ranch of 310 acres on Williams creek was in Grants Pass Monday. While here Mr. Royce sold 37 hogs which he will deliver this Friday to Karner's meat market. The hogs have been fattened on alfalfa and acorns and then finished off on grain and are as healthy and perfect a band of porkers as ever were brought to Grants Pass.

Mrs. R. A. Booth arrived in Grants Pass Tuesday on the 10 a. m. train, from her home at Eugene, to meet her husband Senator R. A. Booth, who has been on a business trip of two

Mrs. Josephine Thornton has been extremely low since her return from Sheriff Lewis and other friends of the family met the young man at the train and carried him on a stretcher to a furnished suite of rooms, which the Sheriff had secured near his own residence, for the use of stood the journey fairly well, but his condition is serious though hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The Grants Pass Steam Laundry had an accident to their boiler Monday morning that necessitated a shutdown for that day. Manager Hall of the Grants Pass Iron & Steel Works made the necessary repairs and Tuesday the laundry resumed operations.
now employs six men and two women.
The business has so increased the past year and the outlook is so encouraging for the future that Manager J.
W. Baker has under consideration the enlarging of the plant. In addition to local work the Grants Pass Laundry gets much work from the various small towns and the outlying districts in Rogue River Valley, and such is the satisfaction given that this patronage is steadily increasing.

Kerby Sunday school will give a

WHEN YOU MAKE PRESENTS

Let them be of such things as will last long; to the end they may be in some sort immortal, and may frequently refresh the memory of the receiver.
For a present there is nothing more acceptable
