The regular weekly talk to the High School students was given last Thursday morning by Mr. J. E. Hair, Mr. Hair urged on the pupils of the High chool the importance of education after the High School course. He said such was possible for everyone, with the exception of those who may have some one dependent on them for support. He also spoke of its value in whatever line of work one entered afterwards, and showed very clearly the difference in the life of the person who has had such an education compared with those who have not. Mr. Hair is the first to bring this matter before the students, and he made them realize the import-

The following parody on Hiawatha was written by Oliven Hughes of the High School, second year class, and read at the regular rhetorical exercises last Friday afternoon. It is of such merit as to deserve publication:

Near the shores of the Rogae River, Near the muddy river water, Stood the wondrous Grants Pass city, Small, but lovely Grants Pass city. All around it rose the mountains,

While right through it flowed the TELEPHONE MONOPOLY

In this lovely Grants Pass city, Was a High School great and growing, Six there were who studied Botany, Very helpful, useful Botany, Interesting, pleasing Botany; And their wise and learned teacher, Took them out to study Nature,

But they wanted to be learning, Finding out and studying nature. So they asked their learned teacher, Saying, "What is this, Oh Teacher?" And the teacher took the rosy, Gazed long and intently at it.

There are two reasons for the Pacific the formation of independent telephone companies in Josephine county. One is that they want to retain all | their pay stations that are profitable and these embrace the Merlin and all the north and west sections of the county and those in the Illinois Valley and at Wilderville. The line up Applegate has not been profitable as Mr. Oium, their local manager has stated, and as the poles are about desettlers of that Valley. #### GRANTS PASS BOOSTERS ON DECK FOR ACTION

Fntertain a Big Delegation of Medford Hustlers and Then are the Guests of Medford.

Tuesday evening the Medford Commercial Club, 65 strong were guests monious and a united effort by the two towns in working for the development of the resources of Rogue River Valley. The Medford delegation was of Rogue River Valley, and by J. A. Perry, president of the Medford Commercial Club. The crowd arrived on the 6:20 p. m. passenger and they were met by a large delegation of Grans Pass business men. The Medford band of 16 pieces was along to enliven the occasion. The guests with the band in the lead and escorted by the freception committee were taken to the Hotel Josephine and where supper was had. At 8 o'clock the band gave a number of selections on the street that were well rendered, after which the exercises for the evening opened in the opera house. The citizens of Grants Pass were out in force so that with the visitors the opera house was well filled. O. S. Blachard presided and H. L. Gilkey acted as secretary. The first speaker called was Dr. Ray, but as general, manager of the Condor Electric Power Company is long on hustling and short on oratory he made no speech, but got a bearty applause as an appreciation for what he had done to develop Rogue River Valley. The other speakers were John D. Olwell, H. Withington, D. H. Miller, J. E. Enyart of Medford, Hon. C. V. Galloway of McMinnville, and H. L. Gilkey, L. L. Jewell and O.S. Blanchard of [Grants Pass. The addresses were all eulogistic of the advantages of Rogue River Valley and commended the movement now on to stimulate the development of the great resourc-13 86 . An invitation was extended by the Medford delegation to the business men of Grants Pass to meet with their Commercial Club this Friday evening. The invitation was accepted and a special train of two coaches has been chartered which will leave at 4:30 p. m. for Medford. Such is the interest being taken in advertising Grants Pass that fully 150 of the progressive citizens of this city will go on the excursion. A large delegation
