

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Speak for it!" she cried to herself. For she knew in her little heart, That German Syrup, home's great treasure, Could health and joy impart.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup.

We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders.

Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

All matter for this column is supplied by the Grants Pass Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The June election 1906 will soon be here. Important questions are before us. Voters, where do you stand upon those that affect every man, woman and child in the country? What are you going to do with those amendments which are virtually the repeal of the Local Option Law? I predict that the good men of our county and state will rally around the standard of right and let the liquor men know that the people are more than ever aroused against the iniquitous traffic and that the mothers and wives who love their homes and country may be given a voice in making the laws for their protection. Too much cannot be said against these amendments. In the first place it is wholly the work of the brewers and wholesale liquor dealers association through the Royal Arch and it takes it entirely out of the hands of the people to decide for or against the saloon at the doors of the home. Every voter should be at the polls this year if never before and do his duty. Under the proposed law there is no imprisonment no matter how many offenses, search warrants are not necessary and no provisions for arrest are made. Justice swept away. The state is in peril. Vote 305 X No.

Is the Saloon a Good Thing?

YES, for the saloon keeper.
YES, for the brewer.
YES, for the distiller.
YES, for the gambler.
YES, for the confidence man.
YES, for hold-up man.
YES, for the Criminal Court lawyer.
YES, for the ward-boss who gets his weekly rake-off.
YES, for the yellow newspaper editor who gets his sensation ready made there.
YES, for the spoilsman, who at the last moment can always defeat civic reform by buying up the saloon habitues.
YES, for the trapper who lives by snaring young men and girls at the wine-room supper.
YES, for every brute that guised in man's garb goes out to serve his master, the devil and drags his victim down to the hell he has made for himself.
For these and their like the saloon is a "good thing" eternally.
BUT—IS THE SALOON A GOOD THING?
NO, for the man who drinks up his wages there.
NO, for the wife whose home is bare of comfort, because of the wages her husband lost there.
NO, for the children who breakfast on crusts and dine on crusts and go to bed supperless because their father spent his wages for drink and not for food.
NO, for the butcher, who loses the wages the saloon-patron might have spent for steaks and chops.
NO, for the baker, who would sell a loaf or two of bread every day to every saloon victim if there was no saloon to tempt him when he went home from work at night.
NO, for the shoe-dealer, who would have an average of from two to five new customers for every saloon customer, if the saloon were closed, and the drinker spent part of his wages to buy new shoes for his family.
NO, for the father whose son begins to sow his wild oats in the high license "buffet" goes from bar to barrel house and winds up a physical, mental and moral suicide.
NO, for the young woman who marries the man she loves "to reform him," and finds out too late what a hell on earth is like.
NO, for the taxpayer who thinks he is getting off easy by making the saloon pay him in license fee from five to 10 per cent. of its net proceeds, and forgets to figure up as a part of the debit side: First, The cost of the police court. Second, Jail. Third, County house. Fourth, Fires caused by drunken employees. Fifth, Shrinkage in real estate values in saloon districts; and Sixth, The loss of the community of labor of able bodied men whom the saloon tempts to periodical aprees, or whose drink-undermined health and poverty at length makes a public charge; to say nothing of the boys and girls caught by rum before they are old enough to know better; and the neutralizing of all Christian endeavor by the ever present, ever busy influence of its worst enemy.

For these and for every healthy, wholesome interest of every community the saloon is not a good thing, but a mighty bad thing eternally.

If you believe this, vote against it in your town, your state and your national elections every time.—Selected.

PROVOLT

C. E. Smith of Grants Pass spent Friday and Saturday at Provolt on business.

Miss Pearl Davidson and Miss Jones of Missouri Flat were visitors at Provolt Friday.

Alex Watts left Saturday to hunt work in the Curry county vicinity. He is a hustling young man and will soon find employment if it is to be had in the mines or mills at that place.

Edward Prince of Ophir, Oregon, came to Provolt Tuesday to visit his many friends and relatives and to spend the Summer, but owing to the news received of his brother getting injured he was called home, which made his visit very short.

W. M. Sonson made Grants Pass a visit Saturday and also in connection, took a load of farm produce which found a ready sale at good prices. He received 15 cents per dozen for eggs, which at this time last season sold for 10 cents per dozen in trade.

Miss Ruby Jones of Thompson creek was at Provolt Friday to attend the closing program of a nine month's school which has been taught at Provolt by Chester Putnam of Drain. Miss Jones also spent Saturday and Sunday at Laurel Grove before returning home.

R. F. Lewman took a load of strawberries to Grants Pass Saturday. Mr. L. found a ready sale as berries are very scarce in that line and is something unusual to have home grown berries at this age of the season and gathered in the Applegate Valley and district of Provolt.

The Provolt school closed a nine months term Friday. In the evening a last day program was rendered. Mr. Putnam called the meeting to order and the evening was spent with songs, recitations, dialogues and music. The onlookers were kept with a laughing face and cheering hands. The program was one of the best ever rendered at Provolt.

The baseball game Sunday, played at the Provolt grounds, was one of the first games of the season and a good one, considering neither team has had any practice. The first inning the score stood 1 to 3 for Missouri Flat; fourth inning both sides went out and in the fifth, Missouri Flat scored five, Provolt got two. In the sixth both went out without a score. The seventh, Provolt made six and Missouri Flat three; eighth, Provolt made two and Missouri Flat one. In the ninth, both went out without a tally, which made the score 11 to 13 in favor of Provolt. Sunday the 20, Provolt will cross bats with Missouri Flat in return at the grounds at the latter place.

E. N. Provolt left Monday for Williams where he spent the day electioneering. Mr. Provolt is making a strong campaign in this vicinity and will carry the entire southern part of Josephine county. The farmers want good roads, both in Jackson and Josephine who make their trading point at Grants Pass, and if the roads between Grants Pass and Williams were properly built, Grants Pass would get a much heavier support from Jackson county and the Applegate and Thompson creek valleys, which at present goes to Jacksonville. It is to the interest of Grants Pass to support E. N. Provolt, for commissioner as well as the surrounding county. The Laurel Grove correspondent was told that one man was as good in county affairs as another. All men are not alike. Some can do more with half the money than others can. I am greatly in favor of the good work which Mr. Provolt will make and will help the good cause as much as I can, for we need a good road from the Rogue river bridge to the Wilderville road, which will be built if Mr. Provolt is elected. Remember June 4, and cast your vote for Mr. Provolt and have good roads and a larger support of Grants Pass business men, from the south end of the county.
