

LAUREL GROVE

Harry Day is farming for Oscar A. Williams.
 Grandma Williams is on the sick list this week.
 Fred Weatherbe is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Emily Day.
 Everybody is busy making garden, as Spring has come.
 Cigars are plenty through there as it is nearing primary election.
 Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Mary Wood as teacher; the children all report well of her.
 All our crops are looking fine and if late rains hold out we will charter a car next Fall to Portland.
 All are planting garden at present, they seeming to think Spring has come. We hope they are right.
 There seems to be coonars in the vicinity of Powell's creek, but none around here, at least we don't see any.
 Fred Knox is out for commissioner on the republican ticket. The writer thinks he will run for justice of the peace. He would if the ladies could vote.
 Ed Swinden has been looking for his cattle of late. Range is getting cold in this valley and most all stock cattle will soon be driven back to the mountains.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Lindsay were pleasantly surprised on last Thursday night by the young folks of Murphy and Laurel Grove. They are a lively set out here and would surprise most anybody when they take a notion.
 A panther tried to hold up the stage between Grants Pass and Williams one day of this week, but being a small one, it was captured and taken on as a passenger, for the city. Ed says he is going to make a pet of it for his boy.
 Elmer Williams left for Wilderville one day this week to commence work for Andrew Sheehan on his large ranch.
 See H. B. Hendricks for good investments in town or country property (or raving gold mines) five years in the real estate business. He rents houses, negotiates loans on good investments and writes insurance in the Oregon Mutual at "living" rates. Office on ground floor opposite post-office, Grants Pass, Ore.

WILDERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCann's babe has almost recovered from its sick spell.
 Farmers seem busy nowadays. Fruit prospects are fine and small grain is looking well.
 Health of this community is good at this writing. There were a few cases of sore throat but all O. K. now.
 Leo Sams and John Lewis commenced cutting logs for the Williams saw mill Wednesday of this week.
 J. M. Hocking reports Canada pretty cold. He says the sidewalks were so slick a man had to be sober to stand up.
 In working with spray mixture last week Webb Roberts scalded his foot, but it takes more than a scalded foot to lay him up as he is quite a rustler.
 One of the boys working at the shingle mill in handling a shovel about the machinery got a gash cut in his face, but he was not seriously hurt.
 Arthur Erikson has been working at a logging camp, seven miles from Fall City in Polk county. He reports 18 inches of snow on the level and also that he is down with measles.
 The members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Wednesday afternoon at the church in Wilderville to consider means of suppressing the liquor traffic. Oh, if we could only do something to put down that monster curse, strong drink, that is dragging people down, down, down.
 The 23d of this month being J. W. McCollum's 55th birthday, several of the neighbors gathered in and held a working bee at his place and made quite a showing in his clearing. Of course the women went along with eatables and a most enjoyable day was spent. It was a complete surprise on Mr. and Mrs. McCollum.

ALTHOUSE

Maggie Spence is rejoicing for she is recovering from a long illness of two years. Her friends rejoice with her.
 Mr. McCann is ahead of everyone this Spring; he already has vegetables growing. Nothing like being up and a stirring.
 Miss Anna Fleeter is employed to teach the Althouse school. The patrons are all rejoicing that she has been the one selected.
 Mrs. Babcock had the misfortune to have so many of her choice rose buds frozen. We will surely wake up to the fact that we certainly have some cold snaps.
 The pleasant face of Lee Robinson is missed from the Hollaud stage line. Lee, what did you go off for, without saying good bye, for we hope you wasn't angry.
 The creamery is now a settled fact for it is on the way to completion. The owners expect to have it in running order by May 1st. Now, with a railroad and creamery, who can say aught against Illinois valley?
 Mr. Kitterman and son have been working on their homestead, where they have 20 acres of creek bottom land, 10 of this lays on Althouse Creek and the rest on Illinois river. They expect to plant their orchard land to alfalfa this Spring.
 A stirring time is thought of in the near future for a dramatic entertainment, associated with a dance, will be given. The place has not been settled on yet, but it is likely that the creamery building will be selected as the place has an upper story and is intended for a public hall.
 "Who was that talking over the phone?" was the comment of several young ladies a few days ago. Surely Irish from his dialect and threatening the life of a fellow being, too. What more horrifying? "Young man, there awaits an awful penalty for those who do murder. You might have to be put where the daffodils will forever wave over you, and waste their fragrance on the air. Consider this question deeply and beware!"
 Oh, well now, sunshine and flowers. What more refreshing? I fail to understand yet where our weather prophets have redeemed themselves. A more delightful winter could never be thought of. Just enough of sunshine, just enough of rain, just enough of snow to be a little gain, yes, and I want to thank a Kerby friend for being on my side about the weather for I began to feel embarrassed when the snow made its appearance; one thing certain, this Kerby friend knows a hard winter when he sees it.
 Happy-Go-Lucky.
